RECENT DEATHS

Miss Edith M. Kirkpatrick.
The many friends of Miss Edith Mable Kirkpatrick will be shocked to hear of her death which occurred at her late residence in East St. John yesterday afternoon. Miss Kirkpatrick, who was thirty-seven years of age, was a daughter of the late James and Euphemia Kirkpatrick, and leaves two brothers, James H. and William B. Kirkpatrick, and one sister, Mrs. W. Hosford. Although in failing health for several years, she was a patient sufferer, and was beloved by all who knew her. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 8 o'clock from 26 St. Patrick street to Burnside.

E. L. Gilpin.
Sydney, N. S., Nov. 14—E. L. Gilpin, property agent for the Dominion Iron & Steel Company, died at his home here yesterday of pneumonia.

On Saturday, Nov. 8th, Mrs. Elizabeth Albrow Woodworth, wife of E. Woodworth of Parrishboro, died at the age of 84 years. She was a native of Halifax. She leaves besides her husband, one son, Harry of Boston, and two daughters, Mary, at home, and Mattie, matron of the hospital in South Hanson, Mass., at present spending her vacation in Parrishboro. One brother, Henry Albrow, of Quebec, and two sisters, Mrs. John Moore and Miss Ada Albrow of Kentville, N. S., also survive.

Mrs. Creelman, widow of John Creelman, died on Tuesday morning at Pointe du Chene at the age of 76 years. She leaves one brother in Scotland, Thomas Keswick. She was an aunt of Lieut. McLaren Keswick of York County, formerly of Buctouche, and recently returned from overseas, also of Jack Keswick of British Columbia; Thomas Keswick of Moncton; Mrs. E. A. Smeets, of Atlantic City; Mrs. Leslie Murray, of Portland, Oregon, and Mrs. Frank Baxter, of Boston.

Mrs. Jennie C. Gordon died Tuesday at her home in South Devon. She was 52 years of age and is survived by her husband but no children, her only son being killed in the war; one brother, Charles Love, of Penniac, and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Grier of Alberta, and Mrs. John Cathew, of Newcastle.

George Haddow, aged 66 years, a native of Miramichi, died on Tuesday in Toronto. He will be buried today at Dalhousie, N. B. Rev. Robt. Haddow, D. D., of Toronto, is a son.
