INSURING GOOD DIGESTION
Importance of Preventing Food Fermentation in Stomach.
Good digestion usually means good health. So long as the stomach does its work properly disease can find no lodgment in the human system; the liver, kidneys and intestines will perform their work perfectly and remain in perfect health; but permit anything to interfere with the proper digestion of food, an unending train of troubles is set in motion. About the only thing that will upset the stomach and interfere with digestion is an excess of acid, usually caused by food fermentation. Food fermentation is due to chemical action in the food itself. This fermentation causes the formation of gas, or wind, as well as acid, resulting in the unnatural distention of the stomach and the burning by the acid of the delicate lining of the stomach.

Medicine and tonics cannot relieve this condition—they usually make it worse. The fermentation and acid are to blame, and these must be overcome and prevented by taking after meals a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. Physicians recommend bisulphated magnesia especially because it stops and prevents fermentation of food and neutralizes the acid instantly, making it bland and harmless, without irritating the stomach in any way. Get a little bisulphated magnesia from your druggist and try it the next time your food ferments and upsets your stomach. Note how quickly the acid is neutralized and how soon you forget that you have such a thing as a stomach.

GERMAN TREACHERY.
How a Liege Fort Was Taken; White Flag Violated.
The Paris Matin gives an account of the taking of Fort Loncin. The fort at Liege was admirably concealed, and the enemy could not succeed in locating it exactly. As their fire was ineffectual the Germans made use of a ruse to discover the exact position of the citadel, the only vulnerable point. At daybreak they sent an officer to parley with the garrison, carrying an immense white flag. General Leman, who was in command of the fort, gave an order to allow him to advance. When the pretended parlementaire came to a point where he could see the cupola clearly he stopped, and made signals by waving the flag. He was immediately shot down but the bombardment was at once resumed, and shells from the German guns fell full on the cupola. The staff killed, 120 terribly burned, and only five urged General Leman to retire with the
