R. yards in Mill street and stealing therefrom a quantity of rope, was continued in the police court this morning. ## REV. JOSEPH SMITH DEAD

Aged Church of England Clergyman Passed Away This Morning—A Native of Yorkshire

Rev. Joseph Smith, one of the oldest and best known Church of England clergymen of this diocese, died today at his summer home at Ketepec. With the exception of Rev. T. W. Street, of this city, he was the oldest Episcopal minister in this diocese. He was a native of Yorkshire, Eng., and was in the seventy-ninth year of his age. For a time he was engaged in missionary work on the West Coast of Africa, being ordained in 1863. After coming to Canada he was assistant to Rev. G. M. Armstrong, rector of St. Mary's church, and had charge of St. Mary's in 1873-74. In 1881 he was rector of Peterborough, Ontario, and was also for a time rector of Welsford. He is survived by his wife who is the daughter of the late William Seely, formerly Dominion auditor here, and one daughter, Miss Eva, of Montreal, and two sons, Herbert J., barrister, of this city, and Captain E. A. Seely Smith of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Quebec.

THE FLAG TO FLY IN HONOR OF THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT

(Sydney Record.)
There has been much discussion and anonymous writing in the newspapers in regard to whether the Canadian Ensign is or is not the correct flag to fly during the Duke of Connaught's visit to Sydney. In connection with this matter and to definitely settle the disputed point, His Worship, Mayor, wired the private secretary of the Lieutenant governor of Nova Scotia, and received the following in reply:—
"Halifax, July 22.
"Mayor, Sydney—Canadian ensign correct, but Union Jack better. J. H. Duke of Connaught's standard."
(Signed) HICKES.
According to this, the Canadian ensign may be flown by the citizens and will be quite proper, although the Union Jack is the better flag for the purpose of honoring His Royal Highness's visit, if the citizens do not possess, as stated, the Duke's standard.

STATION WALL WILL HAVE TO BE RAZED

While it was recently thought that no portion of the wall in the Union Depot, which has been undergoing repairs, would have to be torn down, it was said today that there was a likelihood that all but about one hundred and seventy-five feet would have to be razed, as the foundation was found to be weak. The work on the smaller portion has been finished, and it will stand with the repairs already made but the balance, totalling a little more than three hundred feet, will have to be torn down and replaced by a wall with a more substantial foundation.

A fairly large crew of men are at work but it is a big contract. It will require a considerable period of time, and while the men engaged may be successful in pulling down the portion of the wall in question in a few weeks, it will take a far longer time to replace it. By allowing the portion of the wall repaired to stand, the idea of having pillars instead is apparently abandoned.

IN THE COURTS

Judge Jones in chambers this morning delivered judgment in the case of James Stuart Halpin of Milford, Conn., vs. Adam H. Bell, formerly of this city, about one hundred and seventy-five feet would have to be razed, as the foundation was found to be weak. The work on the smaller portion has been finished, and it will stand with the repairs already made but the balance, totalling a little more than three hundred feet, will have to be torn down and replaced by a wall with a more substantial foundation.

Mr. Justice McKewen will leave this evening for Fredericton to sit in the divorce court, which will resume its sitting there tomorrow. Judgment will be given in one case, and hearing will be continued in two other cases now before the court.

BOY BURGLARS IN CARLETON

Albert Carleton, aged 10, was arrested this morning by Sergeant Finley, of the West Side, on suspicion of breaking and entering Harry Smith's store in Carleton on the night of July 21 and stealing therefrom a quantity of cents. He is also charged with having broken into William Goodwin's store in Winslow street, and stealing in all about $9 from the till. He was brought over to Central Police station this morning and locked up. He will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning. It is altogether likely that several other arrests of youngsters will be made in connection with these West Side breaks.

JUNIOR BASEBALL.
