

CITY WILL CANCEL CONTRACT FOR STREET LIGHTING

Decided at Meeting of the Common Council—Fire Protection for Beaconsfield, Amendments to the Traffic By-laws, Asphalt Tender Accepted and Other Business Transacted.

The New Brunswick Power Company will be notified that it will not be required to furnish street lighting for the city after June 30 as the result of the adoption of the report of the committee of the whole at yesterday's postponed meeting of the Common Council. Several other matters of importance were dealt with. In the absence of H. Wardroper, Common Clerk, Roy A. Willet filled the office. The charter requires that one of the commissioners be appointed, so Commissioner Frink was designated, but Mr. Willet did the work.

Traffic By-Laws. Copies of the amended street traffic by-laws were presented at yesterday's Common Council meeting for consideration of the members before acting on them. Probably the most important change is that referring to the rule that the vehicle on the right has the right of way at street intersections. This practice has been found very effective in other cities in eliminating collisions. Under it the driver of a vehicle has to do its right hand and give it the right of way. The section setting this forth is Section 7, Article 3, and is as follows:

"Every driver of a motor or other vehicle approaching an intersecting way shall grant the right of way at the point of intersection to vehicles approaching from his right except that whenever traffic officers are standing at such an intersection they shall have the right to regulate traffic thereat." Section 19—Motor vehicles may stand at the following places and shall not be removed therefrom for a period of four hours: (1) Along the south side of King square between the white lines painted on the roadway, except in front of the roadway leading through the centre of the square. (2) Also on the north side of King square in the space designated between the signs. (3) Also along the easterly side of Canterbury street between Princess and Duke streets. (4) Along the southerly side of Market square between Prince William and Water streets. And shall stand in a single line at an angle of forty-five degrees with the roadway with the rear right wheel at the curb. Amendments to conform with the change in the rules of the road are included in the copies. Other minor amendments are made.

Fire Protection. A basis for agreement on the matter of the city giving fire protection to Beaconsfield was presented at yesterday afternoon's Common Council meeting and was approved by the council.

Commissioner Thornton proposed that a pumping engine be purchased by the city and stationed at No. 7 Engine House, West St. John, and that six non-interfering fire alarm boxes be installed in the district proposed. Two men would have to be employed for the new engine and it would be necessary also to purchase more hose. He figured the annual maintenance charges as follows: Wages, two men, $2,800; hose, $1,400; gasoline, etc., $100; maintenance, $300; interest and sinking fund on engine, $1,300—a total of $5,800. As it would not be necessary to purchase hose every year, the annual charge would be about $5,000. Mr. Thornton proposed that the taxpayers of the district served, pay fifty per cent. of the annual charge—or about $2,500. Assessment for this amount would be made on the district hydrant district would be served by the department as it would be useless to go where there were no hydrants.

Commissioner Bullock said the city should make sure of payment from the district, but Mr. Thornton replied that this would be taken care of in the agreement.

Commissioner Wigmore favored the proposal because it also increased the fire protection facilities on the west side.

It was decided finally to notify the Beaconsfield committee that the Council would be favorably inclined to consider an agreement on this basis and Commissioner Thornton will get in touch with the committee and report back as soon as possible.

Accepts Tender.

The tender of the Imperial Oil Co., Ltd., of $25.00, plus sales tax, for 300 tons of asphalt, was accepted at yesterday's council meeting on recommendation of Commissioner Frink.

Applications for the erection of signs from the Jones Electric Radio Co., Ltd., and from the Walford Cafe, Main street, were passed on to Commissioner Frink with power to act.

MOTOR CARS FOR SHORT LINE USE

New York, March 22—Railroad executives are looking with more favor on the substitution of motor cars for steam-drawn trains to be used in the passenger service of short lines, according to statements of the American Short Line Railroad Association, which has compiled figures showing the relative costs of the two services.

The operation of a motor car varies from nineteen to twenty-five cents a mile and of a steam drawn car from sixty-five cents to $1. The lower figure for the motor car service is for smaller cars seating twenty to twenty-five passengers. These require for their handling only one man, while the larger cars, seating from forty-five to fifty passengers and providing for their baggage necessitate the services of two men. An important factor in favor of the motor car service is the extremely low maintenance cost. Some cars have run from 300,000 to 400,000 miles and are still in good condition.

He said that while the Maritime Provinces wanted was better freight rates.

CLAIMS ST. JOHN WOULD NOT LOSE BY EXTENSION

Representative of Sir Henry Thornton Gives Government This Assurance.

The ministry of the province was informed yesterday at Fredericton by W. S. Thompson, Montreal, personal representative of Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C. N. R., and A. T. Weldon, traffic manager of the Atlantic region at Montreal, that the extension of the national lines from Palmer to Providence, N. B., would not take away any trans-Atlantic export business from the port of St. John. To date $7,000,000 had been spent by the Government on that line and if the work was not completed another $5,000,000 would be exacted, in penalties for non-completion. The argument advanced by the railway men was that the road would serve as a valuable feeder for the rest of the system as it would open up a populous manufacturing district. The cost of the construction of export terminals would be so great that such work was not contemplated for a minute. The enterprise would be local in nature.

Mrs. W. D. Foster, diocesan organizing secretary, was the special guest and she gave an inspiring address on the time and work of the W. A.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. W. H. Smith; president, Mrs. R. P. McKim; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. G. B. A TISSUE OF LIES.

Halifax, March 21—When officer in charge of His Majesty's dockyard here was shown the "wholesale looking" of travelers built for the British admiralty in Canada while they lay in Halifax harbor, he refused to comment farther than to declare that the whole story was "a tissue of lies."

The report in question is said to have appeared in a London paper over the name of the Times' writer and referred to the pillaging of the travelers when they were at anchor in Bedford Basin and the Northwest Arm, Halifax, as "an astonishing story of plunder" and "a black disgrace to police and civil authorities of Halifax."

A consignment of 447 store cattle were put on board the Manchester Division yesterday at No. 15 berth, Sand Point, and the ship sailed late yesterday afternoon for Manchester.

K. D. 97 To Testify Against Reds

Federal Agent Will Tell of Red Leader's Alleged Activities at Raided Convention.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 22—(Associated Press)—K. D. 97, Government agent who rose so high in the Communist Party of America that he attended the national convention here last August as a delegate, will take the stand in the Berrien County Court as the chief State witness against William Z. Foster of Chicago, charged with criminal syndicalism. The cryptic symbol of the Government hides the identity of Francis Morrow in the records of the Department of Justice.

As Government under-cover agent at Camden, N. J., Morrow entered the ship yards and then joined the Communist Party under the name of Ashworth. By that name he was known to Communist leaders, but at the Bridgman convention, where all delegates used assumed names and were forbidden to disclose their true identity, he used the alias of Day.

The State expects Morrow to tell of a speech said to have been delivered at the convention by "Comrade Borah," the alias which the prosecution claims concealed the identity of Foster. He is also expected to describe the activities of "Comrade Brooks," who the State will attempt to prove was Arnold Losesky of Moscow, Losevsky, the State claims, came to America five days before the convention as the personal representative of Nicolai Lenin, Russian Dictator, and of the Third International. As "Comrade Brooks," it is claimed, he was one of the leading spirits in the convention held in the lonely sand dunes twenty miles from St. Joseph.

Maurice Wolf, Department of Justice agent, who was on the stand when court adjourned Friday, will be recalled to continue the identification of thousands of papers seized when he and other Government agents raided the meeting. Morrow will follow Wolf on the stand.

The whereabouts of another of the missing defendants in the criminal syndicalism cases here, forty-four of whom have never been apprehended, was disclosed when Federal agents learned Alfred Wagenknecht of Cleveland, for whom a warrant has been outstanding since last September, had been arrested in Connecticut on a charge of forging passports.

It was also announced that Robert Branigan, former Department of Justice agent, who is defense witness, has been released from the Lowell (Mass.) jail, where he was a prisoner on a local charge.

The defense claims Branigan, while a Government agent, was like Morrow, a spy in the Communist ranks. The Communist leader, Foster's attorneys say, moved their secret headquarters in New York to keep the Government from finding them, and Branigan, supposed Communist leader, in reality Government agent, was the man delegated for the task of watching them.

He Says He Can Now Do His Work

Quebec Man Used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Aubin States that they have made him well and that his kidneys are without pain.

St. Nicholas Station, Que., March 21—(Special)—Gaudias Aubin, a well known and respected resident here is a sure friend of Dodd's Kidney Pills. He has tried them and found them good.

"I am now very well and my kidneys are healthy," he said. "Since the time I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have not had any more pain and I have been able to get to my work."

That Mr. Aubin's trouble came from the kidneys is evidenced by the relief he got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They heal and strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain all the impurities out of the blood.

It is easy to see how neglecting them may be the cause of serious illness. Rheumatism, Dropsy, Urinary Troubles, Diabetes and Heart Disease are some of the penalties that follow neglecting the call of sick kidneys.

Sound kidneys mean pure blood. Pure blood means good health.

Ask your neighbor if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best remedy for sick kidneys.

PLENTY OF BREAD NOW SEEN ON MOSCOW TABLES

White and Black Loaves Are Being Sold at Prices in Reach of All.

Moscow, March 6—(By Mail)—When calculated on a gold basis bread is now cheaper in Moscow than in almost any other city in the world, and Muscovites, after five years of bread shortage, or the consumption of weeds and reproducing substitutes, now are revelling in a diet of their favorite foodstuff. Black bread, which forms the staple element of the Russian diet, now is obtained in the markets at the rate, equivalent of about two and a half American cents a pound. A year ago the price of the average workman was hardly sufficient to buy two or three pounds of bread a day, while now the most poorly-paid man can buy fifteen or twenty pounds and gorge himself and his family to the full.

White bread costs nearly three times as much as black bread, but nowadays one may see poorly-dressed men and women carrying huge loaves of it through the streets, bound home to indulge themselves in a luxury which they have not since the revolution.

The scale of living in Moscow has greatly improved over conditions prevailing a year ago, and with the exception of certain refugee camps, nearly every one in the city now has enough to eat.

Muskovites say that this is the first winter since 1916 when they have been able to keep their houses warm enough for comfort. The fuel supply of the city seems adequate, and wood is no longer rationed.

SECRET OF GREAT HAWAII KING'S GRAVE KNOWN TO 3

Burial Place of Kamehameha Is Guarded by Oath Made Years Ago.

Honolulu, T. H., Feb. 8—(By Mail)—The last resting place of Kamehameha I, Hawaii's first and greatest King, is known to three persons and the location was not a secret that perished with the deaths of the attendants at the monarch's funeral rites, as popularly believed. Frederick W. Beckley, Hawaiian historian, told the Hawaiian Historical Society at its last meeting here.

Kamehameha, a warrior chief of the island since 1816 when they have been able to keep their houses warm enough for comfort. The fuel supply of the city seems adequate, and wood is no longer rationed.

Beckley's statement, which aroused great interest, followed the reading of a paper on "The Passing of Kamehameha the Great," by Dr. W. D. Westervelt, authority on Hawaiian legends and history.

According to Westervelt, Kamehameha was the last Hawaiian chief who refused to permit the sacrifice of a human being in an attempt to save the chief's life. When relatives and retainers attempted to sacrifice a man to propitiate the gods to spare the King's life, Kamehameha forbade them, saying, "The man belongs to the chief."

Westervelt said that Kamehameha's last words were: "E na i wale no oukou i kuu pono" (The right which I have done ye cannot undo).

A cream that really holds the powder

How many times especially when you were dancing, you have wished your face would not get shiny and that the powder would stay on!

Powder put directly on the skin does not stay. Too much of it clings in spots. Some of it catches on little rough places for a time and then flecks off. This roughness of the skin's surface is often so slight that you cannot see it, but it is enough to prevent the powder going on smoothly.

Try putting powder on after you have used Pond's Vanishing Cream—the soft velvety surface it gives your skin forms the ideal powder base. The powder goes on evenly giving your skin a lovely transparent tone and it stays on for hours—even when you walk in the wind or dance.

This fragrant cream contains not a drop of oil to reappear in a shine and will actually make your skin feel and look softer and smoother the moment you apply it. Only a cream that your skin can absorb instantly will do this.

Indispensable for this use, Pond's Vanishing Cream has an equally, if not more important, function. It is used the world over as a protection against wind and sun or cold. For this double purpose it was perfected. Always smooth it on before you go out.

You can buy it in jars and tubes at any drug or departmental store, at 50 cents each. It does not clog the pores or promote the growth of hair. The Pond's Extract Company, 146 Brock Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

For a thorough cleansing you need a very different cream. Use Pond's Cold Cream every night and after every dusty trip. It is made with just the right amount of oil to remove every bit of dirt.
