

V.S. SCHOONER WRECKED; CAPTAIN RELATIVE OF PERENE CRASH VICTIMS

Maid of France, Capt Haugh, Reported Derelict Off the U. S. Coast.

Wilmington, N. C., April 11.—A wrecked schooner believed to be the British schooner Maid of France, eight days overdue from Barbadoes, was reported a menace to navigation of the coast in a wireless message picked up here last night. Two bogies were reported floating nearby. The Maid of France was owned by F. K. Warren, Halifax, and registered at Annapolis Royal, N. S., April 11.—The Maid of France, of which F. K. Warren and Company of Halifax are managing owners, sailed from Barbadoes on March 12, with molasses for Wilmington. She was in command of Captain C. A. Haugh, of La Have, N. S., whose uncle and cousin were lost when the schooner Maid of Scotland was sunk in collision off St. John harbor a few months ago. Others of the crew were, Mate, Leo Lohmes, La Have; steward, George Herbert (colored) Halifax; and three whose addresses are not given, Harry Anderson, Nels Haines and Ruben Powers. The Maid of France, formerly the Fundy King, was a three masted schooner of 412 tons gross. She was built at Margarettville, Annapolis county by J. L. Balcom in 1910, and has been in the West Indies trade for some time.

House Likely To Prorogue By Easter

(Continued from page 1.) Year of Anticipation spent not only its gain, but several thousand dollars raised in other ways. It was, he said, a most valuable medium of advertising and he invited every member to join. He regretted that so little interest in its work was shown in the province at large. Mr. Burdock agreed that the Association should be supported, but said he would venture on a little criticism of the St. John headquarters. On return from the Boston tour of the Association last year he and three others decided to visit this headquarters of which they had heard. They had great difficulty in finding it, and when they did discover its little sign beside much larger ones, and entered the office, young ladies in charge, who he gallantly said was extremely good looking did not manifest any particular interest in them. He submitted a sign, more easy for tourists to discover, and that the person in charge should be very alert to make an impression on the visitors. There was some good-natured chaffing of Mr. Burdock for his confessed failure to find it in them. He submitted the plan for the sign, and after Mr. Fawcett had expressed himself quite satisfied with the Premier's explanation the item passed.

IS GIVEN TERM IN "SOLITARY"

This is Outcome of Non-Support Case in Police Court. A pathetic story of a mother striving to support her four children and eventually being forced to seek food and shelter in the Municipal Home was unfolded in the police court this morning when Charles Harding appeared to answer a charge of non-support. He pleaded guilty and when asked for his reason he said he had gone to the United States last July and soon after his arrival there was in an automobile accident and had one arm and a leg broken. As a result he said, he had been in a hospital for a long period and being thus incapacitated, was unable to care for his family. When he did procure work he said the U. S. Immigration authorities sought him out and deported him to Bay Heights. Mrs. Harding, who had been crying during the proceedings said that her husband left her on July 30 and she did not receive a cent from him since that time she had not received a cent to help support her or her children. As a result of her plight an effort had been made to locate her husband and recently it was learned that he was employed in the States and was receiving $45 a week. Mrs. Harding said her husband had previously been industrious and had always treated her well and provided for her. Magistrate Henderson spoke sharply to the defendant and warned him that he was responsible for the support of his wife and family and if he failed to do so he would be fined $500 or sent to jail for one year. The defendant said he wanted to go to jail and as $100 and in default of payment ordered him to go to jail for three months and while there to be kept in solitary confinement. Magistrate Henderson remarked that he was thoroughly ashamed of the man's attitude.
