MC 2035 POOR DOCUMENT

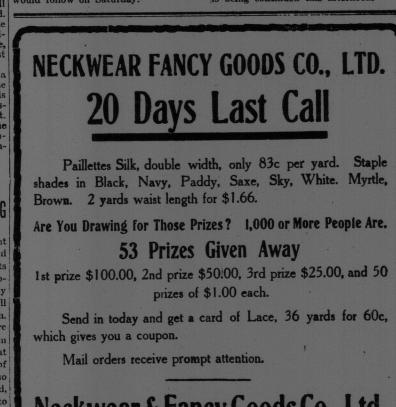

Our Special Price For a Lim- ited Time	December	over the I. C. R. Mr. Hayes said he had no information.		Color for mo
	March	Thre were also in the city, J. T. Hallissy, superintendent, from Truro;	Frank Owens; vice-president, Albert Goldie; second vice-president, D. Grady;	of Colu of C. v
$6.00	August	H. H. Melanson, general passenger agent; D. M. Condon, district passen- ger agent at Halifax; P. F. Mooney,	sistant, George Quinlan; financial sec- retary, M. Morrisy; treasurer, C. E.	arms o ed to
Epstein & Co.	Wheat- Decr 871/8 871/8 871/4	general traffic manager for the Canadian Northern and Shore Captain Cunning- harm of the C N. P. The rist of the	T. E. McGinnis; trustees, Rev. J. J.	Coloned his suc Father
EXPERT OPTICIANS Opera Block - 193 Union St.	May 90% 90% 91% Corn-	ham of the C. N. R. The visit of the latter two had to do with the coming of the company's steamers' to St. John	gerald, James McDonald, and Timothy Donovan.	conduc add K This
OPEN EVENINGS	Decr	this year.		Northe with p
	Decr	LOCAL CABINET CHANGES	week the stupendous four-reel British spectacle, "The Battle of Waterloo," will	ain via O. P in resp
LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION		Several May Follow Soon After Today's Government Meeting	of ordinance. It will be a thrilling por-	Barnsd the Mo
OLET-	Montreal Morning Transactions (J. M. Robinson & Sons Private Wire	(Special to Times.)	trayal of the greatest struggle in the	Gas Co be emp of the
A self-contained house and flat in Carletonbath, electric light,	Telegram) Bid Asked Bell Telephone	Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 4—The local government is in session here today with all the members in attendance. Organ-	cnacted with scrupulous attention to his- toric detail. British soldiers do the act-	Barnsd Rev. Memor etc. Very reasonable for winter. -APPLY-	Brazil	izer Harry Woods also is here and Or- ganizer Dickson is expected this even- ing. Several delegations are here to meet	ing, and at the close of the picture pa- triotism can be vented upon a series of inspiring allegories dear to everybody	last evo
IAN'S EXCHANGE, Tea and Lunch Room.	Cement	the executive. It is generally understood that the	living beneath the protecting folds of the Union Jack. Shows at 2, and 3,45	NEW
NTED-Roomers, 45 Sydney street 4668-12-11.	Detroit $70\frac{1}{4}$ $70\frac{1}{2}$ Dom. Iron	supreme court act creating an additional judgeship will be put in force and will be followed soon by reconstruction of	in the afternoon, and at 7 and 8.80 in the evening. Programme one and a half hours long, including the Mary picture,	INLIT
NTED Painting, Paperhanging,	McDonald 17 18 Montreal Cottons 51	the cabinet. Provincial Secretary Mc- Leod will resign to contest York for Ot-	the vaudeville act, and Madame Furlong- Schmidt. Please observe these hours graining, by day or piece, 201 els street. 4676-12-11	Ottawa Power	tawa and it is reported that his succes- sor will be J. K. Pinder, M. P. P. Pinder wants to be minister of public works and	and be in your places early. SECURE AN INCOME
ATED Double Furnished room to let, 28 Dorchester street. 4667-12-11.	Shawinigan	the proposal to transfer Morrissy to the Crown Lands portfolio is said to be un-	To secure an income safely, surely, steadily, beginning now. $500 yields $10 every three months, $40. a year	The INTED-Two girls for ironing. Ap ply American Laundry, Charlotte	Steel Co of Canada 16 16¼ Textile 83 83¼ Tuckett's 35 87	der consideration. In that case Flem- ming would again be provincial secre- tary. It is settled that the speaker will	$1,000 earns $20 every three months, $80 a year. $5,000 nets you $100 every three	port la charne
t. 4662-12-6.	Toronto Rly	be the next attorney-general. The mild weather has caused the ice	is returned you get back $575 for $500,	nay Ba powerf suction team. Apply City Fuel Co. City d. 4675-12-6.	Can Cottons pfd 72 78 ¹ / ₂ Cement pfd	to run out of the river. Rev. A. F. Newcombe will be induct- ed in Brunswick street Baptist church	000 invested in addition to the interest paid in the mantime.	large q is the ANTED-Maid for general house- work in a small family. Apply to	Car pfd 106 Iron pfd 95 Illinois pfd 90	President Wilson Ill.	no bother, the interest at eight per cent.,	Commi Norton er.
Queen street. Mrs. C. W. Hope nt. 1788-t.f.	Paint pfd 100¼ Ames pfd 70¼	Washington, Dec. 4-President Wil- son, who is suffering from a cold, re-	you get at the wind-up is all secured, assured and guaranteed by a first mort- gage on a well established and profit-	G. F pany,
ANTED—A male cook immediate- 7. Apply Winter Port Restaurant, Union street, West. 4691-12-8	PLAN TO FORBID BRINGING	mained in bed today. His physician thought it probable he would have to keep to his room tomorrow as well, so	able business, with its valuable rail and wharf properties and coal mining areas	pany n this po nounce
R SALE-Victor gramaphone with	OF ARMS INTO IRELAND	engagements were cancelled.	and big earning power. This is as provided by the debenture	to con They a STOCK OF J. S. THOUGH & COMBBANY, LTG.
records. Address A. Wilcox, 14½ man Hill. 4693-12-11		Not for Them to Decide. Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the	stock of J. S. Gibbon & Company, Ltd. Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue.	here.
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid-	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue.	SENSA
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro-	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re-	here.
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. 3rindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out-	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship	here. SENSA In t
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst.,	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night.	In t the Th their e to Hea
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. me 161-21.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel-	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E, eldest daughter of the late Thomas	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at	In t the Th their c to He atre. From
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just red from west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once. youg man	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is	In t SENSA In t the Th the Th their e to He atre. From upon t of the there is
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. 3rindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car-	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.80	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- graph writing staff but now of the re- seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been	In t the The their c to He atre. From upon the there there The beginn the end
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ine 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4681-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John Biver Commission By Jan.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Functal on Sunday afternoon at 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow	In t the Th the Th the Th their e to He atre. From upon to of the there there of while Espon
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4681-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or me Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4688-12-11	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th the re to He to He there there there there there there there there there there there there there there the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the the the the the there the
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4681-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4686-12-11 IO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371,	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. J, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Féllows, of Bangor, were conferring	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re-	In t SENSA In t the Th their e to He atre. From upon to of the there is The beginn the ena of whi Espo captain ing, in
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 /O FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekceping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 48 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th their e to He atre. From upon f of the there is there is there is captain ing, in also th act. Jas. daring, now s
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4681-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or one Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4688-12-11 10 FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission soon.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 49 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2-80 o'clock.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th their e to Hec to Hec there the there there there there there there there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the there the the the there the the the there the the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the there the there the the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there there there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the thet the thet the thet the the
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. hull, Rothesay. 4688-12-11 10 FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- gonish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission soon. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 48 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2.80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1854 and in	In t the The their e to Hee atre. From upon ti of the there is the end of whi Espec captain ing, in also th act. Jas. daring story, new s pital, The c
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. 45. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 IO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-60 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- gonish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistake n the Orange Hall, Germain street, diy return it to 16 Brindley street	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plet the work on the commission som. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 48 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2-50 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. W.M. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1954 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was celled to sanction the reciprocity agreement with	In t the The their e to Hee atre. From upon ti of the there is the end of whi Espec captain ing, in also th act. Jas. daring story, new s pital, The c
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. 45. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. red.sfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or one Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 IO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4668-12-6 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- gonish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-tf. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistake n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dly return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Féllows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission soon. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E, eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 49 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2-80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 8rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jenente Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Frieday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1854 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:Mrs. W. S. Carter was the	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th their e to Hec to Hec there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the the the the the the the the th
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4666-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or me Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 #O FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 871, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- ponish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistake n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dy return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5. ST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, Persian lamb muff. Finder will	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission son. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Tuesday and arranged with Evangelist A, P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 49 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2-80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 8rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 28 Murray street, on Dec. 8rd, Harris Havelock, fourth son of Capt. and Mrs	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1954 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs.	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th their e to Hec to Hec there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the the the the the the the the th
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4668-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or one Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 FO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4688-12-10 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- onish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistake n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dly return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5. ST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, ck Persian lamb muff. Finder will rewarded on leaving at 11 Exmouth set. 4678-12-8	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission soon. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Tuesday and arranged with Evangelist A. P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been preaching to large congregations in the Conduct a series of evangelical services	Mossejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 46 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2-80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 56 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 28 Murray street, on Dec. 3rd, Harris Havelock, fourth son of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Fardie, in the thirteenth year of his age, leaving father, mother and four	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1854 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs. R. G. Murray, of St. John, who is her guest, Mrs. R. N. MacCunn and Mrs. James Sproule were the prize winners.	here. SENSA In t the The their of their of their of the there atre. From upon the there the there there there there the there the there the there the there the there the there the there the the there the the there the the there the the there the the the the the the the the the th
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. me 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4668-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or one Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 IO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- onish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistake n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dly return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5. ST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, ck Persian lamb muff. Finder will rewarded on leaving at 11 Exmouth set. 4673-12-8 D LET—Small two story warehouse on the Gilbert Road, near Rail- tracks. Possession can be given at	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission son. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Tuesday and arranged with Evangelist A. P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been preaching to large congregations in the Carmarthen street Methodist church, to conduct a series of evangelical services in the Reformed Baptist churches in Fredericton, St. John, Woodstock, Hart-	Mosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but fnally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E, eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 46 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2.80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 28 Murray street, on Dec. 3rd, Harris Havelock, fourth son of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Fardie, in the thirteenth year of his age, leaving father, mother and four brothers to mourn their sad loss. Funeral from his father's residence, Saturday, 2.80 p.m. Friends and ac-	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. W.M. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1954 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:—Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs. R. G. Murray, of St. John, who is her guest, Mrs. R. N. MacCunn and Mrs. James Sproule were the prize winners. At the tea hour Mrs. O. S. Crocket poured.	here. SENSA In t the Th their e to Hee atre. From upon to of the there is The beginn the ena of whit captaining, in also th act. Jas. daring story, now s pital, The c is take pany, titled BUYIN As a in the this fi
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Srindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4668-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or one Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4668-12-11 IO FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4688-12-60 ARMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- gonish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistakee n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dy return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5. OST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, ck Persian lamb muff. Finder will rewarded on leaving at 11 Exmouth ste. 4673-12-8 D LET—Small two story warehouse on the Gilbert Road, near Rail-	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Féllows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission son. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Tuesday and arranged with Evangelist A. P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been preaching to large congregations in the Carmarthen street Methodist church, to conduct a series of evangelical services in the Reformed Baptist churches in Fredericton, St. John, Woodstock, Hart- land and Fort Fairfield, Me. Mr. Courthers will bedevice to markets we	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E., eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 46 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2.80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Frieday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 28 Murray street, on Dec. 3rd, Harris Havelock, fourth son of Capt. and Mrs- J. W. Fardie, in the thirteenth year of his age, leaving father, mother and four brothers to mourn their sad loss. Funeral from his father's residence, Saturday, 2.80 p.m. Friends and ac- quaintances invited to attend.	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. W.M. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1954 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:—Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs. R. G. Murray, of St. John, who is her guest, Mrs. R. N. MacCunn and Mrs. James Sproule were the prize winners. At the tea hour Mrs. O. S. Crocket poured. Mr. and Mrs. Hobson B. Smith and family left on the non train today for Halifax where they will embark on R.	In t the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the the atre. From upon to of the there is The beginn the enail of whit Espectation in also the act. Jas. daring story, now s pital, The c is take pany, titled BUYIN As a in the this fill in print cery lill in all as gro
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4688-12-11 70 FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping, 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-60 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- ponish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistaken n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dy return it to 16 Brindley street get his own. 4678-12-5. ST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, ck Persian lamb muff. Finder will rewarded on leaving at 11 Exmouth- set. 4673-12-8 D LET—Small two story warehouse on the Gilbert Road, near Rail- y tracks. Possession can be given at e. Apply to Emerson & Fisher Ltd. rmain street, city. 1789-tf.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Féllows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plete the work on the commission son. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Tuesday and arranged with Evangelist A. P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been preaching to large congregations in the Carmarthen street Methodist church, to conduct a series of evangelical services in the Reformed Baptist churches in Fredericton, St. John, Woodstock, Hart- land and Fort Fairfield, Me. Mr. Gouthey will begin in Fredericton on the 15th instant, if not earlier.	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst., after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E, eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 48 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2:80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 28 Murray street, on Dec. Srd, Harris Havelock, fourth son of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Fardie, in the thirteenth year of his age, leaving father, mother and four brothers to mourn their sad loss. Funeral from his father's residence, Saturday, 2:80 p.m. Friends and ac- quaintances invited to attend. ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY FUNERAL NOTICE	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1954 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs. A. G. Murray, of St. John, who is her guest, Mrs. R. N. MacCunn and Mrs. James Sproule were the prize winners. At the tea hour Mrs. O. S. Crocket poured. Mr. and Mrs. Hobson B. Smith, and family left on the non train today for Halifax where they will embark on R. M. S. Cobequid for Bermuda to spend Christmas with Mrs. Smith's parents. Mr. Smith is the caretaker of the Im-	In t SENSA In t the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the Th the the atre. From upon to of the there is the there is the there is the
man Hill. 4693-12-11 ANTED—A second-hand violin- cello to buy or rent. Address with iculars, "Cello" Evening Times. 4674-12-8. HILE YOU read the morning news we will sole and heel your shoes. Brindle, Quick Repairs, 227 Union. ne 161-21. IS. ROSE BURGESS. Please write or call on brother, Herbert (just. redsfrom west) at Elliott Hotel. 4666-12-5. ANTED—At once, youg man stenographer. Apply St. John ing Co. Ltd., Rodney Wharf. 4661-12-9. ANTED—Good plain cook; refer- ences required. Apply by letter or ne Rothesay 44 to Mrs. W. R. nbull, Rothesay. 4688-12-11 70 FURNISHED rooms to let, suit- able for light housekeeping. 371, caster street, West End. 4683-12-6 RMS and Building to rent posses- sion immediately situated Mana- gonish Road. Apply Post Office box 1787-t.f. OULD THE PERSON who took the hat last evening in a mistaken n the Orange Hall, Germain street, dy return it to 16 Brindley streets get his own. 4678-12-5. ST—Nov. 24th, between Exmouth Richmond, St. Patrick streets, ck Persian lamb muff. Finder will rewarded on leaving at 11 Exmouth set. 4673-12-8 D LET—Small two story warehouses on the Gilbert Road, near Rail- y tracks. Possession can be given at e. Apply to Emerson & Fisher Ltd. rmain street, city. 1789-t.f.	Dublin, Dec. 4—The importation of arms into Ireland is about to be forbid- den, according to newspapers here, which declare that the issue of a pro- clamation to that effect may be expect- ed in a day or two. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, is here in conference with the Earl of Aberdeen, and the result, it is thought, that the government will take this first step against the plans of rebel- lion of the followers of Sir Edward Car- son and Irish Unionist leaders. KEEGAN AND FELLOWS ARE IN WASHINGTON Expect to Close Work of International St. John River Commission By Jan. 1, They Say. Washington, D. C., Dec. 4 — Peter Charles Keegan, of Van Buren, and Os- car Fellows, of Bangor, were conferring with State Department officials and others yesterday over the business of the international commission on the St. John river. It is the intention to com- plet the work on the commission soon. "We have our work nearly done," said Mr. Keegan, "and hope to be through by Jan. 1 or thereabouts. Some matters we have investigated are yet to be voted upon, but they will be decided soon." EVANGELIST GOUTHEY Rev. S. A. Baker came to St. John on Truesday and arranged with Evangelist A. P. Gouthey, of Indiana, who has been preaching to large congregations in the Carmarthen street Methodist church to conduct a series of evangelical services in the Reformed Baptist churches in Fredericton, St. John, Woodstock, Hart- land and Fort Fairfield, Me. Mr. Gouthey will begin in Fredericton on the 13th instant, if not earlier. DOTATO SHIPMENTS	Moosejaw, Sask., Dec. 4—The city school board last night considered the appointment of a censor of waists worn by the older girls attending school, but finally decided that this matter was out- side their jurisdiction. DEATHS FOLEY—In this city, on the 4th inst, after a short illness of pneumonia, Mary E, eldest daughter of the late Thomas B. (H. M. S.), and Martha Foley, leav- ing one brother and four sisters to mourn. (Boston, Sussex and Bathurst papers please copy). Funeral on Sunday afternoon at, 2.80 o'clock, from her late residence, 226 Princess street. Friends invited. WILSON—Charles Byron, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Smeaton D. Wilson, aged three weeks and three days. Funeral private. JACK—At Clifton Springs, New York State, on the 2nd inst., David Russell Jack, aged 46 years. Funeral Friday from St. Andrew's church; services commence at 2.80 o'clock. DONAHUE—In this city on the 3rd instant, at her home, 58 Brussels street, Mrs. Jennette Donahue, widow of John Donahue, at the age of 59 years, leaving three sons and three daughters to mourn. Funeral from her late residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 58 Brussels street, Friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 58 Brussels street, friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, 58 Brussels street, friday at 2.80. Friends invited to attend. FARDIE—At his father's residence, Saturday, 2.80 p.m. Friends and ac- quaintances invited to attend. ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY FUNERAL NOTICE The members of St. Andrew's Society are requested to meet at St. Andrew's Society are requested to meet at St. Andrew's Society	Apply at once to secure your shares of the unsold balance of the issue. PERSONALS William Ryan, formerly of The Tele- graph writing staff but now of the Re- gina Leader, left for his return to the west last night. Wm. J. Frezell, C. P. R. steamship service, Quebec, arrived in the city to- day en route to Halifax for the winter months. Mrs. Harold Mayes, of Prince street, West End, held a very enjoyable at home on last Saturday afternoon. Some seventy of her friends were present. Miss Margaret Smith of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. James McCarthy, Ger- main and Queen streets. She has been visiting for some weeks in Sydney. H. K. Reynolds, who is opening an insurance brokerage in New Glasgow left on today's train for that town. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell in Fredericton on Tuesday evening a party was held in honor of Mrs. Zebedee Wright, who took her de- parture last evening for Boston to re- side there. Mrs. Wright received an address and a very handsome traveling bag from members of Star of the East Lodge, L. O. B. A. Hon. A. R. McClelan is seriously ill at his home in Riverside, Albert county. He entered public life in 1854 and in that year attended a special session of the legislature, which was called to sanction the reciprocity agreement with the United States. Gleaner:Mrs. W. S. Carter was the hostess at two bridge parties this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Carter en- tertained at nine tables in honor of Mrs. R. G. Murray, of St. John, who is her guest, Mrs. R. N. MacCunn and Mrs. James Sproule were the prize winners. At the tea hour Mrs. O. S. Crocket poured. Mr. S. Cobequid for Bermuda to spend Christmas with Mrs. Smith's parents. Mr. Smith is the caretaker of the Im- perial Theatre and occupied the same position in the old Nickel for nearly	here. SENSA In t the The their of their of their of the the there there there the the the the the the the the the th

NG XMAS GROCERIES

 The device of Montreal, who is the rouling goid plees. Here shirts waist dying open, revealed a dingry yet low mass of bank notes severed into the source of the rouling goid plees. Here shirts waist dying open, revealed a dingry yet low mass of bank notes severed into the source of the shirts waist dying open, revealed a dingry yet low mass of bank notes severed into the source of the source <section-header><section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> Cruze is seen in the role of a Italian count, the hero of the while Miss Jean Darnell, who is seriously ill at the German Hos-New York, plays his sweetheart. comedy element of the programme en care of by the Keystone Com-who present a foolish farce en-"A Game of Pool." AT BARKERS MEANS SAVING inced in this paper last night big advertisement of Barker's Ltd m is making big, attractive cuts ce in all departments of the gro-ine which means saving of money lines of Xmas. groceries as well eries for every day consumption. e who buy from Barkers are which gives you a coupon. the high cost of living problem to the always low prices that n that store. Free delivery of ies to all parts of the city, also Carleton, Fairville, Kingsville, Milford, depots and boats is an added attraction to this store; as in addition to the lowest Neckwear & Fancy Goods Co., Ltd.

The old woman started up in time to rough Rev. E. J. Savage. rick was accompanied by from the floor. Then she scrambled af-ter the rolling gold pieces. Her shirt-waist flying open, revealed a dingy, yel-low mass of bank notes sewed into the line old woman started up in time to $20 and $50 bills from the floor. Then she scrambled af-ter the rolling gold pieces. Her shirt-waist flying open, revealed a dingy, yel-low mass of bank notes sewed into the line old woman started up in time to $50 and $50 bills from the floor. Then she scrambled af-ter the rolling gold pieces. Her shirt-low mass of bank notes sewed into the line old woman started up in time to $50 and $50 bills from the floor. Then she scrambled af-ter the rolling gold pieces. Her shirt-low mass of bank notes sewed into the line of the st. Andrews' Beacon tells a story rergyle reported today that while on voyage from Penarth for Halifax, s she picked up the crew of the

RECENT DEATHS

