ANNUAL DIOCESSAN COMMITTEE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE

YOUR COMMITTEE is not slow to report to you members such considerations as it's blemishes during the past year. It has in past time shown the demands which Diocesan Committee, and individual persons made upon its' Delegates, the religious people, blessed by the sacred volume and of other It is urged, delegates, that a better and more lasting and more widely extended lecture of its' members, may be found in the different classes of its' members, and in the chapters of the book and others, which a Report of this Society may be seen, than in which a Report of this
