

REPORT.

SINCE the last time that the Committee had the pleasure of addressing the friends and the supporters of the Nova-Scotia Bible Society, nothing has occurred materially to affect its interests. Most of its friends have continued to exert themselves in its favour, with unabated zeal; and, notwithstanding the too prevalent distress of the Inhabitants of this Province, their contributions, in aid of the Bible Society, have been to a very respectable amount.

The sums collected, during the last twelve months, including a small balance of last year's Account, amount to 418*l.* 15*s.* 9*d.*; of this sum, 41*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* have been expended for Printing, Stationary, and other incidental charges, leaving 376*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* to be remitted for the use of the Parent Society, subject, perhaps, to a small deduction for the price of Bills.

The Trustees of the Parent Society, have continued, during the last year, their wonted attention to the wants of this Province, and the same ready compliance as formerly with the wishes of your Committee. There were, on the first of last March, remaining in the hands of the Society's Depositary, 26 Bibles, and 41 New-Testaments. There have since been received from the British and Foreign Bible Society, 396 Bi-
