Kamloops Takes Matter Up and Secures Justice for Shippers.

Kamloops, Aug. 2 .- John F. Smith, as secretary of the Farmers' Institute and assistant secretary of the Fruit-Growers' Association, took advantage of the presence here of Superintendent F. F. Busteed, and W. C. Bowles, general freight agent of the C. P. R., to discuss the freight service as it affects this district. The unsatisfactory service now rendered and its consequent effect on the general production of the district were thoroughly gone into and explained by Secretary Smith, resulting YOUNG MAN seeks position as book-keeper, eight years' experisate single and double entry; first-class references.
