Boon from heaven above. Freedom, rich in good, we hail thee, True friend of the human race, Cursed the cowards who assail the In thy name, to them disgrace,

Freedom, beautiful when real. Thou hast noble souls inspired, but the flendish, false ideal, To heaven daring crime has fired, Those by faith nor reason guided,

Truth and duty each derided, Freedom, thou most vain delusion Save allied with Law and Love, Driv'st thy votaries to confusion, They alone the freemen prove,

Who their passions flerce constraining, Know that freedom's God is reigning In the realms above. B. H. S. M.
