ROBIN HOOD DISMASTED. T. T. Lantalum's Yacht Meets With an

short, as with a report like the boom of a cannon the lanyards gave away and the mast of the sturdy little craft snapped like a toy and went overboard into the river. For a time there was a mild sort of a panic on board, and boats of all kinds hussled to the result of all kinds hussled to the result of the control of th mild sort of a panic or board, and boats of all kinds hustled to the soerie of the disaster off Westfield, all anxious to be of assistance. Mr. Lantalum was as cool and collected throughout as was Sir Thomas Lipton when the cup challenger lost her sky scraping apparatus. He gathered in the remnants and sorrowfully looked about for a tow home. Again in luck—the Scionda hove in sight and Commodore Thomson towed the disabled yacht to Millidgeville.

The Robin Hood experienced a severe strain in a race in the harbor last fall and subsequent examination since the accident shows that the mast was partially broken at that time. It was good, however, for many a blow if the lanyards had held.

Mr. Lantalum says he is pleased that the accident occurred when it did, that is if it was to occur, and not during the annual cruise to which he looks forward for much pleasure.—Star.

SCHOOL GLOSING AT ROTHESAY.

Beginning of Annual Exercises--- Large Growds.

Perfect Weather—Dean Partridge' Earnest and Timely Sermon to the Boys.

with the closing of the Rothesay schools were held at St. Paul's church, Rothesay, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. Very Rev. Dean Partridge fficiated, and was assisted by Rev. A. W. Daniel, rector of St. Paul's, and parents and friends of the students, but to all the residents of Rothesay, and yesterday the perfect weather assisted in drawing together to the serthan usual. The beautiful church was packed to the doors, and among those present were many who had driven from the city to attend.

The musical portion of the service, which was under the direction of George Collinson, was ably performed by a choir of boys from the Rothesay College, whose sweet young voices, clear and strong, rose high above those oir was also assisted by a male quartette from the city.

After the reading of a lesson by the ector and the singing of a number of walms especially suited to the occamerly rector of St. Paul's, delivered the sermon to the boys. Taking his text from Proverbs, "As a man thinkpointed out that although many boys might give sensible replies as to why they were sent to school, yet few of them would answer that it was that they might be taught to think. The whole purpose of school life is to train the powers of thought and not to store away in the brain any fixed quantity away in the brain any fixed quantity of knowledge. Students should not only have a store of knowledge, but can be solved by the farmers alone. Instead of the farmer rearing 50 or 100 that receive little attention with the certainty that they have the power of dealing with the many questions of life which will arise.

In every man there is a secret chamber of the brain from which his thoughts come, and in which he is alone with God. No person can pene-should be hatched and reared by incutrate this secret chamber, for no per-son can ever really know any other for market the cockerels should be person so well as that one is known to placed in fatter

The work connected with thought is great, and God seems to be giving even greater power to men. More wonderful inventions and discoveries are being made every day, and it is known that the inventors and discoverers give their very best thoughts to the subjects on which they are engaged. In this way the thoughts become a part of their very selves and are therefore of much value and also ness when it is carried on as an advented on a substantial pro-

are therefore of much value and also of much influence. For these and many other reasons it is of utmost importance that boys at school should learn to think and learn to control and train their thoughts. They should get the right ideals, should understand their purpose, and should fix the standard of true self to which they must live. This standard will be found in the secret chamber of thought, for as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.

In conclusion, the speaker strongly impressed the necessity of getting the right kind of thoughts and ideas into the heart. The right ones will crowd out all that are wrong, for there is not foom for both, but unless the heart is full of noble and lofty ideals the foul and wrong ones may creep in. This is of the utmost importance to boys, is of the utmost importance to boys, whose hearts form a flerce battle-ground for good and evil, and the true end can only be brought about by the taking of Christ into the heart.

The offertory was for the diocesan fund for the education of the children of the clergy.

On Thursday the athletic competitions in the closing exercises of the college will begin at Rothesay at three o'clock. Friday forenoon will also be devoted to athletics, and in the afternoon the students will give an exhibition of physical and military drill. At a quarter past four the closing exercises, including addresses and the presentation of medals and diplomas, will be held, and at eight o'clock the annual Old Boys' Association dinner takes place in the college.

THE FARM.

Department of Agriculture Commis sioner's Branch, Ottawa, June 18.— GREAT DEMAND FOR CHICKENS. The present time is most favorable for the production, fattening and mar-keting of farm chickens. There has been such a substantial increase in the been such a substantial increase in the consumption of chickens and eggs within the last few years that it is not possible to rear a greater number of suitable market chickens than can be suitable market chickens than can be sold with profit. Last year there were not sufficient chickens sold in Canada, to supply the home markets. As a result of the shortage of chickens the trade with Great Britain was lessened. This is unfortunate on account of the great demand for Canadian chickens in Great Britain and the great Parisas. in Great Britain and the good prices in Great Britain and the good prices that are paid.

The chief of the poultry division, F. C. Hare, states that numerous letters have been received from produce merchants, poulterers and commission merchants who desire to learn in what localities chickens can be bought in great numbers and at reasonable prices. From several Canadian cities, and especially from Montreal, produce firms have asked to be informed where and especially from Montreal, produce firms have asked to be informed where market chickens suitable for shipping to Great Britain could be obtained in the greatest numbers. British poulterers and commission merchants have repeatedly asked for the same information. The letter of a well established produce house in London, England, was received last week. This firm wished to "start an undertaking for the purpose of importing Canadian poultry to Great Britain." They desired information as to the probable fowls) in large quantities, and the best districts for the collection, etc., of them. Last fall a firm in Cape Colony wished a poultry trade developed with that colony. One shipment of Can-adian chickens was made to Cape Colony which arrived in a satisfactory, condition and pleased the trade. A New York firm wrote that they desired to import Canadian chickens and were ended by the department to s firm in the maritime provinces, from whom they purchased chickens and were favorably impressed with them.

The above and similar requests are difficult of solution even by one in touch with the Canadian produce firms and packing houses that are buying and marketing chickens. The majorped with a complete plant for market-ing in Canada or Great Britain seveven in Australia, are looking to a supply of Canadian chickens to satisfy their growing trade. God.

And from this secret chamber come those God-like thoughts which have been the sources of every great work ever accomplished. These thoughts are responsible for the beautiful pictures, the grand writings and everything the greatest profits from the poultry business as threshing rockle in the world.

fit can be made from the poultry business, when it is carried on as an adjunct to farming, and with the same careful attention and financing.

The Dominion department of agriculture is endeavoring to increase the poultry trade of Canada; to encourage the growing of the greatest number of high class chickens, and to assist in the marketing of them. A revised edition of the bulletin, "Profitable Poultry Farming," has just been issued, and will be mailed without charge on application to the Commissioner of Agriculture and Dairying, Ottowa. The information it contains is of great information it contains is of great value in the poultry work, and it should be in the hands of every interested poultryman in Canada.

NOT SETTLED YET.

On Friday the freight clerks of the L. C. R. employed in this city, received notice of the increase in pay allowed them by the management of the road. The communication recently received by Peter Sharkey was general in nature, but upon any increase being granted the employee are notified in ture, but upon any increase being granted the employes are notified individually, and while the word sent to Mr. Sharkey covered quite a number of employes the men, with the exception of the clerks who have just been notified, have no definite knowledge of how the increases are to be arranged.

The freight clerks are granted increases as follows: To all who are now earning up to thirty dollers per month

CALAIS, Me., June 24.—Frank Lloyd of Lowell, Mass., is under arrest in this city, charged with violating the allen contract labol law. It is charged that Lloyd has been here for a week or more soliciting help for the Lowell Cotton Milis, from among the employes of the Milltown and St. Stephen, N. B., mills He has offered trany of them, it is said, higher wages than are paid in New Brunswick. Lloyd was arrested by Inspector W. H. Parker, who also detained two Milltown firs as witnesses. The local authorities at first declined to mix up in the affair, and Inspector Parker has kept his prisoner and witnesses at the St. Croix Exchange, pending the arrival of a U. S. marshal from Portland. The girls were unwillingly held.

R. J. McGairigle, city solicitor for Calais, was engaged by Lloyd as counsel, and held a conference at the hotel last night with Inspector Parker, the two girls being present. It is said that during the interview Mr. McGarrigle grappled with Inspector Parker and forelbly held him while the girls fied from the room. The girls started for the Canadian boundary line, pursued by Inspector Parker, who in turn was followed by Mr. McGarrigle.
