CABINET MINISTERS MAY PRACTICE LAW

Or Carry on Any Other Business in Their Spare Time -Parliament by a Straight Party Vote Approves Hon. A. B. Aylesworth's Action in Continuing His Professional Work.

(Special to the Sun.) OTTAWA, May 7.—The bill authorizing the Grand Trunk Pacific to issue twenty-five millions for rolling stock was given a third reading. To a bill for the incorporation of the Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraph Company Mr. Borden made the objection that this company proposed to do something for which the Grand Trunk Pacific railway had been incorporated to do. To incorporate this company might deprive the G. T. P. of profitable business and weaken the security of the government. The promoters behind the G. T. P. project might find it convenient to organize separate companies to carry on express, sleeping car, dining car, branch line or any one of a dozen businesses which the present G. T. P. company was authorized to carry on. Mr. McCarthy, in whose name the bill stood, said the C. P. R. had separate companies to carry on its telegraph and its express business. The Grand Trunk's express business was carried on separately. The prime minister said the government had taken the G. T. P. branch line bill for consideration to determine whether a separate corporation should be established. The same principle was involved in this bill which he wished to have held. This was done. The house resumed the consideration of Mr. Lennox's motion declaring it inexpedient for a member of the government or the deputy head of a department to practice law. Mr. Lennox resumed his criticism of Mr. Aylesworth for continuing to appear as counsel before the supreme court while postmaster general. Mr. Lennox said this was contrary to the British practice and it was calculated to demoralize the courts to have men practicing before the bar who controlled the advancement of the men on the bench. As the result of this and similar acts by ministers of the crown, Canada had a commercialized bench. There were judges who were silent partners in business, who were racing for trusteeships and claiming for profitable arbitrations. The bench had been politicized. In reply Hon. Mr. Aylesworth said that while Mr. Lennox in his speech had mentioned constitutional reasons and high principles against a minister practicing law he had not seen fit to place any of these things in his resolution, which only asked the house to declare it inexpedient for a minister to practice the profession of law. If it were inexpedient, Mr. Aylesworth said, for a lawyer in the government to practice his profession, this would be inexpedient also for journalists to give up writing editorials and the business man should give up commerce. He would agree with the resolution if Mr. Lennox had asked the house to declare the business of the country should have the first claim upon his services. If a minister of the crown discharged the duties of his office it was no one's business what he did with his spare time. It was no one's business whether such a minister gave his spare time to golf or something else. In this matter the public had no more regard than whether a minister took a pork chop or beef steak for breakfast. Mr. Aylesworth said he did not think he had an agreement with the prime minister in the subject of practice before he entered the cabinet. The matter had not been alluded to. The law officer of Ontario said a minister of the crown had the right to practice his profession. In Great Britain the lord chancellor

STANDARD OIL MAGNATE MURDERED BY BURGLAR

Charles L. Spier, Prominent New York Financier, and Friend of H. H. Rogers, Shot Dead in Struggle With Midnight Marauder—May be Traced by Bloody Finger Marks.

(Special Correspondence of the Sun.) NEW YORK, May 7.—During a deadly struggle with a desperado in his dining room Charles L. Spier of West Brighton, Staten Island, and one of the most prominent men in the Standard Oil Company, was shot and instantly killed shortly after three o'clock this morning. Mr. Spier, who heard the burglar enter his house, arose and took a loaded revolver from a drawer in his bed room, groped his way down stairs to the dining room, where he ran into the intruder. Mrs. Spier lay paralyzed with fright her husband the burglar scuffling in the room beneath. Only a moment elapsed before she heard the report of the revolver and arousing herself rushed down stairs, only to find the dead body of her husband lying across the doorway. Beside him lay his revolver. The murderer was nowhere to be seen. In the meantime the servants were aroused and sent at once for Dr. Patterson, but he could do no good, as death had been instantaneous. He, however, found Mrs. Spier in a critical condition. The murdered man was only thirty-eight years of age and a great personal friend of H. H. Rogers, who has ordered all the available Standard Oil detectives to help in the search for the murderer. The latter is believed to have got away in his row-boat moored at the foot of the terrace leading to the house. The only clue is several finger marks of the murderer on the door leading from the room where the murder was committed. H. H. Rogers, Jr., has been at the scene investigating all the afternoon and has offered heavy rewards for the capture of the murderer. The late Mr. Spier represented New Jersey and Staten Island in the oil company's interests.

Hundreds More Men Buy Clothing Here Each Year!

To make our Men's Clothing merely good enough to "hold our own" wouldn't do. We make it so good that men who buy it feel called upon to tell other men. Thus we clothe hundreds more men each season than the season before. Our business has increased yearly, until now the largest clothing business in the Maritime Provinces centres here. The April just ended was by far the greatest Spring month in our history. These facts may suggest to your mind that the kind of clothing that is bought by so many hundreds of well dressed men is the kind that YOU should buy.

RAPID ERECTION OF FRAME HOUSE ANOTHER SUDDEN CHANGE OCCURS

Merchants Showing Undaunted Energy and Pluck In the Varying Political Situation in Russia. Relief Subscriptions Amount to Over Four Million Dollars—How Work is Going On. The Fundamental Law, Although Considerably Changed, Was Made Permanent Basis of the State.

(Special Correspondence of the Sun.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Construction of temporary frame business buildings proceeded rapidly today in the burned district, merchants showing undaunted energy and pluck in their efforts to resume business. Thousands of clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, and other employees, as well as professional men, finding themselves out of employment, are seeking work as laborers in clearing away the debris left by earthquake, fire and dynamite. What is to be done with the great number of men and women who cannot get down to the level of common workmen, is a question that is puzzling the city officers. From this forward the efforts of the municipal officials and existing committees will be directed almost solely to the work of reconstructing the city. Active sub-committees have been appointed and plans for practical work and accomplishment will be presented to Mayor Schmitt this week. Relief work is proceeding smoothly along the lines arranged by the army. The issuance of food tickets was begun this morning. On these only army rations in future will be dealt out. The railroad ticket line at Franklin Hall was longer than on any previous day since the railways announced that free transportation would be given to increase points to deserving persons. The increase in the number of applications was due to the coupon issued by the railways that all free transportation would cease after May 10th. The rule of helping women and children will be changed, but they must show that they will be properly provided for at their places of destination. "The new San Francisco should be built within a year of the beginning of the reconstruction," said Arnold W. Brunner, a New York architect, after he had consulted today with the committee which has in charge preparations of general plans of rebuilding. "The tall building is the building for San Francisco," he continued. "The earthquake showed that there ought to be wide streets. With steel frame buildings the city will be earthquake proof." The finance committee today reported that the amount of relief subscriptions confirmed today was $4,006,248.

AUSTRALIA WANTS NAVY OF HER OWN

Four Destroyers and Four Torpedo Boats to be Built—Will Assist the Imperial Fleet. SYDNEY, May 5.—According to advices received here from Captain W. R. Cresswell, Director of Naval Forces, has now discussed project of a local navy for the Australian Commonwealth is about to materialize. Captain Cresswell has made the rounds of the important naval building yards on the Tyne and Clyde, and has now forwarded specifications and estimates for the construction of four destroyers and four torpedo boats to the Imperial Government. Senator Thomas Playford, with whom rests the responsibility of definitely placing the orders. It is not suggested that this force should in any way be a substitute for the British Australian squadron. It will be merely supplementary to it. Captain Cresswell, in the course of report, very clearly explains the views of the authorities upon the subject of the proposed local navy. "Our idea," he said, "is to assist the Imperial fleet, and not to supersede it. Our navy will stand in the same light to the British fleet that a solitary watchman in a warehouse does to the organized police system. "We propose to begin by building up a torpedo flotilla. It will be borne by the middle of June. The estimates will then come on for discussion, and I think I may say that the scheme will be adopted. The additional expenditure incumbent upon the Commonwealth will be about $500,000 per annum. "Sir George S. Clark, of the Imperial Defence Council, with whom Captain Cresswell has been in consultation, is understood to favor this scheme.

THE COAL STRIKE

SCRANTON, Pa., May 5.—There will be no strike of the miners in the anthracite coal fields, providing the operators will agree to give every man his old place and re-instate those who have been dismissed because they obeyed the suspension order of John Mitchell. This was the agreement reached at today's session of the convention. They did not adjourn, however, President Mitchell requesting that the delegates remain in Scranton until the scale committee reports the result of its meetings with the operators, which will probably be held in New York on Monday, if the operators agree to meet the representatives. The no-strike decision was reached after President Mitchell and National Sec'y Treasurer Witham had addressed the delegates, recommending the 1903 award be continued. A resolution to this effect was adopted and unanimously adopted, after which the convention adjourned. When President Mitchell returned to his hotel he issued the following statement: "For several months we have been endeavoring to negotiate a wage scale and adjustment of conditions of employment with the representatives of the anthracite coal mining companies. During these negotiations we made a number of propositions, each of which materially modified our original demands. We did this not because we were convinced that our original propositions were unfair or wrong, but purely for the purpose of finding a common ground upon which we could reach an agreement that would secure and maintain peace in the anthracite coal industry. We will believe that our first proposition was reasonably fair, notwithstanding the modification we have since made in the interest of peace. Now we are face to face with the alternative of continuing at work under our former conditions or declaring a strike. In this crisis your committee recommends the following policy: "First—That we agree to work on the basis of the award of the anthracite coal strike commission for such a period of time as may be agreed upon mutually between the representatives of the anthracite coal mining companies and our scale committee, provided that all

MONTREAL STRIKERS WILL RETURN TO WORK

MONTREAL, May 6.—The fifteen hundred employees of the Hochelaga and St. Annas mills of the Dominion Textile Co., who have been out on strike for a week, will return to work on Monday morning. The settlement of the strike was arranged at a meeting held on Saturday afternoon. The management recognized that the employees of these two mills were working on a class of goods which did not enable them to make the wages the employees of other mills of the company were earning, and agreed to grant a small advance which would equalize conditions with those prevalent elsewhere. Laura Byron was arrested last night for being drunk. She was found on a field off the golf grounds near Millidge Lane. Laura fought the two policemen who arrested her all the way to the station and they were well pleased to reach the lock-up and consign her to a cell.
