Yet another charitable undertaking is upon us in the way of entertainments. The ladies' committee of the Sailors' Home, whose last achievement, the Nautical Fair, was so successful, have a novel scheme on foot for the coming summer. Its exact character is to be kept a complete secret. I am told, but it is permitted to state that there are to be fifty ladies on the stage, all beautifully and fantastically dressed; that there will be music, singing, recitations, and one of the principal ladies of Halifax are expected to take an interest in this affair, and some of the prominent musical lights are taking it up. It is to be hoped that Halifax contains fifty pretty girls; to the casual observer it looks as though the committee would be obliged to draw upon St. John!

On Tuesday evening there was a small dinner at government house, which was pleasant as such entertainments always are there. Mrs. Daly has quite recovered from her late attack of la grippe.

Mrs. William Stairs had a small party at the same evening, at which Professor Macdonald delivered one of his clever lectures. I hear the one chosen was that given at St. Andrew's church during the winter.

Wednesday evening was taken up by the farewell dance at Bellevue House, which must have seen quite two score dances by the way, during its occupation by Sir John Ross. If the general's departure had taken place at any other time than just now, when so many changes are recent in the personnel of the garrison here, a farewell ball would doubtless have been tendered to him. Certainly he deserves such an attention from some one as he has been so formally hospitable to most people during his stay here.

I hear that Sir John and Miss Ross will spend the coming season in London, in order to enjoy a little gaiety before settling down at their home in the north of England.

The "Blake" is not expected here until the beginning of June, so that her officers will not arrive till the honors they have won in New York are an old story. Admiral Sir John Hopkins has certainly obtained a brilliant success for himself, and much credit for the British navy by his share in the naval review.

The annual reunion of the Sunday school teachers of the various churches of England parishes takes place this week at the church institute. An excellent musical programme was prepared for the occasion, and the usual refreshments were to be served. A great many ladies well known in society, (frivolous society, bien entendu) belong to this association, and it takes a great interest in the matter.

I hear that on the removal of Captain Boileau from this garrison, his place will probably be taken by a substitute well known here. Captain and Mrs. Jenney would very heartily welcome back to Halifax, if report is true.

Among the latest recruits in the ranks of professional nurses is Miss B. Albro, daughter of Mr. John Albro, of this city. Miss Albro goes very shortly to take a position in a hospital at Newark, N. J., having already gone through a preliminary course of nursing with the sisters lately in charge of the Church hospital here. Her many friends in Halifax and St. John will regret that she is going so far from home.

Captain Carson Howe, B. A., and Mrs. Carson Howe have arrived from England and will spend the summer at the Queen hotel.

Miss Maud Ritchie leaves very shortly for England, where she will spend some time with Mrs. Charles Stewart, nee Miss L. Seaton, of Halifax.

Miss Eliza Stairs was a passenger to England last Saturday and will join her sister Mrs. George Deane Bourke in Ireland, with whom she will spend the summer. I understand that in all probability Miss Stairs' marriage to Mr. John Stairs, B. A., will take place in the autumn from her sister's house. Mr. Johnston is at present at Shobryness.

Miss Kenney and Miss Laura Almon left on Wednesday by the C. P. R. to join the party of Mr. Sanford Fleming and Miss Fleming for Vancouver. Miss Almon will spend some time at Calgary with her sister, Mrs. Gravelly.

I hear that Mr. A. G. Morrison has left town for the West. Colonel and Mrs. Leach have taken Oaklands, the well known residence of Mr. P. C. Hill.

I hear that Maplewood will be occupied this summer by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Borden.

All rumors regarding the successor of Sir John Ross are now definitely ended, Major General Alex. Stuart-Montgomery Moore having received the appointment. Sir John and Mrs. Ross leave Bellevue on the fourteenth of this month and will spend a few days with Mrs. Waldron at The Oaks before leaving Halifax.

Mr. George Kenny leaves this week to join his regiment, the Essex-Kent Fusiliers (27th) at Dover. I hear that a well known and popular couple whose marriage is shortly to take place, will visit the Chicago exhibition during their honeymoon. It is not every Halifax bride of this summer who will be so fortunate.

Good counts are heard of Mr. Arthur Thomson whose late severe illness has had such a tedious convalescence. But it will be some time before his health will be thoroughly re-established, as he is not yet able to leave his home.

Mr. W. K. Thomson has returned from a visit to his brother in Texas.

The marriage of Mr. L. J. Hoskins and Miss Hamilton is to take place Friday, too late for Progress. Some of Miss Hamilton's presents were most magnificent, and her trousseau has in it some really beautiful gowns.

The marriage of the Rev. W. B. King takes place in Boston about the end of the month. His friends here were much surprised at the announcement of his engagement, no rumors of its approach having reached them.

I hear that his late congregation meet to treat him exceedingly well in the way of presents. Mr. King's honeymoon will be spent in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have gone to Ottawa. Mrs. Charles Wylie and Miss Wylie left on Wednesday for New York, where they will spend a few weeks.

Miss M. Sutherland of Sydney, is making a visit to Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. John Duffus have gone to Washington for a few weeks.

The South End Lawn Tennis Club is once more in working order, with an excellent staff of officers. I hear there is to be an entertainment in aid of this organization very soon, as its expenses are heavy, and its income is equal to them.

The marriage of Colonel Roland Lane and Miss Beaumont took place at St. James' church, Piccadilly, London, on the 11th of April. As the many friends made by the bridegroom during his long residence here will doubtless take an interest in hearing a little about his wedding, I may say that Bobby's Group is cured by Hackmore.

PRICE & SHAW, - St. John, N. B.

It was to all accounts one of the prettiest possible. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin duchesse, trimmed with a great deal of lace. It had lace flounces finished off with tiny knots of white satin ribbon, and lace draped on the bodice. The train was of white duchesse, trimmed with lace, and the veil was of white tulle. Miss Beaumont was given away by her brother, Captain Beaumont. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Lane and Miss Lilian Lane, nieces of the bridegroom. Miss Helena Alexander and Miss Mabel Gage. Their dresses were of white satin, trimmed with lace, and they wore pink brocade trimmed with small pale blue flounces, pink velvet and lace. Hats and flowers to match. Colonel and Mrs. Lane were to spend part of their honeymoon in Dover.

AMHERST.

(PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by George Douglas.)

MAY 3.—The advent of May has caused a delightful change in the atmosphere as well as making a great commotion in an unusually large hall and garden. Flitting is quite the order of the day and has been for the past fortnight, with a prospect of extending well into the coming week. It will take some little time to find out just where all our transients have located. Among those who have been on the march is Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunlop's place on Eddy street, Mr. and Mrs. Black's pretty cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole have gone to Mr. J. Mott's double cottage, Eddy street, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis, double cottage, Eddy street, have moved into the terrace on Crescent avenue, and sold their pretty situated home to Mr. Ernest Black.

Mr. Frank Black has bought the house on Church street occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bird, who will move in the near future.

Mr. James Lawson has purchased and taken possession of the handsome house, corner of Colford and Church street, built and occupied by Mr. L. Silliker, who has moved into Mr. Mott's cottage next door.

Mr. Candlish has gone into Mr. Embree's house on Victoria street. Mrs. Munro, the former occupant, making her home in one of Mr. Mott's cottages on Eddy street.

Dame rumor announces the purchase of a lot on Rupert street by one of our popular bachelors whom she also reports engaged to one of our most charming young ladies. As I have nothing to fully substantiate the statement I am compelled to wait.

The consecration of the new R. C. church on Sunday brought a great many visitors to town to be present at the ceremony. The church is the finest in town and although much of its beauty of architecture is lost by the situation, it presents a very elegant facade. The solemn service was performed by his Lordship Bishop Rogers of Chatham, N. B., in the absence of his Lordship Archbishop O'Brien who was too ill to be present. Among the clergy who assisted in the imposing ceremony were Father Daily, Father Grace, Father Chubb, Father Rogers, Father Dolan, Father O'Brien, Father Knight, and Father Melan to whose untiring efforts the credit of such a very fine building is due.

Mr. Daniel Pugsley, another of Amherst's most highly respected residents died on Sunday morning after a very short and strange illness of forty-eight hours. The funeral place of Mr. Pugsley after the residence of his son, Mr. Alder Pugsley, where he has made his home for many years. Mr. Amos Pugsley and Mrs. E. B. Elderking a eulogy of the family who have been so suddenly bereaved.

Very little movement is as yet observable in Mrs. A. D. Taylor's health. Her father Dr. Reed, of Halifax, paid her a visit last week and gives every encouragement of her recovery.

Miss Annie Mitchell is convalescing rapidly to the great delight of her friends.

Mrs. David Douglas and Mrs. Cutler, paid a brief visit to Mrs. Spry, of Spryville, on Monday last. Mrs. Henry Dunlop went to river Hilbert last week to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Cecil Wiggins and Mrs. Miller Saville, were the guests of Mrs. H. G. C. Ketchum, on Monday afternoon.

Mr. A. R. Dickey, M. P., left for Ottawa on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. W. Longley of Halifax spent part of last week in town the guest of Judge Moore.

Mr. Robert Grier of Ottawa arrived in town on Friday. He comes to all the Rev. Mr. McGregors place in the Presbyterian church delivering his first address on Sunday. He is a graduate of Dalhousie University, also of River Hill college, Halifax, and is so very highly recommended, and so warmly spoken of by his fellow countrymen, which does a very large attendance.

Dr. and Mrs. Hewson and daughter Florence went to Parrboro on Saturday, and returned on Monday evening.

Mrs. Silas Purdy who has been absent the greater part of the winter returned last week to the great gratification of her friends.

Mrs. Bird gave a very pleasant party on Church street on Wednesday who were among the guests of Mrs. Mott, of Eddy street.

On Friday evening Mrs. Main, Holm Cottage, gave a party in honor of Miss McColl, of Eddy street, who was a very smart event. Dancing was given, which was a most excellent affair. In the order of the evening and always well enjoyed by the large room. Mrs. Main and her two charming daughters looked very pretty and entertaining in the evening. Among the guests were: Miss Moore, Miss McKinnon, Miss Chapman, Miss Curry, Miss Moore, Dr. Hall, C. Black, Mr. Moore, Mr. A. Dunlop, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. Borden, Mr. Lockwood, Mr. Curry, Mr. C. Grier and Mr. McColl.

The A. M. B. is ending giving another of their excellent concerts on the 10th of this month in the way of attractions bids fair to outdo former events. A number of young ladies in a very pretty manner are to be featured in the concert.

The Women's Guild are making preparations for a festival on the 17th, which is to comprise about all the novelties that can be well put into one evening. Mrs. Ketchum and Mrs. Biles are the promoters, so the public know that means a pleasant affair.

DIOBY, N. S.

(PROGRESS is for sale in Dioby by Mrs. Morse.)

MAY 2.—Messrs. Boyd McNeill, W. Y. Woodman, J. A. Halsey, Brenton Jones, of Weymouth, spent Sunday in town.

On Sunday evening the Oddfellows marched in procession to the Baptist church, where Rev. Mr. Dykeman delivered a stirring address. A pleasing feature was a solo "Rock of Ages" by H. L. Cole, of St. John. Needless to say it was given in that gentleman's usual good style.

The "Myrtle House" will be open in a few days under the management of Mr. E. M. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Walker have just returned from St. John where they have been selecting furniture, etc., for the thorough fitting up of this popular summer hotel.

Miss Tipper, of Bridgetown, is visiting her sister Mrs. L. S. Morse.

Mr. Guy B. Dakin is removing to Windsor where he will reside for the future.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Rice arrived from Halifax on Wednesday, and are visiting at "Acacia Villa."

Mrs. Fellows, of Bridgetown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kinney, of Yarmouth, spent a few days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lynch were passengers to St. John Wednesday.

Mr. J. D. Pihlstedt left today via St. John for the West. A number of friends assembled on the pier to say adieu and wish him bon voyage. Mr. Pihlstedt's place in the drug store is filled by Mr. W. W. Russell of Yarmouth.

The ball given by the Snow Shoe club of Weymouth at the residence of Mrs. W. Jones was very pleasant and select affair. Mr. H. H. Wickwire and Fulton Titus were the only ones from here who accepted invitations although quite a number were received.

Mr. J. B. Townsend who has been spending the past week in Dioby left for Halifax on Monday.

The many friends here of Mrs. J. Geo. Clark will be sorry to hear of that lady's sudden illness in London. Since Mrs. Clark's removal to that city she has had very poor health indeed.

Mr. Horace Cole spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. F. Jones and little daughter spent a few days in St. John last week.

Miss M. A. Oakes who has been spending the winter in the U. S., came home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rice arrived from Halifax on Wednesday, and are visiting at "Acacia Villa."

Mrs. Fellows, of Bridgetown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kinney, of Yarmouth, spent a few days here last week.

MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON,

ST. JOHN HEARD FROM!

A Commercial Traveller receives a new lease of life by the use of M.P.P.

"During last summer from the effects of la grippe, I contracted a severe attack of lumbago, for which I tried several remedies. My constitution was run down—being a constant traveller and finding my weight gradually reducing, I became alarmed. My customers continually asked me what was the matter, and as a rule being lively, they attributed it to other causes. I left Amherst and went to Oxford, and feeling that life was a burden, I was advised to call upon the leading physician there, Dr. J. H. McDougal, who gave me two powders and instructed me to take Malto Peptonized Porter. I followed his instructions and obtained immediate relief, and my brother knights of the grippe can testify to my improved appearance. Thanks to M.P.P.
