The dance given by Captain Powell and efficers of the Ship Crescent, at Masonic hall last week was a very brilliact affair; though not on quite so extensive a scale as the navab ball of four years ago, it was justas enjoyable, and the arrangements perfec it was just as enjoyable, and the arrangements ; the room was decorated with the flags of all na

the was lunes employable, and the arrangements perrect the room was decorated with the flags of all nations; at the north end was a trophy of small arms while over the entrance was a group of quick firing guns; the music was perfect and was furnished by the sbip's band stationed in the gallery.

The weather was not good on the evening of the bail, but it did not effect the bail in any way as there are no grounds around Masonic hall so that it made no difference whether it was fine or not. There were many sitting out places upstairs and they were liberally patraus id during the evening; supper was served downstairs and the three long tables were prettily arranged, There were three supper dances with long intervals so that there was never any crowding and everyone was wall looked after. It was quite three o'clock when the dancers at last took their departure. Among the muny lovely gowns wor at he following were niticed particularly;
