STRIKE BREAKERS PLEAD GUILTY TO CHARGE

Sarnia, Ont., August 5.—Thirteen alleged Grand Trunk strikebreakers arrested here Wednesday appeared before Magistrate Gorman yesterday afternoon on the charge of making a false statement to the immigration department, whereby they secured entrance to Canada. They all entered a plea of guilty. The men who claimed to be from Minnesota and other western points alleged money and tickets had

MAHARANEE IS HARD ON WOMEN

Wife of The Gaekwar of Baroda Says American Women Impressed Her With Their Amazing Ignorance.

London, Aug. 4.—A small, dark man, accompanied by two beautiful women in eastern dress and with a train of olive-skinned dependents, landed from the liner Mauretania. No one who saw him land or who watched his pleasant, modest demeanor on board during the voyage from New York would have guessed that he was the ruler over 2,000,000 people, the richest, one of the most enlightened, and one of the most powerful of the princes of the native states of India.

The Gaekwar of Baroda is no stranger to this country. The Gaekwar is a great admirer of the English institutions. He has been especially struck with the quiet, friendly charm of our country life. He hopes to spend some time here before he returns to India in November.

"One object of my journey," he said, "is to add to my knowledge of educational methods and ideals. Baroda is the only state in India where schools are free and compulsory. I established them because I am sure that it is useless to expect any real progress among the Indian people until they become less ignorant. Of course, we have begun in a small way. We teach simply 'the three R's.' Later we may do more. We must see how the experiment succeeds. I am particularly anxious to introduce games and exercises for the Indians who study at all almost always study too hard and endanger their health by too constant application."

Anna Held and Her Baby

Some busy, flirtatious eyes! Some winking, wise old smile! Some nose and chin and neck and hair!

One's Anna Held—the other Anna Held, Jr., so to speak—mother and daughter. Which is which? This photograph was taken 'other day' in the beautiful Bois de Boulogne, Paris, while the Held pair went for a walk among the trees and flowers. They weren't so very averse to having their pictures "took" either.

Didn't know dainty, petite, frivolous Anna was old enough to have such a daughter? She doesn't look it, but—

"You never can tell!"

been given them to come to Canada. They were remanded for sentence. Summons were served yesterday on John Boyd, local agent of G. T. P. for bringing men into Canada contrary to the immigration act.

DR. JOHN M. MACKAY TREATMENT FOR DRUNKENNESS

As His Grace says, in the letter below, "I know there are many families that are indebted to you for the peace and happiness they at present enjoy." His Grace has seen for himself—and through the priests of his diocese—that the Dr. John M. Mackay Treatment is not only the best—but also the ONLY CURE—for Drunkenness.

Archbishop's Palace, Quebec.

Dear Sir:—Many reliable men, priests, monks and laymen, have often spoken to me of the splendid work you are performing with your treatment. I congratulate you on that work. If you have saved but one person from the vice of drunkenness I would say, "Thank you." But I know and have been able to ascertain myself in that Quebec, as well as in other parts of my diocese there are many families that are indebted to you for the peace and happiness they at present enjoy. Therefore my heart is gladdened by the good you have done up to this time, and I want to encourage you most strongly to continue your work, and even to extend it, if possible.

Yours, etc.,
J. M. MACKAY,
(Sgd.) L. N. ARCHBISHOP OF QUEBEC.

Hoopskirt or Hobbleskirt

Look on this skirt—and then on this.—Not by Hamlet.

Have you looked? Look again then, and then tell us which is the most beautiful? What d'ye say, brother? Give it up? So do we, but we'll tell you about the pictures.

On the left you see a lady of 1867, when the hoopskirt was in flower. The Standard found the picture in Godey's Lady book for that year. Godey's describes "it" as being a "dress of steel colored silk, open at every breadth, disclosing an underskirt of rich blue silk. Each breadth is richly embroidered in blue silk and trimmed with a quilling of ribbon. The corsage is embroidered to suit the skirt and finished with a wide blue belt, fastened with a steel buckle. The hat is a gray straw, trimmed with a long and full blue feather.

We now introduce you to the beautiful gown on the other side of the picture. It is a photograph of a United States lady in Paris, wearing the latest fashion in dress, to wit, the "hobble" skirt, made by French dress makers for the commerce of 1910. As you'll notice this skirt is somewhat in restraint of legs, but not the least in restraint of trade, because the style is spreading fast over the eastern cities.
