

Social Notes of the Week

Misses McLean, Miss Edna Brown and many others.

Miss Jean Campbell (Sackville), Miss Minnie Tait (Sussex), and Miss Nan Clark (Bear River) are guests of Mrs. F. E. Williams, having come to attend the Gilmour-Williams wedding.

A very delightful and dainty luncheon was given at the Sign of the Lantern on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. George J. Clarke of St. Stephen. Covers were laid for seven. The table was very artistically decorated with pink sweet peas. The guests were Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. F. C. McNeill, Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. H. A. MacKeown and Miss Frances Travers.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Maher and daughter, Miss Hortense Maher (Douglas Avenue), arrived home on Wednesday from a most enjoyable trip to Boston.

The soldiers' sock social given by the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E. in the beautiful Knights of Columbus hall which had been so generously placed at the chapter's disposal for Wednesday was a very great success financially as well as socially. The large hall presented a very gala appearance with its well designed drapings of flags and bunting under the supervision of Mr. Charles Cowan assisted by Captain A. J. Mulcahey, also the different booths of fancy work, aprons, handkerchiefs, domestic science, prize gardens and candy booth which had been arranged and so well carried out by the different members of this chapter. Around the room were small tea tables decorated with spring flowers at which during the afternoon and evening from two until ten delicious refreshments were served to the large number of ladies and gentlemen who attended. A very handsome silk Union Jack on a solid mahogany stand suitably inscribed which had been presented to the chapter by Colonel H. H. McLean and a very fine gavel also presented to the chapter by His Honor Mr. Justice McKeown occupied a conspicuous place on one of the tables. A committee of ladies received the socks at the door which soon piled up by the thousands. Mrs. George J. Clarke who was present both afternoon and evening brought with her more than 1,000 pairs of socks, the gift of the ladies of Charlotte county. From Moncton from the Women's General Patriotic League came 600 pairs, forty-four pairs from the Lord Dorchester Chapter I. O. D. E. (Dorchester), and the ladies of Campbellton sent in three dozen pairs. The largest individual donor was Mrs. Burden of Long Water Farm (Westfield), who sent thirty pairs of beautifully made socks. During the afternoon and evening a most enjoyable programme of music was rendered by a ladies' orchestra. The Misses Lynch and Miss Hogan who have generously presented the chapter with a receipted bill for their services to be added to the funds which amounted to $500 for patriotic purposes. Packing the socks will go on rapidly and in this Mr. J. B. Cudlip has offered to assist the ladies of the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E. The prizes were awarded for the best hand-knitted socks to Mrs. Usher Miller, Miss Emma Rankine, Miss Lydie Kimball of St. John, all classed as equal, and to Miss Broad (St. Andrews), and Mrs. Frank Mitchell (Welshepool, Campbellton), for the separate entries from Charlotte county. The socks were judged by a committee of ladies composed of Mrs. David D. McLean, Mrs. John K. Schofield, Mrs. Henry C. Rankine, Mrs. Conaghan, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. George Kimball and Miss Appleby.

During the afternoon Miss Louise Murray, violinist, and Mr. D. Arnold Fox delighted the large audience with their charming music.

Miss Maude McLean, Horsfield street, arrived home from Boston on Friday of last week.

The ladies and gentlemen who took part in "Mrs. Dot" with their husbands and wives, gave Mrs. M. B. Edwards a surprise bridge and dance at her home, Queen Square, on Saturday evening last, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest March, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Compton, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. Wetmore Merritt, Miss Kathleen Coster, Mr. and Mrs. McCaskill, Miss Dorothy Elizard, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Mr. Guy Merritt, Mr. Bayard Coster, Mr. Cleveland and Mr. F. C. MacNeill.

Mrs. H. M. Stanbury entertained at a very enjoyable thimble party at her residence, Parks street, on Thursday afternoon. Amongst the guests were Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Pollard Lewin, Mrs. Eber Turnbull, Mrs. King Hazen, Mrs. Harold Payson, Mrs. Bailey, Miss Lois Grimmer, Mrs. John C. Belyea, Mrs. E. E. Church, Miss Vera McLaughlan, Miss Grace Fairweather and others.

Mrs. Harold C. Schofield entertained very informally at the Sign of the Lantern at the tea hour on Monday in honor of Miss Margaret Black of St. Stephen.

Mrs. William McLaren Angus, who is leaving on Friday for Montreal to reside much to the regret of many friends in this city, has been entertained at several social functions this week. On Tuesday Mrs. Frederick Schofield entertained Mrs. Angus at the tea hour at the Sign of the Lantern and on Thursday Mrs. Frank Fairweather was hostess at the tea room in Mrs. Angus' honor.

Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie's many friends are glad to have her back in St. John. Mrs. McKenzie is a guest at the Prince William Apartments.

Brigade Major Malcolm McAvity and Mrs. McAvity are guests at the Prince William Apartments.

The Brunswick Chapter Daughters of the Empire are meeting with more success every day, donations are still coming in for Dr. Murray MacLaren's hospital at the front over fourteen hundred dollars has already been subscribed. The chapter are having the names printed to mark the different donors' beds and at the end of the month they will be exhibited.

The Red Cross nurses who sailed on the Corsican on Wednesday were given a good send-off by a committee of ladies and gentlemen, led by His Worship Mayor Frink. Beautiful bouquets of flowers on behalf of the provincial and local branches of the Red Cross were presented by Lady Tilley. The ladies and gentlemen representing the different branches were His Worship Mayor Frink, Mrs. Frink and Miss Frink, Lady Tilley, Colonel McLean, Colonel E. T. Sturdee and Mrs. Sturdee, Mrs. John McAvity, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Lilian Hazen, Miss Alice Walker, Senator Thorne and Mr. B. C. Boyd. The list of nurses includes the names of Miss MacFarlane, Miss Gordon, Miss Dixon, Miss Drury, Miss Ramsay, Miss McIntosh, Miss Burns, Miss Acton, Miss Johnston, Miss Niles, Miss Bowley, Miss Bolster, Miss Fordham, Miss Alway, Miss Jacobs, Miss Grenville, Miss Adams, Miss MacGregor, Miss Burnett, Miss Pell and Miss Lee. Miss Josephine Gordon is a niece of Mrs. George F. Smith and Miss Eva Gordon is a daughter of the late Dr. R. R. Chipman Drury, was among the first nurses to be graduated in St. John.

Colonel and Mrs. M. B. Edwards entertained at a farewell dinner at the Union Club on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Charles Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose, Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer, Mr. Palmer sailed on Friday for England on the Missanabie.

Mrs. T. William Barnes, Hampton, spent Thursday with Mrs. Gordon Sanction.

The Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E., met with great success at their supper which they served the large number of ladies and gentlemen at St. George's Society entertainment last evening. Congratulations were many, on the splendid system in which the supper was conducted by the lady members of the chapter. The Loyalist Chapter are to meet at Miss Elsie Estabrooks, on Monday next at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Vroom left on Thursday evening on a short visit to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schofield (Montreal) passed through the city on Thursday to Hampton where Mrs. Schofield and little daughter will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Irvine.

A wedding of much interest to many friends in St. John was solemnized on Thursday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams, when Miss Nellie B. Williams became the bride of Mr. Arthur H. Gilmour, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gilmour. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, 197 Gilmour street, was decorated with palms and flowers in the drawing room palms pink roses and carnations were in profusion. In the large dining room where a delicious luncheon was served the color scheme was carried out in white and green. On the table at which the bride and groom were seated a large cut glass bowl of white roses, carnations and heather, the electrolite being artistically festooned with small, white ribbons and heather, beautiful palms and ferns filled the large bay window and the mantel was festooned with small, white ribbons and heather, several small tables on either side of the large table with cut glass vases filled with roses, where the guests sat being only the immediate relatives. The Rev. Hammond Johnston performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a magnificent gown of ivory crepe de chene with Princess lace. The bodice of the gown was made of voliers effect beautifully hand embroidered, large sleeves and yoke, a court train with nist of lace and touches of hand embroidery fell in graceful lines from under the bodice, a madonna cap with a single string of pearls, full veil and orange blossoms completed this beautiful bridal gown. She carried a showed bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Both bride and groom were unattended. Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a very smart French gown of Reiseda crepe with the new jacket effect waist which was lined with shrimp pink, with sleeves and yoke of cream lace, diamond ornaments.

Miss Williams, sister of the bride, wore a very pretty quaint style gown of blue shot taffeta yoke and sleeves of rose point lace, bouquet of pink roses; little Miss Eileen Williams, sister of the bride, a dainty white frock with pink ribbons; Master Harold Williams, brother of the bride, white middie suit; Mrs. Gilmour, mother of the groom, wore a very handsome black crepe de chene, yoke and sleeves of black French lace, touches of cerise, corsage bouquet of violets and crimson roses, purple hat with purple plume and small roses ornaments pearls and peridots. Mrs. Lawson, grandmother of the bride, was gowned in taupe brocaded silk with iridescent trimming white lace collar, black and white hat with white asprey, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour left immediately after the luncheon on a short wedding trip, the bride's going away gown being a grey gabardine tailored cloth suit with hat to match and upon their return will reside at the Clifton House. Both bride and groom are justly popular in St. John and many good wishes follow them for their future happiness from many friends in this city. The presents were many and elegant coming from Toronto, Montreal, Port Simpson, (B. C.), Winnipeg, Boston and New York. Mr. Williams' gift to his daughter was a check for $1,000. Mrs. Williams, a silver tea service, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour, a large chest of flat silver, from the staff of Messrs. Gilmour firm a silver coffee urn and tray.

Mr. Hugh Mackay's many friends will regret to hear he is confined to his home with a severe attack of quinsy.

Dr. Gordon Sanction, Mrs. Sanction and little daughter will be the guests on Monday of Mrs. J. F. Fraser, Horsfield street, for a week before leaving for Hampton, where they will reside.

Mrs. T. B. Scott Ryder, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

W. H. Barnaby, returned to Fredericton on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John E. Moore and Miss Marion Moore leave on Monday on a trip to Boston.

Major H. R. Visart Count deBury and DeBocaine, C.O.C., chief ordinance officer for M. D. Number 10, Winnipeg, has been appointed second grade staff officer to Major General Steele on the headquarters staff of the second Canadian contingent. Count deBury is a brother of Mrs. Daniel Mullin of this city and has many friends in St. John who will offer their congratulations on his promotion.

Miss Helen Sidney-Smith, treasurer of DeBont's Chapter, I.O.D.E., has received from Surgeon General Jones, director of the medical services of the Canadian Contingent, an acknowledgment of the generous donation $51.35 sent for the Cliveden Hospital. DeBont's Chapter have since sent a second amount of $102 for the same hospital.

Many are looking forward to the high class concert to be given by the Knights of Columbus in their hall, Coburg street, on Monday evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the Belgium Relief Fund and the Red Cross.

It was with heartfelt sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Macaulay and family, hosts of friends here, of the death of their only son, Douglas Macaulay, which occurred at his home, Princess street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. Macaulay was in his 28th year and had many friends in this native city. The funeral took place on Friday and was largely attended, many very beautiful flowers were sent by sympathetic friends.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, April 23.—Mrs. E. W. Jarvis arrived home from Moncton, on Thursday.

Miss Edith Dalling went to St. John, on Friday, to make a short visit.

Miss Dawn Hume, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Balmain is making a short visit in Centerville.

Miss Pauline Balloch, of Centerville, spent a few days with Mrs. W. L. Carr, last week.

Lieut. Douglas H. Balmain, of the 5th Battalion, has been transferred to Fredericton. Lieut. Robert Campbell taking his place here.

Mrs. Grant and little daughter, Margaret and Marion, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. William Kennedy, of Debec.

A meeting of the ladies of the Woodstock Golf Club was held at the office of Mr. Allison B. Connell, on Thursday evening, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. George W. Gibson; Vice Pres., Mrs. E. W. Jarvis; Sec. Treas., Miss Mary D. Clarke; Tea Com., Mrs. T. F. Sprague, Mrs. J. S. Creighton, Mrs. W. B. Belyea; Greens Com., Mrs. A. D. Holyoke, Miss Jean Sprague, Miss Edith Dalling; House Com., Mrs. G. W. Gibson, Miss Jean Smith, Miss Marion Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson spent last week with friends in St. John.

Dr. R. G. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson returned from St. John, on Wednesday.

The men are playing golf three weeks earlier than last year, the course being in quite good condition. Miss Marion Lindsay entertained at a most enjoyable tea on Friday afternoon. The house was very prettily decorated with flowers, each table having white and deep rose carnations, and each of the guests were

HAMPTON

Hampton, April 22.—A delightful social entertainment was given in the new lecture hall by the Ladies' Aid of the Hampton Methodist church, on Tuesday evening, on which occasion the treasurer of the Improvement Fund, Mr. J. E. Angerville, made a very satisfactory financial statement looking forward to a clearing off of all claims as they mature, leaving the $2,000 mortgage as the objective future efforts. The social feature of the gathering was very marked with vocal and instrumental music, readings, guessing contests, games and ample refreshments made up an exceedingly pleasant affair.

The ladies will probably continue these gatherings during the summer. A generous silver collection was contributed to the funds.

"Soldiers' Socks" being the slogan of the day, the ladies of the Hampton Red Cross Branch are keeping up-to-date, and will be sending forward a generous contribution to be used by soldiers in the trenches at an early day. They intend to give the boys an added pleasure by enclosing a letter in each pair, with the name of the knitter, and some little extra comforts not on the ordinary ration menu, such as tobacco, cigarettes, pipes, chewing gum, chocolates and other available articles.

The friends of Mr. Harry Hiley

Sickly Children Promptly Cured

Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine for little ones. They regulate the bowels and stomach and promptly cure constipation, indigestion, cold and simple fevers, expel worms, cure colic and give baby health and happiness. Concerning them, Mrs. Fred VanGorder, Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my four children and find they always give perfect satisfaction." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HILLSBORO

Hillsboro, April 23.—Miss Lola Steeves returned home on Friday last, from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Nahant, Mass., and Dover, N. H.

Miss Maud Napper has resigned her position in the store of W. N. Duffy & Son.

Mrs. E. M. Sherwood, and little daughter, Mary, spent the week-end at Albert.

The Easter meeting of the W.M.A.S. of the Methodist Church, was held at the home of Mrs. Thistle, on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The Easter envelopes were opened, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Thistle.

Miss Thelma Steeves, of Steeves Cove, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rogers last week.

Mrs. Chas. Davis, of Arlington Heights, Mass., was in town on Saturday last, guest of Mrs. Walter Slater.

Mr. A. C. M. Lawson, of Fredericton, was in town this week.

Mrs. Wm. Ritchie, of Chipman, N.B., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ritchie.

Miss Jennie Bulmer is visiting friends in Moncton.

Mr. Fred Bray, of St. John, was in town last week, guest of Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Mr. Clement O'Hanley returned from South Matland, N.S., last week.

Mrs. John T. Steeves returned on Monday, from St. John, where she has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. N. L. Brennan.

Mr. A. C. M. Lawson occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening last.

Miss Mary Carille returned from Moncton last week.

Mrs. Amasa Tower returned on Thursday of last week, from Harvey Bank, where she has been the guest of her sister during the past week.

Mr. George Steeves, who has been in Moncton during the winter months, returned last week to his home here.

Mrs. Wm. McTavish, of Pictou, N.S., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Duffy.

Mrs. Catherine Jonah, of Dawson, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alonso Stiles.

Mr. Charlie Smith, of Moncton, is in town, the guest of Mrs. J. Duncan Steeves.

Miss Nellie Wallace, and Miss Molly King, were in Moncton this week.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, April 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Robertson Lingley have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Fred Withersell, New York, while away Mr. Lingley was successfully operated on for cancer.

Inspector Mercereau, Doaktown, spent Sunday with principal and Mrs. L. R. Stirling Wood, of the 28th Field Battery, is visiting his home in Doaktown.

The officers and staff at the wireless station, will give a social dance in the Town Hall, on Thursday night.

The chaperones are Mesdames E. W. Sawyer, John Robinson, John Morrissey, J. D. Buckley, R. H. Armstrong, and C. D. Money.

Large shipments have lately been made by the Red Cross Societies of Newcastle, and of Whitneyville, Strathadam and South East.

Mrs. Jas. O. Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sinclair came home on Tuesday from an extended visit to California.

Mrs. F. J. Desmond is visiting in Moncton.

Miss Willa Bell has returned from her visit to Montreal.

Herbert Morrell, of the Royal Bank has been transferred to Campbellton.

Mrs. Wm. Richards is visiting friends in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Lake have returned from Bridgetown, N. S. Senator Farrell of Liverpool, N. S., spent part of this week with his cousin, Mrs. Thomas Quinn.

Mrs. Horace Morrell returned to Fredericton this week after a six months' visit to Mrs. Walter Morrell here.

REXTON

Rexton, April 23.—A number of our citizens attended a social dance in the Temperance Hall, at Richibucto, Wednesday night, and enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. James McLelland, who have spent the last two years with Mrs. McLelland's brother at Ardath, Sask., are returning to their farm at West Galloway, Kent Co. Mr. McLelland arrived here Monday, and Mrs. McLelland and family were detained at Campbellton on account of illness with pneumonia of their eldest son.

David. David is recovering and will be able to come home soon.

Simon Paoli, of L. N. Poole & Co., at Charlottetown, P.E.I., is spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitney have moved into the James Gordon house, Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Price have moved here from Rogersville, and are occupying the residence they recently purchased from George Hudson.

Miss Maude McWilliam, of Munderville, has opened a dressmaking establishment in the Hatcher building.

So Good for Children
Millions of pounds of delicious "Crown Brand" Corn Syrup are sold every year to mothers, just for the children.

EDWARDSBURG "Crown Brand" CORN SYRUP

Mothers know it is practically all nourishment. They know it is a food—that Bread spread with "Crown Brand" makes a well balanced food that sustains and builds up the strength.

Mothers know, too, that "Crown Brand" is the most economical "sweetener" for all sorts of Cakes, Pies, Puddings and Sauces—and is the whole thing for delicious homemade Candies.

"LILY WHITE" is a pure white-Corn Syrup—not so pronounced in flavor as "Crown Brand"—equally choice for the table and for candy making.

ASK YOUR GROCER—IN 2, 5, 10 AND 20 POUND TINS.

The Canada Starch Co., Limited, Montreal

"Thrice is he armed who takes a box of Moir's."

The skilful general avails himself of every possible advantage. Likewise, the careful suitor remembers that one of his best aids is "sweets to the sweet."

Let a box of Moir's be your ally—the finest chocolate delicacies that ever delighted the heart of a girl.

MADE IN CANADA

MOIR'S CHOCOLATES

Has been Canada's favorite yeast for more than forty years. Enough for 5c. to produce 50 large loaves of fine, wholesome sourdough home made bread. Do not experiment, there is nothing just as good.

EWING LLOYD CO. LTD.
TORONTO, ONT.
WINNIPEG MONTREAL