

INQUIRY INTO STRANDING OF STR. NAVARRA

Begun yesterday at Yarmouth—No drinking aboard, captain testifies—Unable to account for accident.

Special to The Standard
Yarmouth, N. S., Jan. 7.—The inquiry into the causes which led up to the wreck of the Navarra was commenced this morning before a court composed of L. A. Demers, chief wreck commissioner of Canada, and Captains E. R. Hilton and J. W. Anderson of Yarmouth, as assessors. Edgar N. Clements represents the captain and officers.

The first witness examined was the pilot who took the vessel out of St. John. His testimony was that he left the vessel at Partridge Island, about 9.50 on the morning of Tuesday, Jan. 4 and that everything was running smoothly and in proper shape and that the officers and crew were perfectly sober.

Captain Milligan's examination took up a large part of the morning. It was to the effect that he left St. John about nine o'clock on January 4. He dropped the pilot at Partridge Island, after which he shaped his course out in the bay. After he picked up Brier Island light which he had abeam he shaped his course for the Larcher, and passed it about two miles distant at 10.50 o'clock. He then shaped his course S. S. E. to pass out by Seal Island. After he had run his distance, as he supposed. He made Yarmouth light abeam. The vessel was then on a S. S. E. course from the Larcher about fourteen or fifteen miles off Yarmouth light. The ship struck at 12.28 o'clock.

Cross-examination as to the department on the ship, he testified that there was no drinking and the ship's work was done satisfactorily.

The mate testified that some time after she had passed the Larcher, about twelve o'clock, he relieved the second mate, the weather being hazy and rainy. The second mate told him they had made Yarmouth light. "Great Yarmouth," he called it. The ship was still steering a S. S. E. course and kept on this course until she brought up on the ledge at 12.28 o'clock. He could not account for the mishap. The compass had been, since he knew anything of them, practically correct. There might be a little variation of them, about two degrees on some courses. The log was fairly correct in a day's run. It varied from one to three miles. There was absolutely no drinking on board.

The helmsman McDougall was the last witness examined today. He took the wheel at twelve o'clock. She was then on a S. S. E. course and that was the course given him. He kept her at that until the stranding. He saw no drinking, and as for himself, he was perfectly sober. He was a teetotaler. The weather was hazy and when she struck there were no lights visible and even the land could not be seen.

The chief engineer's testimony was to the effect that after she stranded he had the signals to reverse his engines, but that the vessel remained stationary. The inquiry will be resumed tomorrow.

"FEED US NOW, WE WILL PAY BACK IN INDUSTRY AFTER WAR", CRY FROM BELGIUM

Willing to Work, but Doors Closed to Exports—Cannot Buy Food Even if They Had Money—Most Powerful Army in the World Cannot Teutonize Belgium.

Brussels, via London, Jan. 7.—"If the United States had not come to our aid we would have meant starvation for the most of us," said Alfred Herinx, provisional burgomaster of Louvain, to the Associated Press today. "We are willing to work, but we cannot when the doors are closed to exports. We cannot buy food, even if we have the money, when the doors are closed to imports. It is no fault of ours if we starve. Feed us now, and we will pay you back in industry when the war is over."

"We are paying back now in gratitude for the lives America has saved—gratitude which will endure as proof that human affection is stronger than any treaty alliance."

"Here in the midst of the ruins of my town I do not lose heart. I know we shall rebuild it all, if we can only have food to keep us alive. The most powerful army in the world cannot Teutonize Belgium, but America, armed with bread, is Americanizing Belgium. My worst fear is that there will be bread riots if the relief stops."

M. Nerinx said the population of Louvain was only three thousand less than before the German occupation. The people whose homes had been burned are living with their neighbors.

The burgomaster said he was giving work to the idle by having them clean the streets and repair houses which can be made habitable, while the people were living on American bread.

On the journey from Rosendael to Brussels, by way of Antwerp, the correspondence of the Associated Press had to show his pass twenty times to Landsturm sentries, mostly Saxons and Bavarians. Often these sentries were men forty-five years old. The pass was required to be shown at the outskirts of every town, and at intervals along the road.

The bread line at Liege
Foreigners are not permitted access to the military zone west of the Antwerp-Brussels-Mons line, and in the so-called zone of military occupation in Eastern Belgium the restrictions against travel are tight. It is difficult for any Belgians to pass from one town to another. They can communicate with one another only through the German mails.

The representatives of the American Relief Commission have freedom of movement. The German officials are zealous in seeing that no relief food is taken by the Germans.

Hunger is driving more and more persons who have been well-to-do to stifle their pride, and ask for bread. The longest line seen by the correspondent was at Liege, formerly a large industrial centre, but where now all the factories are closed. For three hours in the Cathedral square the people passed in line as big leaves were handed out. Pinched faces brightened and an affecting demonstration followed when the observer mentioned that he was an American.

A PRETTY HOUSE

WEDDING AT YARMOUTH

Special to The Standard.
Yarmouth, N. S., Jan. 7.—A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Goudey, town clerk of Yarmouth, when their daughter, Myra Welch, was united in matrimony to Albert Henderson Henry. The bride presented a charming appearance in a gown of white satin and cap and carried white roses. Rev. G. W. Schuman performed the ceremony. The handsome array of wedding gifts attested to the esteem in which the young couple are held by their friends. The groom's gift to the bride was a piano. Mr. and Mrs. Henry left by D. St. John, Fredericton and Boston after which they will take up their residence in Brunswick street. The bride wore a travelling suit of blue serge and black velvet hat trimmed with fur and gold lace. Among the out of town guests were Mr. Caple of Halifax who sang a number of vocal selections and Mr. Ashley of Barrington.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Ann Stackhouse.
The death occurred at her home in Clover Hill, on December 24, 1914, of Mrs. Mary Ann Stackhouse, wife of Wm. Stackhouse.

Death was due to heart failure and came as a shock to her many friends. An added interest to the event is the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Goudey are today receiving congratulations on their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary, also it is Mr. Goudey's birthday.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn one son and five daughters who have the sympathy of the many friends in their sad bereavement.

HINDU MUST PAY PENALTY FOR MURDER

Mua Singh to hang Monday for shooting of Immigration Inspector at Vancouver, Cabinet decides.

Special to The Standard
Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 7.—The law will be allowed to take its course in the case of Mua Singh, who was hanged next Monday for the murder of Immigration Inspector Hopkinson at Vancouver, according to a decision of the Cabinet. The murdered inspector knew the Hindu language well, having been born in India, and he was employed as an interpreter. He had given evidence in the trial of a Sikh, charged with murdering a Hindu, and the Sikh was discharged. Then he was about to give evidence for the crown against a Hindu charged with murder. When he entered the corridor of the court house at Vancouver on October 21st last he was fired upon by Mua Singh who held a revolver in each hand. Six or seven shots were fired and Hopkinson died almost immediately.

Under more recent date Mrs. McKellar writes confirming her cure, and states that she has had inquiries from many people who had heard of the great benefits she obtained from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Nothing is worse than helplessness. Sometimes it is helplessness of body, and at other times the mind is affected, which is far worse.

The writer of this letter did not know what to expect, but fortunately began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in time to head off danger, and writes that she was entirely cured of the old trouble. The last paragraph proves that the cure was lasting.

Mrs. John McKellar, 11 Barton street east, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I was injured some years ago, and that left me with a broken-down nervous system. I could not sleep, and suffered from twitching of the nerves and disagreeable nervous sensations."

"I then began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that I never used any medicine that did me so much good. In fact, I am entirely cured of my old trouble. The Nerve Food not only strengthened the nerves, but also built up my system in every way."
