

EXAMPLES OF HOW SUBMARINES ARE DISPOSED OF

BRITISH ADMIRALTY TELLS HOW U-BOAT WAS SUNK

In One Case German Crew Made Pretense of Surrendering and Firing Ceased, But When They Attempted to Escape Their Submarine Was Sunk.

London, Sept. 14.—Stories of some recent successes of the British navy against German submarines were told to the public tonight in a series of brief descriptions of eight encounters in which eight, and possibly nine U-boats were accounted for.

Description of Two Encounters.

From one of our auxiliary naval forces a torpedo was seen approaching the starboard beam. It jumped out of the water when a hundred yards off and struck the engine near the water-line, making a large rent and flooding several compartments. A starboard lifeboat was blown into the air, pieces landing on the wireless aerial.

"Soon after a periscope was observed just before the conning tower. It turned towards the ship but quickly disappeared as the enemy further submerged.

Again it appeared and was followed this time by the conning tower. Fire was opened and the first shot hit the base of the conning tower and removed the two periscopes. Many other hits were obtained and the submarine quickly assumed a list to port and several men came out of the hatch.

The U-boat wallowed along for a space with the stern almost submerged.

V. A. D. MEETING.

A meeting of the V. A. D. was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. G. A. Kuhring in the chair. Miss Stilla Payson, assistant commandant, Miss Kathleen Sturdee reported on the work of the summer and spoke of the excellent work of several of the out of town workers who have given worthy service for some weeks. Miss Ellis Morgan and Miss Ethel Purty were appointed nursing officers to direct the work of the order in the St. James' Hospital and in the Army Hospital respectively. The new work taken up in connection with the Army Hospital was discussed and offers of service from members of the order were listed. A number of those under the direction of Miss Ellis Morgan will assist the matron in preparation for the reception of conscientious objectors who are expected on Monday. A number of the members of the order will also assist the Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday the 25th inst. when the Army Hos-

OBSERVANCE OF JEWISH NEW YEAR BEGINS AT SUNSET TONIGHT

Special Service Will Be Held in Carleton Street and Hazen Avenue Synagogues.

Tomorrow night the Jewish people of St. John will enter their houses of worship to usher in the Jewish New Year or Rosh Hashanah. Special music and prayers will mark the observance of the feast which, though solemn, is nevertheless replete with the spirit of joy and optimism. This year marks the beginning of the cycle of sacred observances held during the month Tishri, the seventh month of the Jewish calendar. The Jewish New Year is known by different names, and each name expresses something of its spiritual significance. Rosh Hashanah is also known as the Day of Memorial.

The Jewish New Year will be ushered in at the Carleton street and the Hazen Avenue synagogues, commencing tomorrow night at sundown and lasting till sundown on Tuesday evening. Rabbi Solomon Pihlo will conduct the services at the Carleton street synagogue. Tomorrow evening he will give a lecture on "The Great Value that People Place on Curses and Blessings." Special services will also be held on Monday and Tuesday, which will be conducted by Rabbi Pihlo.

At the Hazen Avenue synagogue Rabbi Falcher will conduct the services, which will start tomorrow evening and last through Tuesday evening.

During the services at both synagogues special prayers will be said for the success of the Allied arms in the great struggle that is now raging. These prayers will be sent up throughout the length and breadth of Canada in the different synagogues during the New Year's services.

All Jewish places of business will be closed on Monday and Tuesday until Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock when the New Year will be properly ushered in.

CHEVROLET

The TRAIL BLAZER

to greater Motor Car Value

From the standpoint of dollar for dollar value there's not a car made which offers more for your money than the famous Chevrolet Four-Ninety A.

Before the Chevrolet was made in Canada, good cars were all high in price.

But our mammoth production and manufacturing efficiency enables us to sell the Chevrolet Four-Ninety A at a price much lower than its value when compared with other makes of cars.

With the surplus power developed by the famous valve-in-head motor the owner of a Four-Ninety A invariably is the "trail blazer."

Standard equipment includes speedometer, electric starting and lighting, ammeter, oil indicator light equipment, one man top, demountable rims, non-skid tires on rear wheels and many features usually looked for in cars much higher in price.

SWEDENS REVOLUTION

Noted Writer and Translator May Be Forced into War

Allies—Forsee Abdication His German Queen.

New York, Sept. 14.—The Tribune today publishes the following despatch from Woodstock, N. Y.:

"That Sweden may be forced into the war on the side of the Allies as a result of the United States government's exposure of the complexity of the Swedish foreign office in German spy machinations, is the opinion of Edwin Bjorkman, writer and translator of Scandinavian literature, just returned from Stockholm to his home here."

"Mr. Bjorkman sees trouble ahead for Sweden, of which he is a native, including a revolution, completely overthrowing the bureaucracy, which has ruled the country for hundreds of years, and forcing the abdication of King Gustav, and his German queen, a cousin of the Kaiser."

Mrs. Jeremiah Hanley of South Nelson has received the following letters concerning her brother, Pte. Herbert J. Warren of the 55th:

Care of A. D. C. S., Liverpool Hospital, Can. Corps H. Q., K. Ward, A. F. 6, SXT, B. E. F., Aug. 20th, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Hanley: I am writing on behalf of your brother, Pte. Warren, who has been a prisoner in the above hospital for the past three days.

No doubt the war office will have notified you of the fact that he has been wounded, but Canada is so far away and it takes such a long time for a letter to come through, so that I am sure you must be anxious about him.

His wounds, I regret to say, are of rather a serious nature, a shrapnel wound of the head, but so far he is progressing favorably, and I feel sure that if nothing unforeseen occurs he will be alright. He is quite conscious, but is unable to use his arm, but he wishes me to tell you he is better to-day, is very comfortable and that he will write you shortly.

I regret I cannot write you a more lengthy letter, but we are very busy and there are too many to write for after my day's work amongst them is finished, but I can assure you his pleasure to be able to do so much for the boys who all do so much more for us.

May I express my sympathy, I always feel so sorry for the poor wounded soldier, who are so very far away and these anxious days must be terrible, but I trust you won't worry too much about your brother, so that everything possible will be done for him, and I think he will soon be able to travel to England. I will write you again as soon as possible.

Yours very sincerely,
SISTER M. I. WILSON,
K. Ward, Liverpool Hospital, B. E. F., Aug. 23rd, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Hanley: It is with deep regret that I have to inform you of the death of your brother, Pte. Warren of the Canadian Regiment. I wrote you a few days ago in the hope that he would recover but head wounds are always of a serious and uncertain character, and unfortunately your poor brother's was fatal. For the first three days he seemed to slightly improve. He talked to me and told me of his friends in Canada, but on the morning of the fourth day I noticed he was not near so bright. He had developed acute meningitis and died within twenty-four hours. He was unconscious for the last sixteen hours, so his sufferings were unknown to him. We are burying him today in a dear little cemetery and a small cross with his name, etc. on it, will mark the resting place of another of Canada's brave boys.

Please accept my deepest sympathy in this your great sorrow. He was a brave boy, who bore his wound with great fortitude.

May I add that everything possible has been done for him but his fate was sealed here and God called him home.

Yours with deepest sympathy,
SISTER MOLLY WILSON,
Sister in Charge of K. Ward.
