

VOL. XIV.

SABBATH READING.

Things that never die. The pure, the bright, the beautiful, That stirred our hearts in youth, The impulse to a wordless prayer, The dreams of love and truth ; The longings after something lost, The spirit's yearning ery, The striving after better hopes,-These things can never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid A brother in his need. The kindly word in grief's dark hour That proves a friend indeed,-That plea of mercy softly breathed, When justice threatens high, The sorrow of a contrite heart-These things can never die.

The memory of a clasping hand. The pressure of a kiss, And all the trifles sweet and frail, That make up love's first bliss; If with a firm unchanging faith, And holy trusts and high. Those hands have clasped, those lips have met-

These things shall never die.

The cruel and the bitter word, That wounded as it fell; The chilling want of sympathy, We feel, but never tell. The hard repalse, that chills the heart Whose hopes were bounding high, In an unfading record kept-These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand Must find some work to do; Lose not a chance, to waken love-Be firm, and just, and true. So shall a light that cannot fade Beam on thee from on high,

And angel voices say to thee -These things can never die.

The three Sieves.

"O mamma !" cried little Blanch Philpott. I heard such a tale about Edith Howard. I did not think she could have been so naughty. One day--' 'My dear," interrupted Mrs. Philpott,

"before you continue we will see if your story will pass the three sieves," 'What does that mean, mamma ?" said Blanche. "I will explain it, dear. In the first place, is it true !' "I suppose so, mamma. I heard it from Miss Parry, who said a friend of Miss White's told her the story ; and Miss White is a great friend of Edith's." And does she show her friendship by telling tales to her? In the next place though

I come." The nearer he draws to life's close all the nobler must be his action, all the mightier his strokes for eternity. If it be grand in the hero who falls on the bat-tle field with his armour on, falls gallantly at his post, is it not infinitely more sublime in the Christian who falls amid his work and What's Come o'er you, Jenny, Dear? Jenny, dear, you're always dreaming-Dreaming always night and day, With those gentle eyes still seeming carnest toils for the Master ? More enviable earnest toils for the Master? More enviable by far than the brightest diadem of royalty, or earths proudest distinction, was the death of the young minister who, before dying in the triumphs of faith said, "Tell my brethern of the conference that I died at my post" Noble in its freshness and manhood is that Bent on something far away. Once your sweet voice full of gladness? Fell like music on my ear, Now each tone is fraught with sadness-What's come o'er you Jenny, dear ?

soul that sings amid its spiritual toils, and Jenny, dear, your step is wearyresolves to go to the grave singing,

His work my hoary age shall bless When youthful vigor is no more, And my last hour of life confess His saving love, His glorious power.

But I know your all but weeping-What come o'er you Jenny dear? Happy will be the destiny of the man whom the Master finds busy and doing when Jenny, child, there's no denying Youth has troubles of its own: Many a true, young heart is sighing For some fickle heart that's flown. he comes. A brighter coronet than ever wreathed the brow of any earthly potentate will then be his display impressively greater than earth's most favored mortal ever enjoyed will then be his, for his will be But as springs the bright to-morrow From the darkness of to-day, the wealth and treasures of eternity ! "Ye shall reap if ye faint not." and what a reaping of golden harvests will it be! God So, from clouds of earthly sorrow, Sunshine bursts upon the way. help the reader so to labor on earth that he Still, my darling, grief unspoken may reap the joys unfading, and the beauti-tudes eternal of the life to come! Is the heaviest grief to bear;

Hints to Mothers; Hiring Children.

Day by day and year by year, "I can't get Frank to do a thing without Know no joy but thee in serving; Trust and try me, Jenny, doar. hiring him," said a mother to me one day, "He seems very avaricous for such a boy. There he is now," she said looking out of the parlor window and smiling, "working away with all his might. I shall have to pay Extravagant stories are in circulation him a dime for that. He is saving up his money for a trip to the city." There were plenty of dimes and dollars that the quantity of gold obtained at Hunter's Diggings at Hatley, within the last four weeks. We have been assured that in mother's portemonaie, so the hiring system the workmen were averaging from twenty was no great inconvenience to her, but the influence on the mind of her child was very to thirty dollars per day. Some have stated the produce as high as two hundred dollars hurtful. A child who is hired to do what on some days. These extravagant state-ments have created a good deal of excite ever he is told can never be an obedient one. Even a single instance of it, resorted to, as ment and have set a great many people to me mother's will, in an emergency, will do prospecting for gold discoveries. much to undermine a parent's authority. view to learn something reliable on the sub-A captain once in a storm offered his men ject we resolved to visit the diggings, and extra pay if they would make extra efforts on Wednesday last, in company with a for the ship's safety. It succeeded well, but ever afterward they lookod for the same friend, set out for that purpose within about a mile from the spot, we learnromise before they could be induced to do ed from two men in Mr. Hnnter's employ their duty in a storm. Instead of a cheerment, that there was no one at work in the ful promptness in doing whatever a parent diggings on that day, and that of course it desires, a paid child goes grudgingly to would be useless for us to proceed. They every task, and quickly learns to strike for showed us some specimens taken from the higher wages when it can be safely done. mine. One was a nugget worth about a It is very well to have children early taught habits of industry, and they should dollar, and other small bits, some so small be early encouraged to earn money for spe- as to be scarcely discernable. They stated cific uses; but a wise discrimination is need. that their operations thus far had been prinyou cannot p ove it is true, is it kind?" "I did not mean to be unkind mamma, will be the result. First of all, a child the current of the brook, and preparing for Further by MISCELLANEOUS.

A SONG.

'Twas so light a while ago-

Lay your hand in mine my deary ;

Many and many a heart has broken

'Neath a load that none might share.

Gold Mine at Hatley.

When

Trust, then, one whose love unswerving,

The Asia's dates are to

The Asia's dates are experienced a succession during the passage. GREAT BRITAIN.—F prevailed around the coa no shipping disaster has a In London a railway been blown down, and the

Tell me what has changed you so. Ah, that long dark lash, down weeping, Fain would hide the starting tear ;

The Mersey rams remained in the possession of armed marines. The work on them it is not the intention of the Government to with the consumption of advancing populahas been suspended.

CARLETON PLACE, D. W., NOVEMBER 25, 1863.

Asia.

ork, Nov. 13. days later. She westerly gales

The London Times editorially criticises the iron-clad navies of England, France and tour." It surely is a "consummation devoutly to be wished" that a Government so America, and draws the conclusion that careful to exclude all teachings of Christian. not less than the fixed. Civilization wars formed a fleece on the sheep's back at five England is not in arrear of the age, and if ity in its "Government grant schools" she has anything to learn it is only in mat-should find a way to resume these temple ters of detail. W. T. Lindsay and George N. Sanders inations to stand if —if stand it will -- on its lands, and leave idolatry with all its abom-again figure in the London Times, as com- own merits and foundation. batants of the doctrines advanced by the As many know, nearly all large temples

Times' correspondent, "Historicus." Mr. in India have connected with them dancing Lindsay elaborately attempts to prove that girls, who are usually prostitutes. Our first England favors the North at the expense of encampment was near the town of Nuttam the South, and maintains that if the same and in a fine grove, a few rods from which measure of justice is not meted out to both was a large temple, whose high, and thick, belligerents, the professions of impartial neu- and firm stone walls gave out an impressive trality by England are mere empty words. idea of the strength of the chains with "Historicus" responds to Mr. Lindear, and which Satan has bound this people these in answer to one of his enquiries as to how hundreds of years. On the second or third he. Historicus, should vote when the claims day of our stay there, several of these deagainst England for the depredations by the graded creatures came to our tent to sing Alabama were brought before Parlament, and dance. Their singing was checked by promises that by the time that question is the question, "Who sent for you?' "No put from the Speaker's chair, Mr. Lindsay one; we came, according to our custom to will certainly be the father of the House .- see gentlemen." To them and their com Other questions of Mr. Lindsay's are also panions, the law from Mt. Sinai and the answered, and Historicus points out that good news from Calvary were spoken, and no Act of Parliament fordibs English mer-they were sent away. It is not long since chants from manufacturing cannon for the that at a marriage near Mehir, I heard one belligerents, but as to equipping vessels of of these girls sing 59 verses in praise of a war there is an act expressly forbidding it. The bankruptcy of Mr. Pearson was ander How sad the thought that of the 75,000,000 investigation, and it was furnishing new females of India, scarce one (aside from developments in regard to the blockade run- those educated in the mission schools) article in most universal use. The naked

Government Support of Idola-try in India-Dancing Girls. of ages afterwards, guano for one example amongst many. It was sad news to hear that the setting

Probably the strongest support of Hindoo idolatry is the fact that almost all the large temples are supported by the from temple lands—that is, whole villages and valuable lands pay no tax to the Eng. in and valuable lands pay no tax to the Eng. in the depot had lish Government, but the land tax (and that is very heavy in India) goes to the emple. It is to be said that the English did not be this system, but only allowed, and state

(Letter from India.)

been blown down, and there or four fives ware lost. Among the new companers which are an nounced is the National earn Navigation Company of London and everypool, with a capital of two millions stars as. The object is to accelerate the substitution of powerful screw steamers for sailing easels in Ameri-can and other trades. The inst step will be to establish lines from Live pool and London to New York, of steamen large size and capacity for freight and powers. Three mew Steamers have been visionally pur-chased, and contracts for others of at Lisbon, was boarded in the Bay of Bis-cay by the privater Georgia, and asked for newspapers and shipping intelligence. The Mersey rams remained in the possesdifficulty that I have convinced them that But can wood be grown so as to keep pace countenance this worship by continuing tions? There are still on the face of the Two gunboats also kept watch over Laird's these endowments. This subject has been earth vast tracts of forest, as under the sur- thousand guineas to this effect: That at referred to perhaps a dozen times on the face there are extensive and deep fields of eight o'clock on a particular evening, he day return. Probably this consummation will precede the exhaustion of our coal. For it is to be observed that though wood can be grown and coal cannot, yet the different purposes for which the article without a fixed limit to its production is consumed may make its durition shorter than that in South Carolina. He is the first colored of the article of fixed quantity which has no minister who has been commissioned chapuse but one. Next to water, wood is the lain.

savage uses it for his bow, his arrows, his savage uses it for his bow, his arrows, his they induce newly-enlisted volunteers to ning. Mr. Pearson claims over £87,000 from the Federal Government for illegal captures, and £93,000 from the Confederate commit to memory and sing corrupting songs New York, and other places in the East, where they sell them as substitutes for four hundred dollars or more. A tellow engaged in this business has just been arrested a Cleveland. The prisoner alleged to be the Nena and most of the forests of Europe betray Sahib turns out to be a gooro, or high unmistakeably that their best days are gone, priest, of the Mahrattas ; and he now awaits and that they are not made to live forever. he final orders of the Government for his Planting Lever repairs the breaches made disposal. for carpentry and fuel. And besides, as The Annamite ambassadors, struck with populations increase, the soil is employed admiration of the actresses of the Paris the atres, have ordered of the costume makers imaginary evils. Sometimes the sun was growing wood, which may or may not come specimens of the principal female costumes worn in the fairy pieces at the opera and perceptibly and steadily, that his entire ex- by no mortal power could be restored the clsewhere. When asked what they intended tinction might be reskoned on in a few cen- immense forests which once covered a large to do with them, they said that they meant turies; at others, it was calculated with portion of the Continent. Indeed, in many to adopt them as the ordinary attire of their wives and daughters. The Bishop of London, in a recent con versation with a well known member of the House of Peers, expressed his great astonishment at the steady progress and strength of the Tractarian party in the London diocese. 'I had little conception," remarked his lord ship, "when I first came here, that their numbers, influence and organizations, were so extended and so great. To endeavor to put them down is a task easier of suggestion than accomplishment, I can assure you. FATAL ACCIDENT-MAN KILLED.-On Friday last, John Soles, brakesman on the B. & L. H. railway, met his death under the following circumstances. Deceased was on bear witness of our folly to generations have dwindled in proportion to the decline a special train from Paris to Brantford, and to come. After that ague fit, which is of fuel, for in northern climates warmth is on getting from the caboose to the top of the chronic and of periodic recurrence, we were as essential to life as food. In rural dis- cars to attend his break, on going down a he was struck on the back of the head and instan'ly killed, the back part of his head being completely knocked off, causing the blood to fly all over the face of the conductor. The deceased was unmarried and had not been long in the company's employ. -Goderich Canadian. The London Observer of the 24th ult savs :- We are enabled to state, upon the best authority, that Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales will probably be confined in or about the last week in March next .--The health of the Princess is all that can be desired under the circumstances; and the nation has reason to rejoice at the prospect inking, the manures in common use oper- ed by our posterity much as the journeys of the perpetuation, in a direct line, of the sovereignty of her Good and Gracious Ma-jesty Queen Victoria. How FORTUNES ARE MADE IN THE NORTH.—Directly opposite the Treasury Department, says a Washington letter, there ls going up, almost like magic, a superb mar-ble Banking House. It belongs to the not-able firm of J. Cooke & Co., and is an evidence of good fortune and prosperity which has probably never been equalled in the country. They are the agents of the Secre-tary of the Treasury, for the sale of the five twenty bonds, and it is said that they acknowledge a profit of three-eighths of one per cent on the total amount of sales; if that amount, therefore, is correctly stated at $250,000,000, then the money that this banking house has made in less than eight teen months is $960,000. that coal would be out in less than 1000 years and even this date was shortened by Sir Wm. Armstrong to 200, and it was put to people's patriotism to restrain waste. The late Henry Warburton had set the example. Having calculated the coal-fields would be wholly exhausted in 2,000 years, he set the work of fires in his own Mr. Beecher was feted to the last mo

A BRANCH TO BE OPENED IN LINDSAY.

In August last we announced that a branch of this highly prosperous institution was to be opened in Lindsay. We now learn that arrangements are being made to have the project corriging out in modelistic of England's sun, which had been so often predicted, would really and truly take place have the project carried out immediately. Mr. Roenan (Major) has received instruc-tions received a frame building at the east end of Kent street for the bank's temporary in 200 years at the present rate of the con-sumption of fuel, and even with conomical management the supply could not be eked out for a span in the life of a nation. For what are three or four centuries. Many of

end of Ment street for the bank's temporary accommodation during winter, and a suit-able briet building will be ercoted for the bank next spring. The additional bank ac-commendation thus afforded to our business ments the result of the growing trade and commercial importance of Lindsay. A large amount of business is done here in wheat, lumber, and other produce, and this together with the central position of the town, placed as it is in the midst of a rich agricultural section of country, has, doubtless, attracted the attention of the Ontario Banking Company and induced it to establish a

Ontario Bank.

No. 12

brauch business in this county town Lindsuy Post.

Quick Work.

Can anything in this age of steam and sewing machines come up to the following : In 1811 Sir John Throckmorton, a Berkshire Baronet, offered to lay a wager of a coal, but the onc is in as certain course of ex- would sit down to dinner in a well-woven' haustion as the other, the unfixed quantity well-dyed, well made suit, the wool of which with woods. The first implement of civili- o'clock on that same morning, the challenge zation is a hatchet, and its last moan will was accepted, and Mr. Cozetter, of Greenbe for the loss of trees. In no civilized and ham Mills, at Newbury, was entruted with dense population whose fuel is wood can forests be preserved, the destruction always exceeding the growth, notwithstanding the laws made for an opposite result. In washed, carded, stubbed, roved, spun and France the forests are dwindling or disappearing, and wood rising so high in price ed, raised, sheared, dyed and dressed; the that coal is taking its place, especially in tailor was at hand and made up the finished the north-east. Russia depends on wood eloth into garments; and at a quarter past altogether, but vast as some of her forests six in the evening Sir John Throckmorton are, their growth does not keep pace with sat down to dinner at the head of his guests, wood for fuel be found, the time must come when Russia will be stripped naked, and hour and three quarters to spare. Of course given to starvation, and pristine savagery. Perhaps it never ought to have been popu-lated, and semi-civilized. But be that as it may, to solitude and snow it must one with pride among the clothiers.

News Items.

Rev. H. M. Turner, colored pastor of the Israel Bethel Church in Washington, has been appointed chapiain of the First regiment of United States colored troops, now but I am afraid I was. I should not like should be taught instant obediance to a par-Edith to speak of me as I have spoken of ent's wish; little hands and hearts should be

"And is it necessary ?" "No, of course, mamma; there was no need for me to mention it at all." "Then dear Blanche, pray that your tongue may be governed, and that you may not indulge in evil speaking, and strive more and more to imitate the incakness of your Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,'

Occupy till I Come.

So Jesus counseled his disciples not long before he suffered and died for the sins of a lost world. Before ascending to his Father and theirs he would impress their minds with the unutterable importa ce of their work in the world. About to leave to their custodianship the vast interests of his Church, he would engrave upon their hearts the burning words. "Occupy till I come." The sentiment of these words is, "Be busy, be doing till I come." Applicable as this solemn injunction was to those whose work it was to lay the foundatio of Ch 'st's kingdom in the world by faithfully preaching his Gospel, it is alike applicable to all his people now. The world's moral condition is the general standing argument of Christianity for activity and this priceless inheritance.—Chronicle. devotedness upon the part of all Christ's followers.

Action is the great law of the Christian life. Something to do, and energy in doing it, pede. She gave a good deal for it, and always marks the man whose heart throbs when it came home her husband asked, with the pulsations of the divine life. Where "Do you think George will get his money's there is no action there can be no vitality, worth out of that velocipede ?" no moral power. Stagnation and spiritual "That depends upon how he use lifelessness always characterize the man who said his mother. Out the little boy took it is not up and doing for Christ and on the sidewalk; up the street it went the world. No surer sign can be given, round it turned and down the street it went. that there is no religious life or power about It went fast, it went slow ; it started and it a man, than his idleness in the vineyard of his Lord. Light shines or fire burns by no George was much pleased with his rides. At greater necessity than that the live man in last the boys heard of it, and one and anthe Church toils for the good of his race by other came round to see his new carriage. a necessity of the spiritual life within him. Did he selfishly fetch it into the house afraid There are forces in him that inpede him lest they should ask for a ride ? No. Did to work, and make him never so happy as he keep his seat proud to show off before when at work for the Master. them?

heart -- sympathy for souls in sin and on their from the bottom of their hearts they had way to ruin. And what is Christian sympa-thy but another name for practical benevol-in it, and was quite as glad to have them go action for the relief of the party which excites | er, I can lend my velocipede, can't I?" he than when he exclaimed, "I beheld the trans- it."

gressor and was grieved." He saw the transgressor at his work and on his way to ruin, door and skipping off, and he ran to the and was grieved. It were to little purpose to be grieved over the condition and danger of hood and invited him to take a ride. "Me !" sinners, and yet not to outstretch the hand and put forth effort to save them. It would be equivalent to grieving over a family whose house was on fire at the midnight hour and yet making no effort to rescue its wheels, and the lame boy moved himself sleeping inmates from the devouring flames. along easy at first, and then faster. It Sympathy must be practical. The pious pleased him so that George left him in it, heart cannot be indifferent to or unaffected for he had to go to school; and the lame boy by the world's moral condition; cannot let sat in it and sunned himself on the sidewall souls, for whose salvation his Saviour has all the forenoon, moving and resting, and souls, for whose salvation his Barlour has bled and died, sink down to perdition with an earnest effort to save them. The law of action is the law of his life. His language is, money's worth of enjoyment from jit, and Great duties are before me and great songs, And whether crowned or crownless when I fall it matters not, so as Gad's work is done.

"God has made," exclaims the eloquent Punshon, "the vigor of the faculties contingent upon their exercise. The muscle will shrink if it never be strung. The moveless hand hwill stiffen into hopeless catalepsy. Mn's existence is not to be that of a zoo-finding in the rapturous doing life's very soul of joy."

tich (tod loves to do pleasant things.

operations in the spring. Thus far the gold obtained had not paid for the outlay in obtaining it: and yet the yield was such taught to be ready and cheerful in performas to promise profitable results when the mine shall be fairly opened. One of the ing all manner of work that a child may. After that lesson is thoroughly learned it may be well to enter at times into a dis- | men had mined in California, and both appeared to be candid an reliable in their tinctly specified agreement with the child. statements. We subsequently saw Mr. paying him a certain fixed sum for some Hunter, who came in from a field with a particular piece of work not in the exact line pick in his hand. He corroborated the of his every-day duties. It should be left statements of the men, and showed us two in his choice whether to accept the proposal or not, but once commenced a parent should vials of specimens taken from the mine, conimpress on his mind the importance of per- taining an ounce and a half or two ounces. severence until it is completed. These One of the nuggets was the size of a com-childish lessons we think so little of have mon sized bean. He kindly offered to furnish us with a reliable statement of facts. often a life long bearing.

"After we were six years old,"said a Ver from which the public might draw their own conclusions as to the prospects of gold monter, "we all earned our living." mining in that vicinity. The mine is on cannot imagine how it was done, but I what is called the Grass Island Brook. never knew a more upright, industrious. which empties into the Magog River at the clock-work family. The daughters were foot of the Horse Race, one and a half educated at the first young ladie's seminary miles from the mine. It is about twelve in the land, and one at least is now an earmiles from Sherbrooke by the Belvidere nest laborer in a fcreign mission field. Good habits formed in childhood, are the richest road. We also learn that gold has been discov-legacy you can leave your children. Without ered at two or three other places in Hatley. them they are poor even with the richest On the Cull Branch, which empties into the storesof silver and gold. However lowly your Massawhippi Lake, indications were so favorable as to induce a gentleman in lot may be, it is in your power to leave them Stanstead to secure the right of working the of valuable gold discoveries in the township of Wolfestown, in Compton County. From inquiries we have made we are satisfied that gold has been found there, but not in such quantities as has been represented. A friend who has visited the township and prospected for a week or so, writes us that he is satisfied that no gold worth mentioning has yet been found, or is very likely to be.-Sherbrooke Gazette.

A Good Boy A lady bought her little George a veloci

Melancholy Death. It becomes our painful duty, to second the death of George Lawrence, a worthy

No. Was he satisfied at being Sympathy is a vital element in every pions looked at, well knowing how the boys wished his seat was very insecure. He started fol lowed by another team similarly loaded. He must have fallen off soon after he start-What is it worth unless it prompt to as to go himself. One day he came in. "Mothed. The horses kept on till they reached this sentiment in the breast? David said no-thing more touching or sublime in all his life George," said his mother, "only don't abuse the gate soon ascertained that the driver was missing, and told the man on the other waggon. A search was made, when a horse "Thank you," said George, shutting the blanket was found a short distance from Boothesay, and a little further on, the lifeless body of George Lawrence. The wheels, The printers and book-binders at the Government printing office in Washington have not yet resumed work-though it is impos-sible for the Superintendent to accede to their demands. Yesterday it was hinted that some of the men would return to work but for fear of personal violence from others .--Whereupon the War Department sent down a guard to protect them. On the appearance of the soldiers, however, none of turned to their usual duties. It is feared more to. that there may be much delay in getting out How much some boys have to make them the reports in time for Congress. hay py-pleythin o upon plaything, book up-on book, ride upon ride. But do you think it is what boys have or what they are,

The world is so fruitful that we can hard-The world is so fruitful that we can hard-Mn's existence is not to be that of a zoo-phyte, the mere elinging of a helpless parasite tojts guardian rock; it is to be a life beautiful and holy, beating with the quick pulses of activity, adventurous with an energy of which insensate matters knows not, and finding in the rapturous doing life's very nding in the rapturous doing life's very oul of joy." The superfluous blossoms on a fruit tree the city or we can plant a force on James maker, livin The Christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in The Christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the Christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life-work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the christian's work is a life work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the city or we can plant a force on James maker, livin the christian's work is a life work. The are meant to symbolise the large way in the city or we can plant a force on the symbolise the symbolise the large way in the symbolise the sym contracts. The Board of Trade returns for September shows an increase on exports of 28 per Satan's masterpiece, be overthrown, and cent over the corresponding month of last year, and the figures thus far for the whole year indicate that it will be a year of the the day ! greatest commercial prosperity that England has yet attained.

Voluminous correspondence relative to the Japanese difficulty is published in the London Morning Herald, which attacks the Ministers for their violence of Japan. FRANCE.-The Empress Eugenie has turned from her trip to Spain. The Mexican consuls in Paris, Bordeaux. and Havre, have been compelled to cease their functions. The duties of their office have been temporarily transferred to the consuls for Guatemala.

The long protracted plan of making Paris a seaport by a ship canal is revived.

The reply of the Danish Government to the resolution of the German Diet, to send the army of execution to Holstein, had been read to the diet. The reply is conciliatory in form, but on all the essential points maintains the views of the Danish Gov. crnment. The representative of Denmark said that his Government was open to me diation

A third note from Earl Russell on the Holstein question had been communicated to There have been reports some time past basis for mediation. POLAND .- Warsaw advices anpounce increase of the tyrannic and arbitrary rule

Russia. Hundreds of young men had been rested, searched, stripped to the skin, and heaten Prince Napoleon expresses an earnest wish that France will not allow Poland to be annihilated.

PRUSSIA .- Out of 345 members already chosen to the Prussian Chambers, 260 are liberals.

AUSTRIA. - The Finance Committee of the young man, well known in Elora. It appears that he was commissioned to drive a load of fruit trees from Rothesay to Minto, and the waggon was so heavily loaded that The Bank of Frankfort has advanced its will further advance its rate of discount ow the toll-gate, about 1 mile from the village, ing to a continued drain of bullion, Liverpool. Oct. 31.-Among the gers by the Asia are Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Col. Lamar, one of the secession commissioners to Europe. On the day before his departure, Beecher was entertained at a farewell break. fast by the Liverpool Emancipation Society it appears. passed over his chest, causing in-stant death.—Elora Observer.

England. Liverpool breadstuffs' market was ani and steady. Flour quiet and steady. Whe niet. Corn firmer ; mixed 28s. 3d. to 28s d. ; white 29s. to 30s. Provision market dull. Beefsteady. Pork quiet and steady. Bacon heavy ; 6d, to 1a.

lower. Tallow dull. Sugar irregular, closing firmer. Coffee dull. Petroleum firmer, closing quiet, them re-William L. Stone, lately elected Governo of Iowa, when studying law twelve years ago, worked eight hours a day, for the pur-pose of earning money to pay his board and tuition.

The following bon mot is related of Longfellow the poet. Young Mr. Longworth of Cincinnati, being introduced to him in Boswho cannot afford to eat bread has his utenare the violation of all laws of chastity virsils, implements, and furniture, if it be tue, and right. Oh ! when shall idolatry, only a three legged stool of wood. To maintain for ever the supply of an article in dethe pure and holy redsemer, Christ, be everywhere worshiped? May God hasten mand for so many purposes must of course, be hardly practicable as population increases,

The Coal Question.

(From the London Examiner.) Swift describes the people of Laputa as inordinately troubled with vain fears and tormenting themselves with all conceivable for raising food, more profitably than fo wearing out, his warmth diminishing so to maturity. There is no going back, and unerring precision that a comet would come mountainous parts the climate which favourinto contact with the globe, drive it out of ed the growth of woods has been so com its orbit, destroy all upon its surface, and pletely changed by clearing the land of them, give it some new shape of existence, with that they could not be re-produced by out animal or vegetable life. As Valetru- planting. dinarians are only to be cured of one imagi- All things considered, the prospect of the nary disease by fancying another, so it was duration of forests for the supply of fuel is with this wise people of Laputa, out of hardly more cheering than that of coal; but whose minds the dread of one calamity was what will be the state of the northern parts only to be expelled by another. With all of the world if the two should be exhausted our boasted intellect, we are not without about the same time? and whichever goes some resemblance to the Laputans. Against first will hasten the destruction of the other the sage advice of Milton we are much ad- by the increased demand. Imagine the dicted to casting the fashion of uncertain British Isles, France, Northern Germany, the Federal Diet. It endeavors to form a evils. A short time ago we were sorely and Russia, without fuel, or with only a troubled with the invasion panic, the re- scanty supply at an enormous price. Before cords of which upon Portsdown hill will such a consummation. the populations would taught to be uneasy about the health of tricts, where fuel is dear, the population is grade and passing under a bridge, mother earth. We were assured that we scanty and stunted, the physical develop-

were robbing her of her most precious salts, and dosing her with stimulants, calling were, in the bud. forth a short-lived energy, after which the We do not believe, however, that the cal productive powers would be wholly exhaust- amity we are imagining will ever come to ed, and the soil as unprofitable as the sands pass, for we have faith in solace and invenof the sea. A bankruptcy of the earth was tion, and cannot suppose that the present approaching, caused by her spendthrift barbarous, wasteful means of obtaining heat sons. There were large outstanding debts will last for another century or two. As of essential elements of vegetation, which soon as the price of fuel ises with diminishcould not be recovered, and, in default of ed supply for an increased population, ingerate of discount from 3½ to 4 per cent, and the Bank of Holland from 3 to 3½. It is rumored that the Bank of France indeed, very much as a case of dram drink-indeed, very much as a case of dram drink-locometives are and contended its population, inge-the bank of Holland from 3 to 3½. ating as gin and whiskey upon mother of our forefathers are by us. As Mr. Mic-earth, deprived of her proper food. And awber was wont to say, "Something-will there was no help for it. What had been turn up." Our present business has been done could not be undone. What had been to show that our dependence on coal is not taken from the soil in a false system of hus- so peculiar as has been supposed, and that bandry could not be restored to it by hu- the lease of the mine is at least as good man skill. In our bread, meat, and vege- as that of the forest. Woods may be pretables, produced at the expense of the ele-served certainly, as pinerics may ; but see ments of nutrition, we had anticipated har- whether they are kept up in any civilized land, vests that should have been spread over except, perhaps, for the special purpose of countless ages. In a word, we had beggared timber for ship-building, and that not sucnature, and the time was rapidly coming cessfully. They are still vast forests in the when the whole Globe would not be worth north of Europe, but the wood is not where a dump. This sad warning of the inevitable the wood is wanted, and has to be transdoom would have been more successful if it had been less scientific in its details. The deed, seems as implacably hostile to forest imagination was hampered by the chemistry, as to savage existence. and the question whether this and that were quite certain. Next came the alarm

FIRE .- Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, the dwelling house of Mr. George Sparling, fellow the poet. Found mar. Longworth of Cincinnati, being introduced to him in Bos-ton, some one present remarked upon the similarity of the first syllable of the two names. "Yes," said the poet, "but in this case I fear Pope's line will apply : 'Worth makes the man, and want of it the fellow." SUICIDE.—Charles Chambers, a shoe-maker, living at Euniskillen, committed suicide on Sundsy week by hanging himself with a rope.

example of leaving off fires in his own house and froze and shivered for the good of posterity. Horace Walpole has well said that the says the New York World has created a that coal would be out in less than 1000 years now being introduced into Montreal, for

The use of the electric telegraph system is

