One of the Conspicuous Wonders.

The FAMILY HERALD AND WEEKLY STAR, Montreal, has been enlarged and vastly improved. It is really a wonderful paper. It's success is phenomenal. It's not strange people are wondering how such a magnificent paper can be supplied for so small a subscription. People who are interested in the wonders of the age should see the FAMILY HERALD AND WEEKLY STAR of Montreal.

Married

At Washington, D. C., by the Rev. Dr. Thomas C. Addison, Miss May P. Stevens, of Lodi, California, to Fred H. Lee, of Hampton, Virginia, formerly of Lyn, Ontario.

The above announcement, which reached us this week, will be read with pleasurable interest by Mr. Lee's many friends in this section. We extend congratulations. Mr. Lee is at present manager of a large plantation and agent for a New Yorker who has invested extensively in Virginia lands near the town of Hampton, and thither, we presume he has taken his young bride.

Going West.

Mr. Frank Cornell who has been teaching at New Dublin for the past season, gave us a pleasant call last week and informed us that he had severed his connection with the New Dublinites to accept a position as head master of the public school in the thriving village of Wellington, Prince Edward County. In leaving Athens Mr. Cornell carries with him the well wishes of a host of friends, who while sorry at the loss they and the public at large sustain by his removal, wish him all manner of success in his new field of labor. Mr. Cornell has occupied an enviable position as teacher in this section for more than a score of years. In nearly every section that he has taught in, his engagement extends over a period of two and three years each; in fact, we believe he has held his position in three or four sections for three years each in succession, and his reputation extends beyond the bounds of this vicinity. To his pupils he is firm, yet kind; a strict disciplinarian, yet ever ready to countenance and encourage his pupils in all kinds of healthy amusements and games to break the monotony and tedium of school hours. As a citizen, he enjoys the confidence and respect of all who knew him well enough to appreciate his worth.

The Bulford Burglary.

Mr. Bulford prosecuted a vigorous search last week for the perpetrators of the robbery at his shop, and on Tuesday he caused the arrest of William Morris, son of John Morris, mason, and a pair of pants, which Mr. Bulford identified as being part of the stolen property, was found in his possession. He was placed in the lock-up here, and the search for other suspects was continued. On Wednesday night the prisoner, tiring of his enforced confinement, accepted an invitation to leave town and disappeared. The door of the lock-up is secured with a heavy lock of ordinary design and two hooks, all on the outside, so that while it makes a secure fastening so far as a prisoner is concerned, a friend from without could easily effect his release. In this case it was not found necessary to break anything in order to free the prisoner. A boat was missed from a boat-house up the river a couple of days later, and it is surmised that William is now in the domain of Uncle Sam.

John S. Eaton, a young man employed on the Bullis & Sherman factory, was suspected of being concerned in the robbery, and was brought before Justice Wight on Thursday and remanded till Saturday, and on that day was further remanded until Thursday next.

GAS 10,500,000 GAS

DR. THOMAS, of Philadelphia, stated before the New Jersey Dental Society, Asbury Park, that it was estimated that over TEN MILLIONS and a half persons have taken gas in America since it was first used in 1863, to have teeth extracted without pain. It is admitted on all hands to be the safest of all known anæsthetics. Dr. J. White stated before the Medical Congress in Berlin, that not less than 750,000 persons inhale gas annually in this country alone.

D. V. Beacock has been making and using this gas for nearly thirty years without an accident. From five to twenty-five teeth and old roots can easily be extracted with one administration.

Hear what patrons say who have taken gas from him:

Thought I was in paradise.

Twenty-one teeth and roots out and never felt one of them.

Easier than having a photograph taken.

The first time I ever laughed at having a tooth pulled.

They will not fool me again. I'll know where to go to avoid pain after this.

Thank the Lord for this discovery, I was perfectly unconscious.

I would give anything to remember my dream, delightful.

Why do they try to frighten us from taking gas? It's a shame. They won't do it with me again. I was told that only to or three could be pulled at once with the gas, and you have taken out fifteen. I never knew it.

NOTE—Never have a tooth pulled out that can be saved.

UNDERTAKING

Our line of Funeral Furnishings was never more complete. We can supply on the shortest notice the plainest coffin or the handsomest burial casket. We are not in any combine and our prices are just as low as we can make them.

Our Hearse is one of the handsomest in the county and our very reasonable charges for it are proportioned to the distance it has to go.

We cannot offer to the public—even on paper—a free vault, because there is no such thing in Athens, as the following letter will show:

"Athens, Nov. 3rd, 1891.

"A resolution passed by the Methodist Trustee Board granting to Stevens Brothers and R. D. Judson, undertakers in Athens, the right to place bodies in the vault for the sum of two dollars each body (said undertakers responsible for the payment of the two dollars.

A. W. BLANCHARD,
Secretary Board."

The sum of $2 has to be paid for each body stored in the vault and whether that sum is paid directly or indirectly makes no difference to our patrons. The vault rent has to be paid; that is very plain. And it is equally plain that no one undertaker has a preferential right over another.

Our methods of doing business are fair, open and above-board, and will stand investigation.

Furniture.—Our stock of Furniture is complete in every respect, and we offer it at nearly cost price for the next 30 days. Intending purchasers will do well to call and see for themselves.
