

Candidates must be physically fit in all respects, and in the case of Seamen, Engine Room Artificers and Ordnance Artificers must have full normal vision. In the case of other ratings, a standard of vision slightly below normal may be accepted, but normal colour vision is essential in all cases.

Candidates must be British subjects of good character domiciled in Canada for at least two years. Preference will be given to those with education equivalent to High School Entrance, or above. No technical qualifications are required for entry in the Seaman and Stoker Branches. Artificer and artisan ratings must be qualified in one of the trades mentioned.

Writer ratings and Victualling ratings must possess educational qualifications equivalent to second year High School, preferably with some office experience in accounting or secretarial work, or commercial training.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

All men (over 18 years of age) joining the Navy must sign a contract to serve for seven years.

Boys (under 18 years of age) joining the Navy must sign a contract to serve until they reach the age of 18 and for seven years from that date. They must obtain the consent of their parents or guardian to join the Royal Canadian Navy. A form for this purpose will be forwarded to them.

Ratings entered in any branch of the Service will be eligible through service, and by passing the prescribed technical and educational examinations, for advancement in the various classes of their rating.

The range of pay of the various ratings is as follows:—
