

GIFTS :—

“ are not revoked by birth of children to donor.....	812
“ when may be revoked for ingratitude.....	813
“ effect of revocation of, for ingratitude.....	815
“ when subject to resolatory clause.....	816
“ causâ mortis , by contract of marriage.....	757, 781
“ “ in what terms may be expressed.....	830
“ by contract of marriage, free from restrictions.....	818
“ “ rules applicable to,.....	817
“ “ by whom and in favor of whom may be made.....	818 to 820
“ “ how may be accepted.....	821
“ “ validity of, depends on solemnization of marriage.....	822
“ “ how far irrevocable.....	823
“ “ may be stipulated to be revocable conditional or reducible.....	824
“ “ to what debts may be made subject.....	825
“ “ how donor may free himself from debts to which they are subject.....	826, 827, 828
“ “ when they admit of representation..	829
“ “ may be expressed in any terms which indicate the intentions of the donor.....	830
GOOD FAITH, is always presumed.....	2202
“ as regards expenditures and improvements.....	417
“ when it ceases.....	412
GOOD MORALS, things contrary to, cannot form the object of obligations.....	1080
“ GOVERNOR,” meaning of the word,.....	17, $3
“ GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,” meaning of the words,.....	17, $4
“ GRANDCHILDREN,” meaning of the term,.....	980
GRANTS, original, exempt from registration.....	2084
GRASS, upon certain beaches, to whom it belongs.....	591
GREATER REPAIRS, what are,.....	469
“ when usufructuary is liable for,.....	468
GUARDIAN :—See SEQUESTRATOR.
HABITATION, right of, in what it consists.....	487
“ “ established by the will of man.....	488
“ “ ceases in the same manner as usufruct.....	“
“ “ requires security to be given and inventory to be made.....	489
“ “ governed by the title creating it.....	491
“ “ exercise of, must be that of a prudent adminis- trator.....	490
“ “ extends to family, even subsequent, of person having it.....	459