LONDON (CUP)—Thirty-two University of Western Ontario students have been fined $50 each for their part in a panty raid on a girls' residence.

All the students were from the men's residence, and they gave themselves up after two of their number were caught and liable for expulsion. The fines were levied by a joint students' council and administration committee, and the names of the offenders were not released.

Council president Thomas Hockin said that heavier fines or expulsion will be used to punish similar offenses in the future. Once the stolen garments have been replaced the remaining money may be given to charity or used to start a scholarship fund.

During the raid Sunday night the warden of the residence was pushed around by the students who forced their way into the front hall. The raiders—all masked—ran into the room and stole articles of clothing from the dresser drawers. Almost all the girls were sleeping at the time. No one was hurt.

Amidst screams and hysterical laughter the panty thieves ran outside, and after taunting the girls through the opened windows they disappeared. Two were caught by London Township police as they made their way back to residence in the dark.

"We think you are aware of the peaceful co-existence by which the Soviet government and the students abide, and it is our policy to share this practice," he said.

Although their theme was peace and co-operation Golubev admitted earlier in the day that, "In my continued on page 7
