Escommain.

My dear Adolphe, -

The last time that you came to Escommain, you told me that when anything should happen with the Indians I should write to you. Here it is. It is this. You know that the road was made before the reserve was given to the Indians. You have seen our (illegible words) to take the road to day. The Indians have obstructed the road. You know that for at least 17 or 18 (years) people have passed that way. If you cannot stop this blocking up (of the road) I shall have to write to the Dept. to find out whether I ought not to have a way out (sentence unintelligible)

Nothing further at present.

Your friend and cousin
Charles Brucher

Reply to me immediately. I have been waiting a long time. If I cannot get satisfaction from you, I shall have to whom I shall apply.
