Mr Mackenzie King.

Dear Sir -

To see your true words in the Times-to-day, gives me an opportunity to see that not all the members of the Federal Industrial Commission had been dominated by its Chairman. His intense prejudice must surely awaken the country to genuine sympathy with Mr Rockefeller and his father, and yet it is so hard to know where prejudice may lead. It is absolutely necessary to let the truth be understood, and it is a duty to all who feel that intensely, to help to make it understood.
