

a sewing room ;— the Bazaar of 1860 ;— collecting at Rivière-du-Loup ;— the collection, upon the occasion of Bishop Bourget's pastoral visits ;— the Convent is sold to the government ;— moving and getting settled in new quarters ;— Mother Caron and the juvenile delinquents ;— the fire of 1864 ;— her works ;— the story of Céleste ;— a school of Domestic Economy ;— Mother Caron's self sacrifice ;— what was accomplished at St. Vincent de Paul under Mother Caron's management ;— the Convent of St. Vincent de Paul in 1908.

CHAPTER X

1866 — 1872

MOTHER CARON, ASSISTANT GENERAL.93

A significant expression ;— departure from Saint-Vincent-de-Paul ;— regrets ;— foundation of the generalship ;— responsibility of the governing Sisters ;— functions of the Assistant General ;— visits to the patrons of the poor ;— she mends broken glasses ;— she converts the sick ;— Mr. Olivier Berthelet and Mrs. Nowlan ;— advice to those on mission ;— the work for Bazaars ;— a brief stay at the mission of Laprairie ;— the 25th July, 1872 ;— Mother Caron is made Superior General.

CHAPTER XI

1872 — 1878

MOTHER CARON, SUPERIOR GENERAL :

a) *At the Distant Missions.*102

Those composing the household of the Providence