

16. AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS.

There shall be two or more Auditors of the Society elected annually, by the members. They shall audit the accounts of the Society, and see that they are correctly kept, and shall lay before each half-yearly meeting a balance sheet of the receipts and expenditures, also of the assets and liabilities of the Society, signed by them, with a statement of the Society's affairs since the last half-yearly meeting, and of its then condition. The Auditors shall have power to call for, and examine all books and documents belonging to the Society: and every balance sheet so signed, and which shall have been approved by any such meeting shall be binding on the Society, except as to any errors that may be discovered within two months thereafter.
