

234 FOUNDATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL POLITY

- Self-sacrifice, aimless, 45
- Sensory nerves, social. See "Nervous System"
- Sieper, Professor, letter from, to Times, 219
- Sincerity of intuitionist and rationalist, 51
- Slavery :
 economic case against, xxxix, 13
 modified to serfdom, xxiii, 101
- Smith, Adam, 109
- Socialism not "British" or "German," 78
- Society :
 security based on cancellation of force, xxix
 social forces less visible than military, xxxv diplomatists' ideas on basis of, 8 mechanism and principles of, 9, 125
 forbids use of force by individuals, 65
 banking furnishes sensory nerves, 89
 "competition the basis" (Rifleman), 144
 See also "Government," "Interdependence"
- Soldier, the profession of a, 161
- Soldier or Policeman. See "Policeman"
- South Africa :
 Natal and British Indians, xxxii
- South America. See "America, South"
- Spain :
 and South America, 103
 failure of exploitation, 105
- Spectator*, the, xliii
- Spiritual impulses. See "Ideals"
- Statecraft :
 Dr. Jayne Hill on, 8
 orthodox, assumes nations act from interest, 11
 changes in communication overlooked, 19
 axioms of, 91
 occasion of Britain's reformed views on, 111
 "Place of Military Force in Modern," 140 judged by its fruits, 160
 See also "Axioms," "Diplomacy"
- States :
 not homogeneous, xxiii
 force futile as between, xxiii
 economic and political, do not coincide, xxiv
 habit of thinking in, xxviii
 Dr. Hill on diplomats' views concerning, 8 small more prosperous than large, 21, 27
 not persons or families, 58-157
 "World Organization and the Modern State," 133
 exists to advance well-being of citizens, 141
 is conflict necessary? 141
 formerly sought to dictate religious beliefs, 148
 "inevitable conflict of," 148
 "the economic executive of its citizens," 152
 See also "Government," "Nations"
- Stead, Mr., and "Two Keels to One," 164
- Steele, Mrs., "Hosts of the Lord," 44
- Stengel, Baron Von, 91, 143
- Storey, General John P., xlvii
- "Struggle for Bread, The," 144, 146, 147, 205
- Struggle for survival :
 survival contingent on cessation of struggle, xxxviii Homer Lea on, xlvii
 always "other nations" who want to struggle, 28
 war kills off the fittest, 57
 an axiom of statecraft, 91
- Suffering, avoidance of, 4
- Sussex versus Wessex, 146
- Sustenance. See "Food"
- Sweden :
 small but prosperous, 21
- Switzerland :
 her foreign visitors, xxxiii
 small but prosperous, 21
- Taxation :
 of American colonies leads to revolt, 60
- Terminology obsolete, xxxvi
- Territory :
 conquest of, brings no gain, 21
 early occupation of, 151