

15. Members are asked to have any suggestions or complaints handed to the Secretary in writing.

16. All accounts must be audited by the Executive Committee and paid by cheque signed by the President, or, in her absence, by either of the Vice-Presidents, and countersigned by the Honorary Treasurer, or, in her absence, by a Member of the Executive duly appointed by that body.

17. Members have the privilege of inviting men to the Club for lunch or tea, when such guests must be accompanied by a Member, and may be admitted to the dining room and guest room only.

18. A Member who is absent from the city for one year or over, may, upon notifying the Secretary in writing, be allowed to pay Non-Resident fees. She must also notify the Secretary immediately upon her return.

19. A General Meeting may be called at any time by the President in her own right, and in case she shall refuse or neglect to call a Special Meeting, on the request in writing of twenty-five Members in good standing, such meeting may be held upon the call of such twenty-five Members. Twenty-five Members shall constitute a quorum at all General Meetings.

20. It shall be the duty of the House Committee to call to the attention of the Members any infraction of the rules and by-laws of the Club, and to report the same at the next meeting of the Executive Committee. Should a Member continue to infringe the rules she shall be called before the Executive Committee for an explanation, when she shall be dealt with at the discretion of the Committee.
