was read not long since "Course Oatmeal."THE Town Council of Moncton, N.B., decided

22 ST. JOHN STREET, — MONTREAL

Mercantile Summary.THERE is a strong feeling among the merchants of Perth, says the Expositor, in favor of forming a Board of Trade in that lively town, to discuss matters of public interest and to take action where necessary to promote the progress of the place.THERE has been a strike of clothing cutters in a big New York store where the co-operative system of profits was in vogue. So another idol is shattered, for division of profits did not stop the strike ordered by a labor union.EASTPORT Sentinel:—There were 367 bales of cotton, containing 837,500 pounds, valued at $18,350, exported from the Passamaquoddy district, Maine, last month, all of which was for the cotton mill at St. Stephen.A DISTINCTION is suggested by a Southern journal between the pretty typewriter and the instrument she writes with, in this style: The "typewriter" describes the human operator; the "typograph" defines the instrument operated upon.WE learn from the Telegraph that Mr. G.
F. Baird and Capt. Porter, of St. John, N.B., have gone to New York to secure, if possible, a steamship for the West India trade. Mr.
Geo. Robertson visits Montreal and Toronto to interest shippers in the route via St. John.FISHERMENS' DEPOT
