

A Battalion is the tactical and administrative unit for infantry. It is commanded by a Lieutenant-Colonel. It has four companies of 1000 bayonets.

Army Service Corps—This corps is under the administration of the Quartermaster-General's Department, and is responsible for the transport of all Army supplies, and the supply of food, fuel, and forage. It takes charge of the bakers' and butchers' departments.

A Regiment is a unit consisting of two or more battalions or squadrons, commanded by a field officer, usually a Colonel. The normal composition of infantry is two battalions, but several have a larger establishment.

(To be continued)

Questions on the War

A. N. SCARROW.

Faculty of Education, University of Toronto

1. Tell what and where the following are and what they are noted for in connection with the present war: Paris, Ostend, Zeebrugge, Antwerp, Liège, Rheims, Hartlepool, Serajevo, Warsaw, Constantinople, Tsing Tau, Heligoland, Kaiser Wilhelm Canal, Wilhelmshaven, Louvain, Alsace-Lorraine.

2. What do you understand by the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente? What countries did they affect? What result had these agreements on the war?

3. Explain what brought the following countries into the war: Russia, France, Belgium, Britain.

4. What is Canada's justification for taking part in the war?

5. How has this war shown the unity as well as the strength of the British Empire?

6. What do you understand by the following: A belligerent country, neutral country, contraband, conditional contraband, war footing, peace footing, mobilisation?

7. State what you believe to be the different ideals for which Germany and Britain, respectively, are fighting. Show that each nation is true to its national history.

8. State what you believe will be some of the effects of this war on the world.

(To be continued)