Lloyd George's Bill Passes Second Reading

London, May 11.—The House of Commons last evening passed the second reading of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George's bill to amend the Defence of the Realm Act. The bill originally was destined to place a heavy surtax on wines, spirits and beer, but under pressure from the Irish party its provisions were amended to giving the Government control of the sale of liquor in areas where munitions of war are being made.

NEW HOPE FOR SUFFERERS FROM PARALYSIS

There are cases of paralysis that cannot be cured. But that is far different from saying that every case of paralysis is incurable. There is absolute proof that many forms of this disease are curable. Of the cases that cannot be cured many can be so benefited that the formerly helpless sufferer will once more find life worth living.

Attention is called to the remarkable cures that have been effected in cases of partial paralysis, and other severe nervous disorders, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Some of these cures are so wonderful as to challenge belief, but in every case the statements have been carefully verified and may be investigated by anyone interested. In this connection the case of Miss B. Milehan, of St. John, N. B., is worthy of the most careful attention. Miss Milehan says: "Some three years ago I was taken seriously ill with diphtheria. The doctor thought me safely through this dreaded trouble and I was assumed well. But two weeks later I took a relapse, my throat and limbs were paralyzed. I could neither dress nor walk. I was under the best of medical care, and after a few weeks was able to sit up in bed. My throat was still completely paralyzed and I could only utter unintelligible sounds. I was treated by three of St. John's best physicians for this trouble and my case was given up as hopeless. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills but I had spent so much on medicine without help that I thought it would be only a further waste of money. However, I felt myself getting daily weaker and weaker, and I decided as a last chance that I would try the Pills. By the time I had taken half a dozen boxes I could walk across the floor, something doctors had told me could never happen again. I still continue to take the Pills, my speech recovered, and I felt myself in perfect health. My friends thought my restoration nothing short of a miracle and I think myself that I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I am living to-day, and I feel confident they can do quite as much for others as they did for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills effect cures in cases of this kind because they make new, rich, red blood, which feeds and strengthens the nerves and tones up the whole system. If you are in need of a medicine give these pills a trial. We are confident you will not be disappointed. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Mr. Lloyd George has promised to appoint a committee to inquire into the charges of drunkenness among workmen, and all parties, including the Laborites, have expressed their satisfaction with the bill.

'COURIER' MAN HELD UP AT ARMORIES

Burford Sentry Takes No Chances and Means Business.

A Courier man who visited Burford last night, had the unique experience of having a somewhat constrained conversation with a veteran Dragon outside the armories, while the said gentleman tickled the trigger of his Ross rifle in anything but a reassuring manner. The incidentals of the avowed most mortem are such. Desiring to have a talk with the Sergeant-Major, the Courier representative advanced up the entrance way and was halting the sentry with a cheerful "Good Evening" when he found himself gazing down the barrel of a Ross rifle and a voice barked, "Halt." The order was obeyed with alacrity. "Who goes there?" "Courier, Brantford." "Guest so. What do you want?" "The Sergt.-Major? I'll pass, if you don't mind, inside."

"Now, ye dont. Jest you stand still, Bill," and his assistant executioner appeared. "Call the S.M.," he ordered. The conversation was difficult as the three steps towards the armories door had brought the newsmen within two feet of a rifle wielded by a Dragoon clad in the habiliments of cavalry, minus spurs, who resolutely refused conversation with the enemy. The lighting of a cigarette was followed in all its movements by the "iron tube" and the right forefinger visible to the naked eye, as it clung around the trigger, made the advent of the S.M. a glad appearance.

DROPPED TWO BOMBS.

Paris, May 11, 4.5 a.m.—A German aeroplane of the Taube type flew over St. Denis, a suburb of Paris, this morning and dropped two bombs. One missile wounded five persons while the other fell on a building without causing damage.

CANADA'S GREATEST MOUNTAINS DEPICTED

The Grand Trunk System has just issued a booklet which takes high rank amongst railway literature in general. This publication is entitled "The North American Alps" and is descriptive of that magnificent territory in the Canadian Rockies, which has Mount Robson as its centre, and which includes two great mountain parks with scores of glaciers, waterfalls and flower strewn valleys. The illustrations are especially fine in this brochure, presenting for the first time recently opened up by the Grand Trunk Pacific transcontinental line. Travellers taking a trip to the Pacific Coast should see this great alpine playland so well depicted in this booklet.

A copy may be had free on application to C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

TESTIMONY OF THE CAPTAIN

As Given at the Inquest Into the Lusitania Disaster.

Kinsale, Ireland, May 11.—Capt. Turner of the Lusitania appeared before the Coroner and was questioned. The Coroner asked him whether he had received a message concerning the sinking of a ship off Kinsale by a submarine. Captain Turner replied that he had not. "Did you receive any special instructions as to the voyage?" "Yes sir."

NO PANIC ON BOARD

"No, there was no panic at all; it was almost calm." "How many persons were on board?" "There were one thousand five hundred passengers and about six hundred crew."

WENT DOWN WITH LINER

"When she was struck she listed to starboard. I stood on the bridge when she sank, and the Lusitania went down under me. She floated about eighteen minutes after the torpedo struck her. My watch stopped at 2.36. I was picked up from among the wreckage, and afterwards was brought aboard a trawler."

NEURALGIA SETTLED IN HER LUNGS

No Relief From The Pain Until She Took "Fruit-a-lives" CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., MAY 5TH, 1913. "I cannot speak too highly of 'Fruit-a-lives'. For over thirty years, I have suffered from chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing untold agony. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took bottles of medicine without relief. The doctor told me I would not get better but 'Fruit-a-lives' proved that the doctor was wrong by giving me quick relief and finally and completely curing me. 'I would not have my present health if it were not for 'Fruit-a-lives' and I am glad of this opportunity of giving you this letter about such a splendid remedy as 'Fruit-a-lives'."

Mrs. NATHAN DUNN. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

ALEXANDRA ANNIVERSARY WAS SUCCESS

Splendid Musical Evening—A Rare Treat.

The Alexandra Presbyterians have celebrated the second anniversary of the erection of their new church, and it may be stated without fear of contradiction, that never in the annals of the older structure was there such a successful annual observation. It is not given to every church to be able in present-day times to clear off one thousand dollars from the church debt in one day. This is the accomplishment of this congregation, and they may well be proud of their record.

EXPLOSION OF THE BULKHEADS

"Was the course of the vessel altered after the torpedoes struck her?" "I headed straight for land, but it was useless. Previous to this the watertight bulkheads were closed. I supposed the explosion forced them open. I don't know the exact extent to which the Lusitania was damaged."

EXPLOSION OF THE BULKHEADS

"Were the passengers supplied with life-belts?" "Yes."

EXPLOSION OF THE BULKHEADS

"With regard to the threats against his ship, Capt. Turner said he saw nothing except what appeared in the New York papers the day before the Lusitania sailed. He never had heard the passengers talking about the threats, he said."

EXPLOSION OF THE BULKHEADS

"All the passengers must have heard the explosion," Capt. Turner replied. "Capt. Turner, in answer to another question, said he received no report from the lookout before the torpedo struck the Lusitania."

HOSPITALS CROWDED

London, May 11.—The allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula continued their advance Friday and Saturday, according to an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. They are reported to have occupied important positions in spite of the desperate resistance offered by the Turks whose total losses are estimated at 45,000 men. The hospitals in Constantinople are said to be so crowded that wounded are being sent to Konieh in Asia Minor.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Nothing finer in the realm of standard classical music has been heard than that with the Jack Levy and the Three Symphony Maids favored the patrons of the Brant Theatre yesterday. The skill and the grace of the quartette was a striking illustration of what practice and perseverance, coupled with ability will accomplish. The composition of the four is unique, a violin, a cello, flute and piccolo, forming the means of exquisite extraction. In a home-like scene, the melodies were pleasantly reminiscent and included such masterpieces as Michele's "Hungarian Dance"; Nevin's "Rosary" and "Allegro Vivace" from Rossini's overture "William Tell." A delightful item was a piccolo duet, "Two Little Bulls."
