You Can Learn More from a teapot test of

TRY IT TO-DAY

His Name Was Preserved Fish

-BY RICHARD CONNELL.

had announced that "Preserved Fish feel worse than being rejected. is growing a blond mustache," he fell "Because of your name," she The object of his adoration was a large, twittery young lady who had recently come to town to keep books in the lawn-mower works. Preserved bought himself some lavender sox, had sundry boxes of candy charged against his frail salary in the drug store, and set about his courtship in an earnest and wholly orthodox man-Apparently the large young ner. lady did not suspect his intent until one evening, in the porch hammock, he delivered his carefully rehearsed

'Oh, I couldn't, I couldn't." said the large young lady.

"I don't see what that's got to do with it," said Preserved, although he is a cold or cool bath, once daily, pre did see.

"I could never, never, never be Mrs. Preserved Fish," she replied. "I've water should be cool enough to get a always looked forward to the day brisk reaction, but there is nothing when I could change my name. Everyone has always made jokes about mine. But I just won't, won't, won't change it to Mrs. Preserved Fish." "Oh, Amy!" he groaned.

"It's no use," she said firmly. "I'd rather stay Amy Hogg. That's bad enough. I want a man with a good plain name like Brown or Williams. No, Preserved, it cannot be."

He stumbled home and thought of contemplated this step. More than once, galled to the limit of endurance by the "Pickled Eel" joke, he had been on the point of getting his name changed to "Montague."

But a vision came before his eyes, in this case, as in others. He remembered his mother's words, and saw half a gallon of water each day. heaps and heaps and heaps of yellow- The face should be well washed backed bills. His! His, that is, if he remained Preserved Fish. Hed ecided to remain so. Uncle P. Robinson couldn't live forever; and when he died, Preserved, his namesake, would be independently rich. He could snap his fingers at them all. He practiced snapping them as he made his way home from the verandah of Miss Hogg. He could go to New York and at the Waldorf Astoria and no one would care what his name was so long as he spent freely. And he would spend freely, he promised himself and "Here is a note your uncle left," the world that. Yes, he would pay said the lawyer. Weakly, Preserved the price for that wealth by remaining Fish read it. Preserved until the legacy should be his. It was a big price, he thought, for any amount of money. In his dreams that night he saw piles of yellow bills as high as the five-storey Clintonia Trust Company Building. Uncle P. Robinson refused to expire. He stuck to life like a barnacle for five years more. Five years of notoriety and torment for Preserved. Amy Hogg married a pants drummer named Ignatius McGoorty. Preserved sent them a plaster Kewpie for their parlor, and wept into the soda fountain's fresh strawberry syrup. The calcium continued to glare into his blue eyes. But he continued to draw trade into the store, and Old Man trade into the store, and Old Man Keplar gave him a three-dollar raise and taught him to roll pills. Preserved Fish's twenty-sixth ed with it all these years to get this' birthday his brother Galahad came —he gave the walrus bag a venomous into the drug store importantly, kick—"and look what I get"—he gave ordered and did not pay for a pine-appie frappe, and remarked: joke all my life-for Confederate "Well, old sardine, Uncle P. Robin- money. But it's all over now. From son isn't." this minute I ain't Preserved Fish any more." "Isn't what?" demanded Preserved. He thumped out of the room

About the House

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION. Millions of dollars are paid for cos-metics in a single year. That gives an idea of how much we crave beauty, the beauty that is skin deep. Our hearty country girls are just as ear nest as their city sisters in their ef-forts to give nature a boost in this direction; and their brothers, too, show more than a passing interest. So it is evident that complexion is a matter of very special importances, and that the disfiguring skin disease known as acne, blotching the face with and that the disfiguring skin disease known as acne, blotching the face with pimples and blackheads, means great mental distress, even though it does not very seriously impair one's physi-cal powers.

cal powers. Most young people who suffer with this complaint and are anxious to have it remedied spend too much time on the face and too little on the rest of the skin. They will massage the face for twenty minutes, but do not wish to give five to the covered parts. They milk may be added if desired. PART III. When he was twenty and the "Star" "Oh, why couldn't you?" There is ad announced that "Preserved Fish id announced that "Preserved Fish" feel worse than being rejected. "Because of your name," she ans-to give five to the covered parts. They must remember that the skin of the face will not respond kindly to treat-ment that ignores all the rest of the baking powder with the flour. A fittle milk may be added if desired. Drop from the end of a spoon into boiling fat and fry to a rich, nut brown. Drain well and serve hot. These frit-bit

The very best complexion treatmen ferably in the morning. This should be taken in a warm room and the gained by extreme cold temperatures. Even more important than the bath is the brisk rub that should follow. It must be borne in mind that we are must be borne in mind that we are ful of grated cheese. Cook the pepper now prescribing for young people of for five minutes in a generous table vigorous habit, who desire a good complexion. Such treatment is not those able to bear it the effect is to point. Now pour in a cupful of rich quicken the circulation and to improve drinking poison, but decided that the body. Improvement will not come there was still hope. He'd change his in a single week, but it will surely name. It wasn't the first time he had come to reward persistent effort. The diet of young persons with acne should be rather abstemious, especial coarse breads, and should drink about a dish of this sort will not bear

The face should be well washed at night with warm water and soap, and should have enough attention to be sure that all the excess oil of the unusually oily skin is removed.

> DELECTABLE CORN DISHES. Corn and tomatoes always make a tasty combination. This one is different:

Tomatoes stuffed with corn-Grate "And I've been Preserved Fish for twenty-six years for this!" he groaned

Dear Namesake :--- I enclose my collection of Confederate money. It was my dearest possession. It took twenty years and no end of trouble to collect it. I hope you'll cherish it, as I done. Your aff. uncle,

P. (Preserved) Robinson.

"And I said it would run into five "So it does," broke out Galahad. "All ciphers." He turned to his brother, who sat dazed and aghast. "Well," he observed cheerfully, "I guess it's back to soda-jerking, for

The bearer of that name sprang up "Don't you never call me that name again, Galley," he bellowed. "I suffer-and his old name behind him forever.

On arriving at Bucyrus he picked a

What's your

Have you shined your shoes today?

ZIN

Shoe Polish

Saves You

Money

ters are truly delicious served with maple syrup, or plain sugar syrup, though usually regarded as a meat substitute. Corn and Cheese Souffle-Here is another corn dish which may very acceptably take the place of meat. A large cupful of grated green corn required for its making, also half a green pepper chopped fine and a cupspoonful of butter, then remove it and add two tablespoonfuls of flour to the safe for the old and feeble; but to butter and cook these to the bubbling milk and cook till smooth, stir in the of being edible. not only the skin but every organ in corn, cheese and fried pepper and add a mere grating of onion. Cook for a few moments, then whip in two well-waiting.

Some thing that will please the children without much expenditure of either time or money is what many mothers are considering for that approashing birthday or any other party, an occasion of thrilling importance to the youngsters.

Buy a quantity of lollypops and some gayly colored crepe paper, or the odds and ends of such paper you may already have in the house. Cut circles of white or pink tinted paper the size of the candy and fasten it over the waxed paper in which each lollypop is wrapped with two or three touches of glue. Next mark on these circles all sorts of funny faces. From the gay paper fashion bonnets and dresses held in place by bits of nar-row ribbon and touches of glue. Thrust the end of the stick through an empty spool and you have a charm ing doll that can stand alone. Endearing colored babies may be made by using black paper for the faces. These lollypop dollies may be used as place cards or to decorate indi-

4117. Smart belt extensions on this dress, effected by slashes at the sides are an outstanding style feature. The sleeve may be in wrist or elbow length The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. A 10-year size re-quires 3½ yards of 32-inch material. Serge, crepe knit and jersey weaves, also taffeta are attractive materials. for this style.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 15c in silver or stamps, by the Wilson Publishing Co., 73 West Allow two Adelaide st., Toronto. weeks for receipt of pattern.

vidual servings of ice cream. They may be marching in file round the table or as cake decorations. And in the end they posses the useful quality beaten egg yolks and season to suit A builder builded a temple, the taste. Finally fold in the whites He wrought it with grace and skillof the eggs beaten to a stiff dry froth, Pillars and groins and arches should be shunned. They should dripk should sh Thy fame shall endure for aye."

THE BUILDER

LOLLYPOP DOLLIES.

A mother builded a temple With loving and infinite care, Planning each arch with patience, Laying each stone with prayer. None praised her unceasing efforts None knew of her wondrous plan, For the temple the mother builded Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple-Crumbled into the dust; Low lies each stately pillar, Food for consuming rust. But the temple the mother builded Will last while the ages roll. For that beautiful unseen temple Was a child's immortal soul.

Fresh air and

-or, as the Report of the Ministry of Health of Great Britain said: "a sanitary environment and any desired and the said are the great safeguards of Health.

before.

The delight and comfort of using Lifebuoy are famous around the world.

The odour vanishes guickly after use

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

A new invention is a powerful elec tric light attached to the life-boats of a steamship, which is automatically switched on as the boat touches the water.

Minard's Liniment for Dandruff.

Telegraphs in Uganda are not always reliable, as the natives covet and often cut down the copper wire for making into bracelets, necklaces, and leg-bands.

carrying, disease-breed-ing flies. Be free from buzzing mosquitoes that make your sleeping hours miserable. Deal death to ants, roaches and beetles. Sapho Powder exterminates all these pests. but is NON-POISONOUS and HARMLESS

but is NON-POISONOUS and HARMLESS to human. The handy Sapho Bulb Sprayer puffs the powder into the air killing all files and mosquitose in five to twenty minutes. Your druggist, hardware store or departmental store can supply you with a Sapho Bulb Sprayer at $1.00, Sapho Powder in 95 cand 50 and $1 25 cans.

25 and 50 and $1.25 cans. Try the ready-to-use Sapho Puffer, 15 cents.

sapho Puner, 15 cents, and be convinced. Sapho Liquid sprayed in closets and on clothes, furniture and draperies kills moths, prevents destruction and even keeps moths away.

"Any more," replied Galahad. "You don't mean—" began Preserved, trembling with joy.

ed, trembling with joy. "Dead. Defunct. Demised. Passed away. Expired. Gone to the barn from which no traveler returneth," have said. But it sounded remote and have said. But it s said Galahad. "Here's the telegram. his one thought was to leave Clintonia Say, old can of shrimps, can you lend me five bucks?" A week later, Preserved Fish, ac- propitious-looking drug store, and ad-companied by his father and Galahad, dressed the owner.

who had generously taken a day off who had generously taken a day off from the glass works to help count the money, stood in a lawyer's office and was handed the old walrus bag. "Well, I need a man," the owner His heart throbbed and his breath admitted without entrained (III) His heart throbbed and his breath admitted without enthusiasm. "I'll was unruly; his reward had come at give you eighteen. last.

He fumbled at the lock and the bag "John Fish." popped open like the mouth of a croco-dile. With excited eyes Preserved stared at the heaps and heaps of bills. "No need to shout; I ain't deaf, remarked the man in a bored, tired tone. "You'll find a white jacket "It'll run into five figures," gloated the venerable Mr. Fish. under the counter where the mops is." (To be continued.)

A sharp, horrified oath from Galahad brought them back to their senses with a jerk. "Gawd!" cried Galahad. "It's phoney!"

"Phoney?" Preserved's knee joints went weak; his head spun dizzily.

"Phoney!" piped old Mr. Fish. "Look!" Galahad plunged his hand into the bag and held aloft a sheaf of worn notes. "Confederate money!"

Preserved Fish folded up like a napkin and flopped, white-faced, into a chair.

Minard's Liniment Heals Cuts.

MATCHES -always satisfy the housewife EVERYWHERE IN CANADA ASK FOR THEM BY NAME marched straight home, threw his lavender sox and zither into a bag, Puddings Chocolate, Cocoanut, Tapioca Custards Lemon, Vanilla, Arrowroot, Nutmeg, Almond, Plain At all Grocers.

Specify McLAREN'S INVINCIBLE Made by McLARENS LIMITED, Hamilton and Winnipeg.

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouve