Clearance Sale of

Ladies' Jackets

We don't want to have a Jacket left by stock-taking time, that's why we have marked them at such ridiculous prices. They take up lots of room that we would like to utilize for other goods now that the heavy holiday purchasing is commencing, and if good garments at about one-quarter and one-half their original prices have anything to do with it, by ten o'clock Saturday night the piles that are quite large now will look as if a hurricane had struck them and blown them away.

Here are Some Hints About Prices of the Garments

|--------------------|--------|------------------------------|--------|
| $4.00 Jackets for | $1.90 | $10.00 Jackets for | $5.00 |
| $7.50 Jackets for | $3.00 | $6.50 Jackets for | $3.00 |
| $5.00 Jackets for | $2.50 | $12 and $14.50 Jackets for | $6.00 |

An odd lot of JACKETS
at $5.00, $6.50 and $7.50 for $1.50

A description of each of these Jackets would fill a page of a newspaper, and the most satisfactory way is to see them.

A LIBERAL SWEEP

Provincial Conservative Party in Quebec Wiped Out.

They Only Carry Eight Seats out of Seventy-one—How the Counties
Went.

Montreal, Dec. 8.—Little or no interest was manifested in the provincial elections held in the Province of Quebec yesterday, due chiefly to the fact that with thirty-seven Liberals elected by acclamation, and the tremendous advantage gained thereby by the Parent administration, it would be futile for the Opposition to put forth any energy to elect more than a dozen members of their supporters. The big event in the election, as far as Montreal is concerned, was the defeat of Hon. A. W. Atwater, ex-Provincial Treasurer, in St. Lawrence Division of Montreal, by James Cochrane. There was very little interest taken by the general public in the elections, and a very light vote was polled. The Conservatives ascribe Mr. Atwater's defeat to the fact that the voters did not go to the polls. The vote stood: Cochrane, 1,541; Atwater, 799—majority for Cochrane, 742. Mr. Cochrane had a majority in all the polls except two, and Mr. Atwater will lose his deposit. Dr. Lavoie, the Liberal candidate in St. Mary's Division, defeated Dr. Lavoie, Conservative, by 1,170 majority. Dr. Lavoie losing his deposit. The returns from all over the Province show that the Conservatives carried only eight constituencies. The government now hold 63 seats, and the opposition 8—a government majority of 55. There are still three elections to be held. The following are the returns: Beaurivage—Complete returns give Bergevin, Lib., 19 majority. Quebec East—Lane, Lib., elected by over 600 majority. Richelieu—Carrin, Lib., 400 majority. Soulanges—Bourbonnais, Lib., majority 583. St. Lawrence—Ward, Montreal—Cochrane, Lib., majority 742. Drummond—Watt's Lib., majority 200. Montmorency—Taschereau, Lib., elected majority 500. Laprairie—Cherrier Lib., 60 majority; incomplete. Montreal, St. Mary's—LaCombe, Lib., 1,170 majority. Compton—Girard, Cons., 400 ahead; incomplete. Kamouraska—Roy, Lib., elected, 200 majority. Jacques Cartier—Chaput, Lib., 310 majority. Stanstead—Co-Lovell, Lib., 270 majority. Two Mountains—Champagne, Lib., 200 majority. Joliette—Teller, Cons., elected by over 150 majority. Dorchester—Pelletier, Lib., elected by over 500 majority. L'Assomption—Duhame's, Lib., majority 153. St. Maurice—Dr. Fiset's majority over 300. Huntingdon—Walker's, Lib., majority 408; two polls out. Lotbiniere—Lemay, Cons., 540 majority as far as known. Richmond—MacKenzie, Lib., majority 64. Sherbrooke—Pelletier, Lib., majority 90. Thérville—Gosselin, Lib., majority over 200. St. John's—J. Heroux, Cons., has 58 majority. Terrebonne—Prevost, Lib., 50 majority; one poll out. Pontiac—Gillies, Lib., elected; 250 majority. Rouville—Girard, Lib., 27 majority. Missisquoi—Co-Gosselin, Lib., elected by 200 majority. Wolfe—Bourget, Lib., 26 majority; four polls out. Montserrat—Bissonette, Lib., 191 majority. Val-d'Aud—Lalonde's, Lib., majority 144. Bonaventure—Clapperton's, Lib., majority 244, with four polls to hear from. Laval—Leblanc's Cons., majority 283. Chateauguay—Dupin's, Lib., majority 833; poll out. Charlevoix—Pierre Nault, Lib., elected by 103 majority. Nicolet—Flynn's, Cons., majority 49.

Every county in which a contest was held, has now been heard from, with the result that 29 Liberals and 8 Conservatives have been returned.

A DISPUTED POINT

Is an Insurance Policy in Force
Before the Return of the Papers?

Toronto, Dec. 8.—The Catholic Order of Foresters is defending a suit brought by Mrs. Sarah Ryan, in which the point at issue is the time at which an insurance policy comes into force. Mrs. Ryan's son, John, made application on December 6th, 1899, for a $1,000 policy in the C. O. F., and was accepted. On the 10th he took ill, and on the 19th he died of pleurisy, just before the papers in the case came back. It is claimed that the policy was in force from the time of acceptance and before the return of the papers. The society, in its defence, pleads that Ryan's health was not what it was represented to be.

HOOTED BY BOER YANKEES

Lieut. Col. Rankin has received a communication from Pte. Gorrle, stating that he had safely reached Chicago and was now on the hunt for work. He said that he had as difficulty in getting across the border as his own corn, but was everywhere met with hate and jeers by Yankee Boer sympathizers.

LIBERALS WIN TWO MORE SEATS

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 7.—Election for the Dominion House took place in Burrard and Yale—Carleton Place. The city of Vancouver gives Maxwell, Lib., the late member, 529 majority. In Yale—Carleton—where was represented in the late Parliament by Macleod, Lib.—the indications are that Macleod, Lib., will be elected by about 200.

THE LITTLE STANNESSES

Which Grow Into Big Ones.

A little cold in the head is a trifle, but if neglected and it hangs on from week to week and gets into the throat and lungs it is no longer a trifle. It is then no longer a slight cold but the beginning of chronic catarrh. Do not make the mistake of thinking you have no catarrh because the head and nose appear to be clear. If there is cough, tickling in the throat, hoarseness or a sense of oppression in the chest you have throat and bronchial catarrh. If the appetite is poor, nausea, gagging and disgust for food, especially in the morning, you have catarrh of the stomach.

The surest and safest treatment for every form of catarrh is an internal remedy which acts especially on the blood and mucous membranes. Such a remedy is the new catarrh cure, sold everywhere by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a medicine in pleasant, convenient tablet form and containing all the best and latest specific for catarrh, whether it be in the nose, throat, bronchial tubes or stomach.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed of Sanguinaria, guaiacum, Eucalyptus and other ingredients which destroy the germs of catarrh in the blood, and no one who suffers from any form of catarrh and has seen the results of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and the usefulness of sprays, douches, and remedies will ever go back to them after once trying so convenient, pleasant and harmless a remedy as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and one which gives relief in so short a time.

Even in cases where catarrh has effected the senses of smell and hearing, these tablets accomplish a cure because the blood being cleansed of catarrh germs, the mucous surface of the nose and throat no longer clog up the respiratory passages with catarrhal secretions. All full sized treatments of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for the nominal price of 50 cents and the regular daily use of them will effectually cure this troublesome and dangerous disease.

PEARSON HANGED.

He Admitted the Justice of His Punishment

Confessed Before He Died—It Was a Very Successful Execution.

Hamilton, Dec. 8.—George Arthur Pearson, the 21-year-old grocery driver, who, on Sunday, September 23rd, shot his sweet-heart, Annie Griffin, a 16-year-old girl, driving along a country road seven or eight miles from this city, suffered the penalty of the law yesterday. He was hanged in the jail at 10 o'clock, and after the drop there was not a single irregular movement, although Pearson continued for fifteen minutes. He admitted the crime and the justice of the punishment, and although he made no boast or show about it, professed to have made peace with God, and said he would, if he could restore the life he had taken.

Official Hangman Radcliffe had charge under the Sheriff, and the execution passed off without the slightest irregularity. It was witnessed only by the officials, the jury, a doz members of the medical profession, and one representative from each of the thirty parishes.

Pearson slept soundly during the night and had to be called from his bed at six o'clock. He greeted his night watch cheerfully, dressed promptly and ate a very good breakfast of ham and eggs, toast and custard. Rev. A. MacWilliams was with Pearson at 6.50 a. m., and the Rev. Mr. Wilson and Rev. Lyle arrived a few minutes later. At 7.45 the jail bell began to toll for the death procession, and all present, including Sheriff Middleton in his robes of office, and Dr. Chamberlain in the specter of prison wear of the jail, in which the scaffold was erected. The condemned man, with his day watch beside him, and followed by two turnkeys, walked about to the scaffold. A faint smile played about his features as he ascended the steps of the scaffold unassisted, and stepped firmly upon the trap.

During the adjustment of the black cap Pearson stood with his hands peacefully folded upon his breast. The Lord's Prayer was then repeated by the clergy, and at the words, "Deliver me from evil," the trap was sprung. Pearson's spiritual adviser was present, and he believed the young man had undergone a great change of mind and heart. His weakness of will was his chief characteristic, and he was apparently not only reconciled to his fate, but admitted the justice of it, and met it fearlessly, although with no sign of bravado.

A few days before the execution Pearson made a confession to Rev. F. W. Wilson. He said that on the day in question he had made an improper proposal to Miss Griffin. She resented and said that they must part. He felt then that he had done wrong, and decided to kill her and himself. He shot her then his heart failed. He warned young men against cigarette smoking, strong drink and bad company.

FOR AULD LANG SYNE.

Ladies of Canada: "Should old acquaintance be forgot?" The answer comes mechanically from every Britisher. Nor should new acquaintance be forgot. Remember that on the bloody fields of South Africa, your brave soldier boys were on the firing line, flanked by loyal British subjects from Ceylon and India. In the midst of danger, lasting friendships were formed, and you, ladies of Canada, have it in your power to cement these bonds. The green teas of Ceylon and India appeal to you from sentiment. By using them you not only aid your brother colonists, but you get absolutely the best tea. Those of you who drink green teas, take a revelation in this. If you make a change, buy Robson, Solida and Mission packets may be had from your grocer.

It is in the ears as much as the lips that make the prophet.

WANT CRACK PLAYERS.

Captain Wilson, of the Chatham Football Club, has received a communication from Jos. M. Kelly, secretary of the Detroit team, asking if the Chatham team will represent Detroit in the forthcoming match with Chicago in the Windy City. In all probability Capt. Wilson will accept the invitation, as, in addition to the reputation
the Chathams as an excellent organization, it will afford them opportunity to try their prowess on the crack Westerners and give them an enjoyable trip and outing.

ITS ATTRACTIONS.

The Grand Trunk has for generations
been spoken of throughout the world as having some of the most wonderful engineering achievements that have ever been accomplished. The Victoria bridge spanning the St. Lawrence River at Montreal, inaugurated in 1860 by the Prince of Wales, has been placed in the category of marvelous things, as the bright wonder of the world. Through increase in traffic and with the onward march of time and improvement
this bridge has become inefficient to meet the demands of the company, and a beautiful new open-work steel bridge, with double tracks, carriageways, foot walks, is now built on the same piers as the old bridge at a cost of an enormous sum, and without any interruption to traffic. Another remarkable achievement of engineering work is the new single arch, double track steel bridge spanning the Niagara gorge below
and in full view of the great cataraict itself.
This new structure is the largest single arch bridge in the world, and its height is 228 feet above the water. The view betaimed from the windows of the train when passing over the bridge is something beyond description and probably has no equal.

TO-MORROW'S BIBLE LESSON.
To-morrow's International Bible lesson from Mark 10, 46-52 is as follows: The picture, a poor blind Jewish beggar sitting on the roadside, hears Jesus is in the passing crowd and cries to him as the son of David for mercy. Conscious of our spiritual blindness we can cry to Him as the Son of God.
The crowd would discourage Bartimeus but Jesus was his only hope and he cried all the more. We are in like circumstances. The world never encourages us to pray. Jesus encouraged this man and He will all who call upon Him. If we want sight for spiritual things we too will have our cast-offs.
Jesus' question to Bartimeus is His question to us. Bartimeus' answer was a direct believing prayer, which Jesus answers by immediate healing powers, approving the begar's faith and prayer and you have a blind beggar transformed into a loving follower.
Jesus is the same to-day in Chatham, in spirit, but what are we?
