The October issue of the Ophthalmic Record, a monthly journal devoted to diseases of the eye, contains a clever and interesting article by Dr. R. W. Rutherford, of this city, entitled "The Use of Dionin in Diseases of the Eye."

Mr. George Walker, of Blenheim, lost a horse the other day in a peculiar manner. The animal strayed from the barn the other day, and next morning was found head-first in a neighbor's well, drowned in several feet of water. The well is less than four feet across the top, and how the horse got down into it is a mystery.

MARY AND HER LAMB

No. 6

Said Mary to her little Lamb:
"The autumn days are bright,
Yet I am feeling very blue—
I'm sure I'm just a fright."

P. S.—"Surething!" rejoined the lamb with that smiling complacency which always characterized him. He gave his gaudy green tail a shake. It was dyed with Euphrosyne—2 packages for 50¢ at Radley's.

"What you need, Mary, is a bottle of Radley's Female Tonic. It costs only 50¢ and will do you $50 worth of good."

SOCIETY

TAYLOR-McDONALD.

A very quiet but pretty home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Landon, Victoria Ave. when Mrs. Landon's sister, Miss Margaret McDonald, was united in marriage to Mr. George Gilbert Taylor, a well-known merchant of this city. Rev. Dr. Battisby officiated.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the drawing room being banked with palms and cut flowers. Promptly at 8 o'clock, to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Mrs. Landon, the groom took his place and the bride immediately followed on the arm of Mr. Landon, with Helen Landon as flower girl.

The bride was becomingly attired in a Paris gown of lace over white tulle, carrying a bridal bouquet of white roses and heather.

The little flower girl was daintily dressed in white, and carried a huge basket of pink roses, in which the wedding ring was concealed.

After the ceremony the party repaired to the dining room where the table was prettily decorated in pink and white, and covers laid for fourteen. Each guest was presented with a bouquet of heather.

The bridal party left on the 11.15 Wabash for New York, the bride wearing a royal blue travelling suit with hat to match.

The guests from out of the city were, Mr. Charles Taylor, London; Mr. Bayne Smith and Miss Marion Smith, London, and Mrs. Wm. E. Campbell, of Detroit.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

HEATH-KING

On Wednesday evening, Rev. Frederick Coman officiating, the wedding of Mr. Harry J. Heath and Miss Lilian King, formerly of Blenheim, was solemnized. Mr. Charles D. Whitford, of Boston, Mass., was best man, and Miss Katherine Clancy, of Cornell, N. Y., was bridesmaid.

The bride was prettily attired in a navy blue travelling suit with hat to match.

After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Heath left on a short trip.

ANNIVERSARY SALE

TO MARK ELEVEN YEARS OF PROGRESS

THIS week marks the completion of eleven years since we commenced business in the city of Chatham. The city has made wonderful strides in the way of civic and business improvement in that time, and this store has tried to do its share in calling attention to and bringing more business to Chatham.

The city has progressed and it is evident this store has. At that time eight employees were on the pay roll, to-day 72 employees, and a delivery system requiring five horses ministers to the customers' wants, and a little over eight times the amount of floor space used then is required to hold the vast array of merchandise that this store's customers require.

WE CELEBRATE IN A PRACTICAL WAY...

We recognize our thanks are due to the public for this magnificent showing, and we mean to tender them in the way that helps most.

A GRAND ANNIVERSARY SALE...

Commencing WEDNESDAY, OCT. 24th, continuing for Eleven Days to Saturday, Nov. 3rd.

A DAY FOR EACH YEAR...

and a bargain for every customer that comes. There will be some special bargains in every department of the store; genuine wide awake money saving bargains on goods that you require right now, and all marked with special tickets. We cannot particularize here, but you can depend on finding money-saving opportunities in Dress Goods, Laces, Silks, Trimmings, Hosiery and Gloves, Flannels and Blankets, Clothing and Underwear, Ladies' Jackets and Furs, Millinery, Carpets, Curtains, Furniture, &c.

Come early, come often, we will try and make it pleasant and profitable. Eleven days' sale.

OCT. 23 TO NOV. 3.
