THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAR. 13, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

The Temperance Society will meet with Mrs. Tufts on Monday evening, March 16th.

J. W. Bigelow, Esq., has been appointed a member of the provincial exhibition commission.

The School at Weston, is reported as doing excellent work under the management of Miss Kirkpatrick.

Mr. McDonald, of Pine Hill College, Halifax, conducted the services in St. Andrew's church on Sunday morning and evening last.

Rev. E. O. Read baptised three candidates for church membership at Waterville on Sunday last. Pastor Simpson also baptised at Berwick.

There is a daily mail service between St. John and Digby. This new arrangement went into effect Monday last, and is welcomed with universal satisfaction.

Just read at Wolfville Book Store 150 cop. new Novels.

Among the Windsorians who were present at the inter-collegiate debate on Friday evening last, we noticed the portly form and genial countenance of the Tribune man.

The pastor of the New Glasgow Baptist church passed through Wolfville last week, en route to Yarmouth, visiting churches soliciting funds to rebuild their house of worship, recently destroyed by fire.

L. O. Nelly & Co., Aylesford, are making their last shipment of apples this week, for the present season, of 200 bbls. This firm handled 20,000 bbls. of apples last year, and this year 15,000 bbls.

It has been arranged to hold the camp meeting of 1896 during the first week in August, beginning Friday, July 31st. Messrs. Croswell and Hunter, the evangelists, will be in attendance on and after Monday, August 3rd.

The Leader is a new weekly journal recently started at New Glasgow. The copy before us is bright and new, and is a valued addition to our table. We wish the new venture on the troubled seas of Journalism every success.

The members of the Wolfville Orchestra, and others musically inclined, drove to Wallbrook on Wednesday evening last, where they were entertained at the residence of Mr. James Simson. An attractive programme was rendered by the visitors, and a very pleasant evening spent. Wolfvillians are striking quite a clip of late.

Most of the fun in amateur photography is taking flash lights. We are making a powder that is quick as light. Take 'em with eyes wide open. No need of a machine. 50c. Druggists.

Last Friday evening "Lily of the Valley" Division, S. of T. Port Williams, was visited fraternally by Kentville Division, when a most pleasant and profitable evening was spent. The programme was contributed to by both societies, and was of a most pleasing nature. Appropriate and timely remarks were made by Mr. S. S. Strong and Mrs. Masters, of Kentville, and Mr. C. A. Campbell, of "Lily of the Valley." Refreshments were provided, which added to the enjoyment of the occasion. An excellent feeling appears to prevail among the Divisions of the County, which cannot fail to advance the welfare of the order.

Local and Provincial.

The family of Mr. W. D. Reid, Wolfville, are recovering from a protracted illness.

Mrs. W. Y. and Miss Jennie Kennedy, of Halifax, have been in town for the past week.

Mr. J. E. Woodworth, publisher of the Register, Berwick, was in town on Friday last and paid the ACADIAN a pleasant call.

The churches at Berwick have arranged to invite the evangelists, Hunter and Croswell, to come there about the first of August.

Does your head ache? Read's powder is a sure cure.

Rev. J. L. Read has accepted a call to the New Germany Baptist church and began his labors there the first of this month.

The wife of Rev. D. Pines, at Burlington, Kings Co., fell a few days ago while stepping from the door of her house, and broke her thigh.

Mrs. W. J. Balcum, of this town, met with a bad fall last week, dislocating her hip. She is improving, slowly, but will probably be confined to her room for some time.

New buildings are to be constructed in the spring on the sites of Scotia block and Blechnard lot at Kentville, and several new dwelling houses are also to be erected.

Rev. Mr. Trotter administered the ordinance of baptism to four candidates in the Baptist church on Sunday evening last, three of whom are students at Acadia Seminary.

The many friends of Edward Parker Esq., Somerset, will regret to learn that he has been confined to his bed for more than a month past, from a painful illness, and with but little prospect of permanent recovery, he having passed his 88th birthday.

Mr. E. L. Harris has purchased from Mr. E. L. Collins the store he now occupies, with the lot adjoining the electric light station. He has removed the store further west, and will place the old store, formerly occupied by F. Brown, on the corner, and fit it up for his grocery business. This will make an improvement in the town, and will give Mr. Harris a roomy and convenient store.

A very sudden and sad death occurred at Avonport on Tuesday night of this week. Mrs. Leonard Newcombe, of Lakerville, went to Avonport to attend the funeral of her late mother, Mrs. Taylor, in apparently good health. She died at night occupying a bed with her sister, and in the morning was found dead. The deceased had suffered with heart trouble for some time.

Miss Mabel Davidson, the lady champion fancy skater of the world, gave an exhibition in Aberdeen rink on Tuesday evening last. There were not a large attendance, but those who were present were much pleased with the performance. Miss Davidson is a graceful and dashing skater, and executed a number of exceedingly difficult and intricate figures with ease and agility. When the bed concluded her skating, Miss Davidson took a few turns around the rink on an ice bicycle.
