John Cassidy of Glasgow and his family, who have arrived in Canada with the third Hebridean party of settlers, destined for Alberta. Cassidy's second attempt to get into Canada was more successful than his first. He came as a stowaway in September last year, on the Cassandra, and was handed off the ship to tender mercies of Judge Choquette. The kind-hearted Judge was so impressed with Cassidy's sincerity that, although he deported him under the law, he promised to facilitate his speedy return to Canada. Father MacDonell in the meantime brought him with his Scottish and Irish settlers, and the Land Settlement Branch is placing him on a farm in Alberta.

they strove to put what they had learned into practice, even if it meant losing a few games at first. That is the road to improvement.

Make your hair beautiful

You know women whose hair is always beautiful - no matter how plainly arranged. Think for a moment and you will agree that this beauty lies altogether in softness, the healthy gleam of natural color.

with this shampoo

That is something every girl and woman can have. By simple care in shampooing. This way recommended by authorities.

Now you can test it at our expense.

Use an olive oil shampoo. It never leaves hair dull, brittle, dead-looking. Because it cleans mildly, yet thoroughly, each hair, down to the tiny scalp pores. Leaves scalp and hair healthily clean. PALMOLIVE

All the lovely natural lights and glints of color are brought out. Your hair is silken soft, pliant, with that lovely sheen. Use olive oil in its dainty, modern form for the hair—as blended in Palmolive Shampoo. Not the least bit oily. And it has the additional advantage of economy. Get free 15c trial bottle. Simply send coupon.

And see how delightfully the first shampoo improves your hair.
