"Can you tell me what kind o weather we may expect next month?"
wrote a farmer to the editor of a country paper, and the editor replied: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very like your subscription bill." The farmer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the word 'un settled." He sent a postal note.

-A clergyman's wife, calling on Mrs. Gladstone at Hawarden, remarked, in speaking of the election, that these were troublesome times. "But," ejaculated she, piously, there is one above that will guide is." "Yes," said Mrs. Gladstone, "he will see us through it; and, if you will take a seat, I daresay he will be down in a few minutes."
