Women you envy have only this secret

Radiant, with the charm of youth still theirs, millions of clever women are admired—and envied!-today.

Yet they have no difficult, hidden secret-no great gift. Only this simple method—which is for you, too. To give you, as well, the charm you envy in them.

For one week do this Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your com-plexion lovely, radiant, youthful. But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.

You, too, may employ it to keep the radiance and bloom of youthful skin

Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night be-fore retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse — and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.

Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

Make sure that you get Palmolive — which is never sold unwrapped. All dealers have it. Get it, and try for one week this simplest of all treatments. See how delightfully and how quickly it benefits your skin. THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY OF CANADA, Noted artists, famous moving picture directors and expert scenic photographers, like thousands of tourists, have succumbed to the lure of the innumerable beauties of Banff and the Canadian Pacific Rockies. Artists in increasing numbers each year spend the summer on the trail in the mountains transferring these beauties to canvas. For seventeen years Carl Rungius, celebrated painter of wild animals in their native haunts, has been a regular visitor to Banff. Now he lives there most of the year and has built his own bungalow and studio. In 1921 Rungius won the $1,000 Altman prize, but, being foreign born, was disqualified, whereupon the National Academy of Design bought the painting for $1,000 and it now hangs in the Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington.

Belmore Browne, artist, author, explorer and conqueror of Mt. McKinlay, 20,300 feet, lives in his own bungalow studio in Banff the year round except when exhibiting in New York. He and Rungius both study the mountain goats, sheep, deer and bear in their wilderness homes and paint them and their majestic scenic backgrounds. Richard M. Kimbel, landscape painter, has spent two summers in Banff and is painting at Lake O'Hara, near

KING GEORGE WILL HARKINS ACADEMY ADDRESS WORLD AT WEMBLEY, APRIL 23. Standing of Pupils for the King George will deliver an address that is expected to be heard around the world at 11.30 a. m. Greenwich time; April 23; when he will formally open the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley. For the first time in English history the actual voice or a monarch will be breadcast and heard simultanejusiy n the homes of hundreds of thousands of his subjects who have seen him in public but have never heard him speak; and by. hundreds of thousands of others who have never even viewed His Royal person. The King's actual speech may not carry to the ends of the Empire by wireless out underseas cables will take his message where the air waves fail. As soon as the words leave his mouth they will be flashed from a special station in the exposition grounds along the all British cable ton rout, across Canada to New Zealand and Austrailia: thence to india anu Scuth Africa and back to Wembley; t'us encircling the world; the imrerial cable stations completing the creuit withn five minutes.

However; the speed with which he calle message will circle the Jobe will be nothing compared to the swiftness with which the actual royal voice will travel to the farthest radio set within tuning distance for as even the veriest amateur radio fan knows: radio waves traver with the speed of light. Consequently listeners-in Northern Scotland or Canada will hear the King's wice before it penetrates the air to the outermost edges of the crowds around the speakers as

Had Crime Stamped On Every Feature

(Philadelphia Public Ledger)

A man lately married; went out to oost a letter; and as the lamps had not been lighted in tae suburban road in which he dwelt: he could only imly see his way. nce up the road he met-as he thought-his wife he just whispered "All right my dear I shall be with you in a moment'

Immediately after he had uttered these words he saw the woman turn a horrified look upon him and then hurry away and the idea occurred to him that it was not his wife at all and that in the dadkness he had made a mistake. He decided to say nothing about the matter and quick ly disappeared. When he returned bome he found his wife awaiting for him and she at once greeted him with the words: "O Julian I have had such a frightful experience! I was just cards' said Flubdub. "You know I coming down the road when a man tried to stop me and said 'All right my dear I shall be with you in a minute. I ran home; found you were out and I have been so much alarmed!"

> Julian was about to explain when an idea came to him.

"What sort of a man was it?' he

"O' replied the "I saw him quite plainly and a more villainly face I never beheld in my life. He was a perfect monster with crime stamped every feature.
