FOR THE HERAID. IN MEMORY.

Lines on the death of Julia Pike, who died November 20th, after a short illness, aged 21 years.

Thou art our dearest Julia, Once so happy, bright, and gay, How sad and lonely are our hearts Since she has passed away.

Like a flower in early summer; So full of youth and bloom But soon, Oh! soon, she was to fade And fill an earthly tomb.

Her parents stood with tearful eyes To kiss the last good bye, Then with eyes upraised to Heaven She flew to God on high.

Oh! who can tell the sorrow That pierced her mothers heart When dear Julia said good bye to al Soon from you I must part.

The companions of her childhood In gloomy silence mourn, For the one they loved so dearly Will never more return.

Her voice on earth is silenced now We once so loved to hear She has bid adieu to earthly friends And all she loved so dear.

But soon we hope to meet ber. On that call and tranquil shore Where she has joined the choirs of angels

And saints for eyer more.

She is shining now in glory Before the bright eternal throne Then weep not dearest mother Since Cod too her for his own.

And when the summer does return And flowers do gently blcom We'll cull the choicest loses And plant them on her tomb.

Then sleep the gentle slumber On earth we say good bye Thou art numbered with the angels ? In peace with Good on high. G.M.H
