The Best of Riel.
The Beddoek Island Reporter, one of the most racy and vigorous of our provincial exchanges, has the following slashing remarks under the heading of the dust of Riel. The level headed editor of this eastern exchange isn't fooled worth a cent with the Tory scream just now, and however much they think to the contrary, no Liberal is going to be moved from his footing for an instant by the cry that the government is being destroyed on account of its devotion to liberty and justice. It has been the general display of the very opposite qualities in their dealing with the Northwest that has been the cause of all their difficulties and the just anger and resentment of the people. The whining appeals to Liberals to come to their assistance are as impudent as they are useless and foolish. Says the Island Reporter:
The scene shifting of the Riel play is quite interesting and instructive. A cry is now raised of Riel the rebel, Riel the murderer hanged by justice and sympathized with by the "Grit rebel combination." Such is the dust that is being thrown at the eyes of the public. The events of the late Northwest troubles are too recent and too widely known to be distorted very effectively for party purposes.
Riel simply standing before the bar of justice and suffering the extreme penalty of the law is made the central attraction of the political row, while in truth, Riel, as an individual, has nothing more to do with the present agitation than the trumpet piece of hompen line that obstructed his breath a short time ago. Riel, personally, is not hung. Riel representing the Northwest rebellion is quite another matter; and the everlasting shouting about Riel and "Grit rebel combination" is greater or lesser, only in proportion to the braying qualities of the editorial donkeys who promote it.
It will be quite time for the government to pose as the great champions of liberty and justice when they have fully explained the origin of the troubles in the Northwest. It will be time enough to blow their trumpet over the strangulation of a few savages in the Western wilds when they explain to the satisfaction of the public the justice of allowing every political bloodsucker of the proper stripe to gorge himself with Saskatchewan plunder. It will be time enough to harangue the electorate of this Dominion from the scaffold of the misguided half breed, when it is made clear that the government is not responsible for the plunder, woe and widespread ruin which they have either permitted or prompted. To assert that the people of Quebec are making all this cry simply because Riel was hanged is an insult to the intelligence of every sane person in Canada. The issue is not Riel dead or living, it is the Northwest governed or misgoverned; and by this issue must the government stand or fall.

Headache.
If you suffer from Headache you may be sure that your Stomach, Liver or Blood is at fault, and perhaps all three are combined in bad action. If so, the best remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters, which cures Headache by regulating the organic action generally.
Six hundred fishermen on the Gaspe and Bonaventure coast have been reduced destitute by the failure of the Robin firm.
A Living Question.
Question—"Is this life worth living?" Answer—"It all depends upon the liver!" If torpid or inactive it causes a dull, tough, languid feeling. Dr. Chase's Liver Cure gives health and buoyancy. Sold by Jas. Wilson, sole agent.
The Galt papers record the death of Peter Krefer, for many years past clerk of the Division Court there, at the age of 80 years.
Dyspepsia.
This prevalent malady is the parent of most of our bodily ills. One of the best remedies known for Dyspepsia is Burdock Blood Bitters, it having cured the worst chronic form, after all else had failed.
