Mowar's majority is still going up. Last week, as we showed, he had nineteen of a majority; since that time a recount has been had in the Prince Edward county election and SPRAGUE, the Liberal, has been declared elected. This change will increase Mowar's majority to 21 on a division. East Hastings and two or three other counties have yet to be heard from, which may give the majority a further upward tendency.

THE Empire had the Rouges "on the run" previous to Tuesday morning last, and on Wednesday was busily engaged explaining why MERCIER did not "go," In the last House MERCIER had 17 of a majority.
