

The Good Genius of the Sick Room.

A Gas fire, always a desirable installation, never proves its worth more than in cases of illness, for an invalid may need a fire at any season of the year. A coal fire makes dirt and dust and needs repeated attention, and the noise and clatter that the least stoking operation renders inevitable is at once an annoyance and a possible danger to the patient.

Gas fires are clean and noiseless, and when once alight will burn for an indefinite period without supervision of any kind, and it is now the common practice of medical men, especially when the illness is likely to be lengthy, to recommend a gas fire in the sick room.

When children are convalescent but still confined to one room, it is highly necessary, if the much-dreaded chill is to be avoided, to keep its temperature at a steady level. This is impossible where coal is the fuel, but a gas fire can be so easily and accurately regulated that the required degree of warmth can be obtained without difficulty.

454th Day of the War

TO-DAY'S Messages.

12.30 P.M.

ARMLETS FOR FITS AND UNFITS.

LONDON, To-day. A unique picturesque plan, labelling by means of khaki brassards, bearing the Royal Crown, those fit and unfit for military service has been announced by the War Office. The armlets are being prepared to be distributed soon, as follows: first to men who enlist who are placed in groups waiting for the call to join the colors; second to men who offer themselves for enlistment and are found physically unfit; third to those who are invalidated out of service as unlikely for medical reasons to become efficient again. The armlets in each case have distinctive marks.

FREIGHTERS SEIZED.

HALIFAX, To-day. Two freighters, the Hamborn and Hocking, Dutch and Danish, arrived to-day with prize crews from British warships in charge. It is said both ships were stopped outside New York and ordered to Halifax. The Dutch vessel has a full general cargo and the other is empty, and had only two tons of coal in bunkers when reaching this port.

STATUE FOR NURSE CAVELL.

LONDON, To-day. The Government has given its consent of a statue of Miss Edith Cavell at a site offered by the Westminster City Council between the national portrait gallery and St. Martin's church adjoining Trafalgar Square. Sir George J. Frampton, the sculptor, will execute the statue.

HEAVY BULGARIAN LOSSES.

PARIS, To-day. An Athens despatch to the Havas News Agency, dated Sunday, says the Bulgarians succeeded in occupying part of Veles, situated on the right bank of the Vardar, notwithstanding the heroic resistance of the Serbians. According to Saloniki advices the other part of the town remains in the hands of the Serbians. Bulgarian losses are placed at 25,000 men. There has been no important engagements on the French front. General Sarraill commander-in-chief, inspected the Anglo-French lines from Givoge into Krivolak, including Demir Kapu, which are strongly fortified. The Allies continue to land forces at Saloniki.

MILNER'S STRONG CRITICISM.

LONDON, To-day. Speaking at Canterbury last night, Viscount Milner, who recently raised a stir in the Lords by suggesting the withdrawal of troops from Gallipoli, denounced the policy of secrecy, which he declared had characterized the conduct of the war up to the present. If, he said, such grave faults, blunders and delay as providing shells and the barefaced attempt to conceal its blunders in the Dardanelles and the failure of our policy in the Balkans, if things like these are allowed to be glossed over, we must not expect we should never deserve to see our affairs more wisely conducted in future. I cannot understand why anybody can contemplate our failure adequately.

STEEL HELMETS FOR MEN.

LONDON, To-day. In some parts of the Flanders' battle front, British army authorities have begun serving out to men in the fire trenches steel helmets similar to those introduced by the French.

JOFFRE RETURNS.

LONDON, To-day. Joffre concluded his visit to England and returned to France Saturday night.

EARL'S SONS IN LIST.

LONDON, To-day. The casualty lists to-day included Hon. Evan Charteris, son of Earl Wemiss, killed, and Hon. Arthur Michael Bertie, son of Earl Abingdon, wounded.

BIG ORDERS FOR CANADA.

OTTAWA, To-day. Before leaving for England Saturday, D. A. Thomas, Lloyd George's personal representative in America, stated that the orders had already been placed and further very large orders were now being located in Canada for war supplies and munitions, would amount in the aggregate to something like $500,000,000, over sixty dollars per head of the population of Canada. This with the enormous grain crop that has just been harvested in the west will mean industrial prosperity for Canada for some time to come said Thomas.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER SUNK.

LONDON, To-day. The Norwegian steamer Eidsiva, 1,011 tons, of Bergen, has been sunk; crew saved.

CHANCELLOR FOR RUSSIA.

LONDON, To-day. It is understood that Premier Gomykin, of Russia, will shortly be appointed Chancellor of the Empire, with supreme control of Foreign Affairs, a Reuter despatch from Petrograd states.

NO JAPANESE FOR EUROPE.

PARIS, To-day. While Japan will be unable to send troops to the European theatres of war, she will gladly assist the allies as far as she can financially, and lend them the support of her arsenals, according to Count Okuma, Premier, who was interviewed at Tokio by the Matin's correspondents.

In Memoriam

Yesterday afternoon there was consigned to its last resting place, the body of Sister Mary Ursula Coady, a religious of the Presentation Order, who after a life of self-sacrifice and labor for the good of souls passed peacefully away to her eternal reward on Saturday morning at an early hour. Her decease was preceded by months of acute suffering, borne cheerfully and patiently and in her last journey she was fortified by all the rites of the Holy Catholic Church. Sister Mary Ursula was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, sixty-five years ago. She came to Newfoundland in 1874 and entered the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square where she made her profession on June 29, 1877. In 1881 the young nun was transferred to Placentia to assist the Community already established there. Among the children of the Ancient Capital Sister Mary Ursula worked earnestly and well and many of her pupils now grown to womanhood remember gratefully the kindly interest she took in their welfare and the whole-heartedness with which she sought to fit them for their positions in life. In 1902 Sister M. Ursula returned to St. John's and here she continued her zealous teachings and instructions. The poor were the special objects of her care; she loved them, she labored for them, she lived for them, and even in her death-sickness she thought of them still. All through yesterday whilst the body was resting in the Chapel of Our Lady of Good Counsel, the dead Nun's pupils came to pay a last mark of respect to her memory and to breathe a fervent prayer for the eternal repose of the soul of her who had been their friend. At 3 o'clock the Archbishop and priests recited the prayers for the dead, the "Libera" was chanted, the final absolution given by His Grace and then the funeral cortege wended its way to the Convent Cemetery. At the graveside Rev. J. J. McDermott pronounced the last blessing and the body of a good and religious nun was laid to rest awaiting the final resurrection.

RECEIVED ITS BAPTISM OF FIRE.

LONDON, To-day. The British expeditionary force in Serbia received its baptism of fire on the Givogedolran front, where, according to a Times despatch from Athens, the British took part in the recent fighting. Verona-Austrian prisoners state the entire civil population has been ordered to evacuate Riva, the northern extremity of Lake Garda in Tyrol, although strong reinforcements have arrived from Innsbruck to oppose the Italian advance in this direction.

PARIS, To-day.

A despatch from Athens reported from Constantinople that the first division of the Turkish reservists, which had been engaged on Gallipoli Peninsula, has left for Bulgaria. The Bulgarian Government has called to the colors all exempted of the classes from 1895 to 1904. Operations in Serbia are developing as expected. The present plan of the German and Bulgarian armies is to cut off towards the south the line of retreat of the main Serbian army of the north. The object of the Serbian headquarters is to conduct the retreat in good order to the army's new line of defenses. It is believed in Greek military circles that while the position of the Serbian army is difficult it is not desperate.

McMurdo's Store News

MONDAY, Nov. 1, '15. A Menthol Plaster is often of great service in relieving nerve and muscular pains, and is valuable in cases of pain in the back and joints, neuralgic pains in the chest, and stitches. It usually gives pretty quick relief, and in many cases effects an entire cure in recent and less severe instances. Price 25 cents each. A glass of Horlick's Malted Milk, with or without egg, is a gentle stimulant, and one from which there follows no reaction, because of course it is a food as well as a stimulant, and is beside extremely appetizing. Price 10 and 15 cents a glass.
