THE WHITE SISTER ATTRACTS THOUSANDS.
The attendances at the Nickel Theatre yesterday afternoon and last evening were very large. At the night performance the hall was crowded before 7 o'clock and hundreds were unable to gain admittance. The attraction was the powerful six-act drama "The White Sister," which was splendidly staged. It is extremely interesting and was very closely followed. It will be repeated to-day and no doubt there will be large audiences. At tomorrow's show the Nickel will repeat Charlie Chaplin in his great two-act comedy "The Tramp." This is a very funny picture and is sure to be attractive again.
