—Rev. Canon Richardson has returned from his holiday trip and will occupy his pulpit in the Memorial Church to-morrow.

conduct.

—A ladies' aid for the united congregation of the East London Methodist Church was organized on Monday afternoon. Mrs. (Rev.) Philp was elected president, Miss. Mrs. O. E. Dores secretary, and Mrs. Geo. Leith treasurer. The ladies will proceed at once to secure $1,000 as their subscription in behalf of a new church, and the pastor, the Rev. J. Philp, follows with a subscription of $500.

the Rev. J. Philp, follows with a subscription of $500.

—Samuel Burt, a drayman, was carting some waste paper from music stores on Richmond street the other day, and when going along Dundas street the paper was continually dropping off. Several merchants called his attention to the fact, but he disregarded them. Finally a policeman stopped him and told him to pick it all up. This he refused to do, and as a result he was brought before the police magistrate yesterday. The magistrate fined Burt $1.

—Daniel Johnson, aged 22, was arrested at his home in Brantford yesterday by Detective Allen. It is alleged that on Aug. 1 he was working on the C. P. R. and that he entered the house of John Price corner of Oxford street and Wharneliffe road during his absence and attempted an assult on Mrs. Price. Her cries for help attracted the neighbors to the spot and the young man was chased away. This happened in broad daylight. J. R. Smyth yesterday remanded him until September 8.

—Mrs. John Marshall, who has been dangerously ill, is reported better now. Mr. Marshall himself was called to Hamilton yesterday to attend the funeral of his mother, who died there Thursday from the effect of a paralytic stroke. Besides John Marshall, of this city, her children are Wm. Marshall, of the Hamilton vinegar works, and Miss Marshall, a teacher in Hamilton. Deceased was an old resident of Hamilton, and very highly respected.

—James Westbrook was at the police court yesterday, charged with having done malicious damage to property. The complainant, Miss Allaster, kindly allowed Mr. Westbrook to vacate the premises before the lease had expired, owing to his being unable to obtain a license. It is alleged that he has been tearing down partitions and doing other damage to the building since he removed his belongings. The case was enlarged until Tuesday, to allow the complainant to have a carpenter

Brantford's Offer Declined.

Mayor Read, of Brantford, yesterday received a reply from the Grand Trunk authorities. They decline to accept the city's offer of $100,000 bonus to concentrate the car shops in that place. The directors of the road are favorable to building three miles of loop line if the city will give the right of way and a bonus of $32,000.
