A LIFE DEVOTED TO CHECKERS. Remarkable Career of James Wyllie, of Scotland.

The most famous checker player in the world is James Wyllie, a Scotch-man. now in his 76th year, who has been playing for "a shullen a game, ye ken," nearly 60 years, and is still able to beat almost everybody.

Wyllie was born in the Pierce Barracks, near Edinburgh, in March, 1820, his father being at the time a sergeantmajor in the Scots Greys. He won fame as a checker player when a bay of 15. Wyllie came to this country in 1873, and played over 11,000 games of checkers. of which he lost less than 50. In 1881 he again visited America, and won 17,-654 out of 19,517 games, drawing 1,754 and losing only 109. As he charged Americans 25 cents a game for the privilege of playing with him he must have earned a fair income. In this country played matches with C. F. Barker of Boston; C. A. Freeman, of Providence, and the late R. D. Yates, of Brooklyn, winning from Barker and losing to the others. As Wylie had highly successful tours in England and in Australia, it is believed that he has acquired a snug fortune. Wylie claimed the title of "champion draughts player of the world" until last year, when he was beaten by Jas. Ferrie, a much younger Scotch player, in a match of 90 games, of which Ferrie won thirteen and Wyllie six, the nemainder being drawn. After the match the old man said despairingly, "I doot I'm too auld for draughts," but since then he has played thousands of games, and has had remarkable success in many places in Scotland.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

-At the last meeting of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council, the election of representatives to the Trades Congress of Canada, to be held in this city on Tuesday, Sept. 3, resulted in much discussion. Mr. Brennan strongly advised the council against sending any representative, arguing that the congress was a failure, from a labor point of view, nothing practical being Mr. Belland moved that only one delegate be elected, and this motion was adopted. P. J. Ryan was selected as delegate. KNOCKED THE WOMAN DOWN.

Mrs. Patrick, of London West, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Saturday night. She had stepped from her wagon, intending to enter a grocery store on Wellington street, near Hill, to make some purchases, when she was struck by a passing carriage and knocked down. Friends carried her into a store unconscious and bleeding from an ugly cut on the forehead. She revived shortly, and it was found that no bones were broken. She was, however, very much shaken up. and it will be some time before she recovers from the shock.

BURIED AT WOODLAND.

The funeral of the late Richard Hargreaves, who died recently at Buffalo, the result of an accident in the Buffalo Forge Company, took place this morning from Ferguson's undertaking rooms. A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives assembled there and followed the remains to Woodland demetery, where the interment took Rev. Canon Richardson conducted the services. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Amos Bradford, Obadiah Richards, John Lawson, Robert Herald and John Hislop. Mrs. Hargreaves accompanied the remains from Buffalo. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Frances Connelly.

Mrs. Foster, of Kent street, has just recovered from a serious attack of La Grippe, This is the second siege she has had of the influenza, the first of which attacked Mrs. Foster about three years ago, and left her with a very troublesome cough, accom-panied with chronic bronchitis, and a complication of other diseases, which made it almost impossible for her to attend church without disturbing the congregation by coughing, and, indeed, Mrs. Foster assures us that so bad were the spasms that she often feared she would burst a blood vessel during one of these severe attacks. It was very natural that under such circumstances numerous friends would recommend as many different "cure alls." She tried Cherry Pectoral, Tar, Linseed and other preparations, but was growing generally worse when a friend who had been benefited by Barkwell's Bronchial Balsam advised her to try that, and in a few days she was out of bed, and the best feature is that she is now entirely freed from all simptoms of the Bronchitis, of which she never hoped to be cured. Mr. Millar, a neighbor, also had a bad cough and was completely cured by the same preparation.

DENT. Mrs. Elizabeth Somerville, widow of the late John Brown Somerville, died on Sunday in her 69th year, at the residence of her son, Albert E. Somerville, 649 Queen's avenue. Mrs. Somerville was well entitled to be reckoned as an old resident of London, having resided here since she was 12 years old - 57 years ago. Her husband died thirteen years ago. Deceased was born in Glasgow, and had been ailing for several months, but death was sudden when it came. Mrs. Somerville was a member of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church. who died suddenly at Ingersoll last week had a phenomenal career. He was born in 1816. His father, Mr. Henry Coyne took up rand from Col. Talbot in October, 1817, choosing the spot in Dunwich now known as Coyne's Corners. Here he raised a large family, all of whom are now deceased. Mary, the eldest daughter, married Mr. Edward Green, and was the mother of the Messrs. Green, of this city. John, one of the sons, when he arrived at man's estate, settled in Mosa, being one of the pioneers of that township. Mr. J. W. Coyne, of Ridgetown, and Messrs. G. and H. Coyne, of Glencoe, are sons, while a married daughter resides at Wardsville. Thomas, another son of Henry Coyne, was reeve of Dunwich for many years, and was a prominent figure in that township. It was he who built the Coyne James, another son, removed to London, and Isaac to Mount Forest. Elizabeth, a daughter, married Mr. Thomas Webb, of this city. Miss Ann Covne was married to Mr. Benjamin Wilson, but died nearly half a century ago. He was an ardent Liberal, and his views of the relatives merits of the two great political parties were hardly those of today, but rather those of the stormy times when the liberties we now enjoy had to be fought for and sometimes to be bled for. Mr. Coyne was old enough to remember what the reign of the Family Compact meant. He was a young man in the prime of life when Mackenzie and his followers rose to obtain by force the rights they despaired of otherwise attaining. He had stood shoulder to shoulder with hundreds of his fellow Liberals in this city in 1849 to guard Lord Elgin from the attack of the Conservative party, and had there received a blow which had nearly ended his days. Time and again had he and his fellow Liberals to fight their way to the polls. He had in later years been one of those who demanded the secularization of the Parliament by population. He was one much—industrious, persevering, intelligent, progressive, endowed with a hate of tyranny and a deep love of liberty. that of going to the forks of the Thames ince.
