WOOL MARKET.

Toronto, March 11.—The situation for domestic wool is about the same as it was a week ago. The demand for fleece for export is slow in coming, and holders are tired waiting for it. Pulled wools are slow. For some time past wools which are dutiable to the extent of 3c per 1b have been coming into Canada free, because of a lack of watchfulness on the part of customs officials. Wools per 10 have been coming into Canada free, because of a lack of watchfulness on the part of customs officials. Wools which come into direct competition with domestic fleece should pay a duty of 3c per 1b under the ordinary tariff, and if from Great Britain they are subject under the preference to a net duty of 2c per 1b. In one or two cases lately duty has been charged on such wools, and it looks as if the duty would be collected in all such cases in future, as the vigilance of the customs officials will be greater in such cases in the future. This will keep a lot of wool out of the market that was formerly allowed to come in free, and to that extent it will improve the condition of the home market for domestic wools, although it is scarcely likely to make any advance in prices. Fleece—The demand is inactive and the market is unchanged, at 13c for washed market is unchanged, at 13c for washed and 7½c for unwashed. Pulled wools—In moderate demand, and the market is steady, at 18c to 19c for extras and 14c

Cursory Comment.

This long haul spoken of in railway matters seems to apply to the present return route from Springbank.

The members of No. 3 committee were certainly a lot of rubberers last night. Their time was largely taken up with the inspection of hose, coats, boots, etc., for the fire brigade.

It is appropriate that the head of the fire brigade should have power to fire his subordinates.

"We want the long haul!" say the L. E. and D. R. R. officials. "We want the long haul," say the local military men, who look forward with satisfaction to increased drill accommodation in the new armory.

The Late Mrs. Ann Bell Has Nearly Sixty form of Debility, Direct Descendants.

Mrs. Ann Bell, widow of the late Wm. Bell, died at her home, con. 7, lot 7, Ballymote, early this morning. She was one of the oldest residents of the county, being 93 years of age, over 50 years of which had been spent on the above mentioned farm.

She was born in Ireland, and with her husband came to this country, where she had spent a long and useful life, endearing herself to a large circle of acquaintances, who will deeply regret to hear of her demise. Death was due to the weaknesses of old age. A remarkable fact in Mrs. Bell's life is that 30 grandchildren and 25 greatgrandchildren had been born while she lived.

She leaves four daughters-Mrs. Phillips, Ballymote; Mrs. Jenkins, of this city; Mrs. Wyatt, of St. John's, and Mrs. Donnelly, of Belleville. The funeral takes place tomorrow from her late residence. Rev. Canon Richardson, of whose church Mrs. Bell had been a life-long member, will conduct the service.

She replied: "There was a little Irishman in Chicago, named O'Neill, who was the greatest Romeo I have ever seen." This is the same James O'Neill, who afterwards made "Monte Cristo" famous. Mr. O'Neill will be seen at the New Grand, Friday, March 21, in a scenic production of "Monte Cristo," furnished by Liebler & Co., which is said to be a most elabprately staged production. The same firm also control Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Eleonora Duse, the great Italian actress, Viola Allen, Mrs. Sarah Cowell LeMoyne, and other famous tions, including "The Christian." It is said that "Monte Cristo" is the most sumptuously staged piece they have ever put forth.

"FOXY QUILLER." In "Foxy Quiller," which comes to the New Grand, March 24, there are many numbers, such as the waltz song, in the first act, the song of the cheating peddler, a tarentella, and the "Song of the Sword," which are of unusual order of merit. Klaw & Erlanger have surrounded Mr. Sykes with a supporting cast of evxtraordinary excellence. They announce that notwithstanding the unusual expense attendant upon the performance, there will be no advance in the prices, which will remain the same as those obtained for attractions of the first class.

THE GREAT PIANIST JONAS. When Alberto Jonas, the renowned planist, who is to give a recital in London next Wednesday, played the Paderewski concerto in New York, he was applauded with immediate enthusiasm and heartiness and recalled three times at the public rehearsal and five times at his Saturday evening entertainment. The impression he made was in every way a favorable one. He is a pianist of high order intellectually, and his technical proficiency was equal to the demand in every way.

Rheumatismisa Constitutional Disease

The pain and localized conditions are mere results of constitutional conditions. Poisoned blood sends its evil influence to various parts of the body, and to cure permanently you must treat it constitutionally. Nothing so completely dispels these poisons from the system as Ferrozone. It makes new blood. It imparts vitality and vigor, enabling the system to throw off the poisons that engender rheumatism. Ferrozone also fortifies the system against the weakening effects of rheumatism, and cures, not simply relieves, as most medicines do. Sold by
