The argument of the comparative figures still remains, however, that people are beginning to doubt the veracity of the statement that "marriage is sublime." The men appear to prefer boarding-house life to living in "cosy little flat, where the kitchen's in the parlor and the ceiling breaks your hat." The city clerk's figures also show taht during April there were 90 births,

SHOOTING FOR SPOONS

Opening Contest at Cove Ranges. Scores of Participants.

The first shoot for silver spoons took lace on Saturday on the Cove ranges, about 50 men contesting. The range officer was Major Hayes, and he was assisted by two non-coms., Sergts. Wray and Newton, under the sergeant major. The contest was carried out strictly in accord with the regulations. and resulted in Sergt. Newton's win-ning the spoon in class A, with a score of $5 points; Sergt. Freeland, in class C, with 62 points, and Pte. Butler in class B, with 62 points. The weather was very rough, and the strong, tricky yind made big scores an impossibility. Following are some of the leading scores: Sergt. Newton, A Company 85 points (spoon); Mayor Hayes, A Company, 85 points; Sergt, Galbraith, H Company, 83 points; Pte. Allen, A ompany, 83 points; Sergt. McDonald. A Company, 78 points; Sergt, Fisher, 76 points; Sergt, Wray, 73 points; Pte.

Butler, 68 points (spoon); Sergt, Free. land, 62 points (spoon); Sergt, North cott, 62 points. A handicap of three points is now placed on Sergt Newton, this being the order passed at the meeting of the rifle committee, whilst Pte. Butler is now passed into class A, and Sergt

London Bowlers Expect a Good Sea. son-The Sport Begun.

The bowlers of this city are well satisfied with the way in which they are making the way clear for a good long bowling season. On Saturday, both the Thistle and the London Rowing Clubs started the balls rolling. About 25 lovers of the old game gathered at the Thistle club in the afternoon and enjoyed some good brisk games. Sides were picked and three well-contested matches resulted as follows: r. S. Clark. I. Taylor.
