Her clothing was taken from her, and she was dressed in rags, she said, was enough food, and was constantly threatened with death if she sought to escape. After the girl disappeared from her home six weeks ago, the police searched in vain until people in the vicinity of the Susso house reported that they had heard a woman's screams coming from the place at all hours. Early this morning policemen invaded the house and found the girl.

A Warm Welcome to New Pastor Methodists Greet Rev. Mr. Redmond

Hill Street Church.

A largely attended social was given by the organized adult Bible class at the Hill Street Methodist Church last evening. The affair was arranged by the class as a reception and welcome to the home-coming pastor, Rev. R. Redmond, who has been resting while at Bayfield, on Lake Erie.

It was very evident, by the large numbers present, that the pastor has won the hearts of his people, who are enthusiastic in their loyalty to him. Alderman Booth occupied the chair and in a brilliant speech, welcomed dress, Mr. Redmond; solo, Mr. Reid; Mr. Redmond back to his church, five-minute intermission to get ac-The alderman also alluded to the ap- quainted; reading, Miss Sellery; solo proaching contest on Sunday street Miss Myrtle Corbin; male quartet;
