London, Jan. 27.-Money was abundant and discount rates were weak today. The Bank of England bought most of the £5,000.000 new gold offered in the open market. The general settlement com-menced on the Stock Exchange with cheaper rates. Business for the new acount was vigorous and broadening, with buoyant tone. Mexican shares were a feature on buying, based on President Wilson's statement that President Huer-Trethewey 27

Easy discount rates and the expectation of a 3 per cent bank rate on Thursday helped sentiment. Shipping shares were lower, owing to the rate war. American securi-ties opened steady. Fair buying orders appeared during the forenoon, and prices advanced from ¼ to a point over parity. The improvement was held until the fate trading, when realization caused reaction and made the closing easy.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Jan. 27.-Emperor William celebrated his 55th birthday today, hale and vigorous in body and mind, and able still, as was shown by his recent wood-chopping exploits, to undertake the physical work of a man in the prime of life. All classes of his subects joined in observing the day, celeorations being held by the university, schools and academies of arts and sciences, by army and navy officers, by civic organizations and by municipaliies and veteran associations throughout the empire.

After divine service in the chapel his majesty held a birthday evee and received congratulations.

NOULD USE MARKET AGAIN FOR SHOWS

Old Boys' Committee Meeting Will Be Held on Friday Night.

The management and finance committee of the London Old Boys' Associaion will have a meeting on Friday night to talk over plans for the diamond jubilee reunion next August, and as the committee includes the mayor and members of the board of control, a recom-mendation will probably be made to the council, which body meets on Monday night. Important among the subjects to be discussed will be the proposed muni-cipal grant to the project and the ques-tion of space for the shows. It is desired to use the market and surrounding streets again this year, and it is not anticipated that there will be any great opposition to the plan
